Non-members can join the day of the event to take advantage of the early access.

HEALTHY LIBRARIES PROGRAM HEALTH SCREENINGS & INFORMATION TABLE

Saturday, November 4, 12:00-4:00pm

The Stony Brook Medicine Healthy Libraries Program team (HeLP) is an interdisciplinary team of public health, physician's assistant and social work students who work collaboratively to provide health information, screening, and case management in Suffolk County Libraries. The team will be onsite to provide blood pressure screenings, share information on a wide variety of health topics, and provide assistance connecting with community and social services resources. No registration.

TREE OF WARMTH

December 1-February 29

Help us keep our community warm by donating new scarves, hats, gloves or mittens to our Tree of Warmth in the café area. If you need something warm, please take it from the tree! As the tree gets full, we make donations to local food pantries and homeless shelters to help with distribution. Thank you for your continued generosity with this annual service project.

In 1945, our Memorial Library was founded in part as a way to pay tribute to World War II military veterans. We continue to honor the many military veterans in our community with programs and collections that attempt to preserve their legacy. This November, we honor our Veterans by providing these special programs:

VETERAN'S ORAL HISTORY PROJECT EXHIBIT

November 1-November 30

Did you know that LML contributes to the Library of Congress's Veteran History Project? This nationwide project preserves and makes accessible the firsthand recollections of U.S. military veterans so that future generations may understand what they saw, did and felt during their service. This month, visit the library to see a physical exhibit of these oral history recordings. Photos of our Veterans with QR codes linking to the interviews will be displayed in the main reading room throughout the month. If you or a loved one would like to add an interview to the collection, please email us at localhistory@lindenhurstlibrary.org for more information.

MISSION STATEMENT

Helping its community engage, grow, and discover using library resources and services.

Revised June 15, 2023

Staff and press may take photographs and videos at Library programs for use in future publicity. Please inform us prior to an event if you do not want yourself or your child photographed or videographed.

SUNDAY HOURS ARE BACK!

The Board of Trustees know how important Sunday service hours are to community members who can't come during the weekday. We will open again on Sundays from 1:00-5:00pm, beginning November 5, 2023-April 28, 2024. We will be monitoring building usage and door counts to help us determine service moving forward. The Library is closed on any Sunday preceding a Monday holiday when the building is closed.

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Meet our business office staff, Melissa Negrin and Liz DaSilva! You may know them as our library's notaries—they have notarized over 500 documents over the past year. They also handle all bills, payroll, health care and other employee benefits. We literally couldn't run without them!
