DEDICATION

WE, the Seniors of 1947, dedicate this Yearbook to our principal Dr. Bower. He has been associated with schools since 1905. Dr. Bower has been Principal of our system for thirty-two years, coming here in 1915.

This fine Christian gentleman has done much to advance the standards of this village and community. His work during the war, Boy Scouts work and other civic work are examples. The thousands of boys and girls who have profited by his advice and guidance make up his greatest contribution to his community, state and nation.

Our best wishes go with him as he goes into retirement at the close of this school year.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

IN every school district the Board of Education is the governing body and is granted by law all of the usual powers and duties found in other forms of government such as the Village, the Town, the County, etc. Boards of Education may consist of from three to nine members and since 1892 when District No. 4 was established as a Union Free School District by unanimous vote of the people, having been a Common School District prior thereto, Lindenhurst has had a membership of nine.

Each May or July, as the Board shall determine, the annual meeting is held mainly for the purpose of electing three members for terms of three years each and to adopt a budget for the ensuing year.

The Board of Education fixes the general policies of the school, engages principals, teachers and the non-instructional personnel, rules on all matters pertaining to school affairs and in general has full jurisdiction in its entire operation not inconsistent, of course, with provisions of the Education Law.

To become a member of the Board one must be a citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age and a resident of the district at least thirty days preceding the election.

Board members hold their respective offices and discharge their important duties gratuitously, receiving no monetary reward. Such office is declared by law to be one of "honor and trust."

The incumbent Board is comprised of William F. Wolter, President, Robert C. Kienle, Vice-President, William C. Law, Alfred L. Pfeiffer, Adolph E. Mentz, Martin Pfeiffer, Harold Haupt, Louis Liebl, and Arthur S. Kramer. Its appointive officers are Herbert Torns, Treasurer and Edward J. McGraw, Clerk. Franklin T. Voelker serves by appointment as the Board's attorney.

MR. LITTLE

MR. LITTLE, formally a general science and chemistry teacher, is now Vice-Principal at L.H.S. He spends most of his time helping students straighten out schedules and avoiding conflicts. His subtle wit and humorous remarks made him popular with the student body.

Mr. Little is a graduate of Mount St. Mary's College, and has received his Masters degree from Fordham University. He came to join the faculty at Lindy High School in 1935.

He worked long and hard as one of the Senior advisors and the advising of a class of Seniors such as we was by no means an easy task.

MRS. EASTON

MRS. EASTON, beloved supervisor of the Junior High, has always been a favorite with the student body for the motherly way she looked out for our interests. She was always willing to listen to our side of the story before she passed judgement and in many cases she gave us the benefit of the doubt.

Having studied at Cortland State Normal, Mrs. Easton joined the faculty at L.H.S. in 1914 and has never taught in any other school.

Her interest in us has been deeply appreciated by all of us whom she has helped with our problems. She seems to possess the rare gift of understanding this younger generation.

TO OUR FACULTY

ALL of us at one time or another have complained about the teachers we "had to put up with" during our four trying years at L.H.S. Now as we leave our beloved Alma Mater, we have quite a different attitude toward our faculty. We remember how they helped us settle our problems and how they worked with and for us and how they worried with us when we had to take those tough "Regents." Why did they stay hours after school and why did they stay up late at night marking our papers? They were just as anxious to see us pass as we were. We remember the understanding attitudes they displayed about our problems. We owe a great deal to our faculty for it was they who helped us form good characters and an honest outlook on life. When we rebelled against their discipline, we didn't realize that they were merely trying to turn our faults into good traits. Now as we go out into the world to face its problems and its troubles, we will wish we could take some of our teachers along the way to guide us over some of the rough places as they did when we faced similar problems as high school students.

Yes, we will miss our teachers. Who, in our future, will see to it that we always "stay in line" and climb the "right stairway" as did Miss Marsh in our school days? We'll miss hearing Miss Samsel's N-U which was more or less her trademark. Nor will we forget how Mr. Little called everyone "Chappy" until he was secretly dubbed that nickname himself. In the future we will look back and wonder if Mrs. Easton is still helping struggling young students out of trouble or if Mr. Genor is still comparing everything in physics class to a baseball. Does Miss Schneider still have that knack of making students like social studies? Has Mr. Michel still that sense of humor that made him so popular? Is Mrs. Graham still looking after everybody and offering good common "horse sense" advice? We will always keep these memories in our hearts and in the future we will think of them, smile to ourselves or laugh over them with our friends, yet behind all of this we will silently wish that we could go back and live those four years over again.

FACULTY ADVISORS

THIS picture of the advisors of the Senior Class is incomplete as Mr. Little, our general advisor was absent from school when the picture was taken. He is Vice-Principal of L.H.S. and teaches science to the Junior High. He is always present when we get lax about making money and we find that at these times he peps us up.

Miss Samsel, one of our dramatic advisors is also our English teacher. She and Miss Van Patten, the other dramatic advisor, directed our Senior Play. Miss Van Patten is our one and only Guidance Counselor. She is always on the job to help us find a good college to fulfill our needs.

Mr. Benini, Industrial Arts teacher of L.H.S., is our business advisor and is always finding a new way for us to make money.

Mr. Shawver, who only started to teach in L.H.S. in the fall, is our year book advisor. Although he is busy with his biology and health classes, he has done a fine job to help get the yearbook to press.

The Senior Class of 1947 wishes to express their gratitude to our five advisors.

SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

IN our final year of high school, we selected our class officers with care. To the office of president we elected Richard Feitzinger and Beatrice Bincaris was chosen as vice president. Carol Frederick was given the duty of keeping the class records and books as the secretary of the Senior Class. The funds in the Senior treasury were placed into the hands of Rudy Viohl, the treasurer. An advisory committee was chosen to help take care of senior affairs due to the difficulty we had in getting faculty advisors. Those chosen to serve on this committee were: Chris Rodriguez, Pat Prentice, Alice Jaeger, Barbara Hilbert, Bob McGowan, Dana Mortensen.

Together the class officers, the committee members and the cooperative members of the Senior Class worked to make this class of '47 a successful one.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

WE recall, as we leave our schooldays behind us, the first day we entered high school as frightened Freshmen who didn't know exactly what the score was. Everything seemed so new and wonderful to us and we were determined to leave our mark in L.H.S. when we left. We started our high school "careers" by electing Pete Croce as our president, Walter Tabor as vice-president, Janice Wood as secretary, and Harold Hermann as Treasurer. Miss Frances Hoffman and Miss Miriam Chesler were chosen to be our first advisors. Our first social affair was a Leap Year Dance. We netted $44.00 and that was put into our treasury. The gym was attractively decorated in green and white and the girls had to ask the boys to dance. Our first endeavor was both a social and a financial success. This was very encouraging and gave us enthusiasm to give more dances in the future.

As Sophomores, under the guidance of Miss Barbara Treat and Mrs. Mary Ford, our new advisors, we elected Bob Hass as our president, Lois Hammond as vice-president, Pat Prentice as secretary, and Richard Feitzinger as treasurer. On November 18, 1945 we presented our first annual "Hen Peck Hop." We were quite proud of the fact that we had a real orchestra to play for us at this affair. It was Johnny Nills and His Five Jacks. The dance was a huge success and as a result of it we added $50.00 to our class funds. Later in the year we gave another dance. This time it was a Valentine's Dance and we called it the "Cupid's Round-Up." Pat Prentice and Pete Croce were elected to be King and Queen of Hearts and were crowned appropriately. After this dance we put $79.00 more into our rapidly growing treasury. Thus ended our Sophomore year.

With Miss Treat and Mrs. Ford still as our advisors, we started our Junior year full of pep and self confidence. Once again we elected Pete Croce as our president and Pat Prentice as vice-president. Carol Frederick was given the duties of secretary and Chris Rodriguez was elected treasurer. Our first event was a second annual "Hen Peck Hop." We made over $100.00 on this most successful affair. In December of that same year we gave a Gay Nineties Review. As the crowning event of our Junior year we gave our Prom. The theme was "Winter Wonderland" and the gym could hardly be recognized as a gym it was so beautifully decorated. Alice Jaeger and Ted Evertz were crowned as King and Queen of Winter Wonderland. The prom was a great social success and everyone who went enjoyed themselves.

As seniors, we had quite a bit of difficulty in selecting our advisors. At last five were chosen for us. Mr. Little took care of all the business with Mr. Benini helping him. Miss Samsel and Miss Van Patten were asked to direct our Senior play, and they did a very fine job. Mr. Shawver advised the yearbook on which he worked hard and he too did a fine job. Our class officers were Richard Feitzinger as president, Bea Bineares as vice-president, Carol Frederick as secretary, and Rudy Viohl as treasurer. Our first dance was the third annual "Hen Peck Hop." Once again we made a good profit. Our next event was the Senior play which netted over $100.00. After the January class left us we presented a basketball game between the faculty and the girls honor team, and the faculty and the varsity team. This game brought in the profit of $145.00.

We have worked hard together for four years. Now as we are about to have our edition of the "Bulldog" published, we hope that it will be all that we have worked for. By full cooperation of class members and our faculty advisors we are sure to have as happy and enlightening a senior year as the past three have been.

SENIOR

AS did all the senior classes before us, we too presented a Senior Play. The title of the play was "Best Foot Forward" and concerned a movie star who was losing her popularity with the fans. The movie star, played by Marilynne Torns, is invited to a senior prom at Winsocki School by Bud Hooper (Rudy Viohl) as a gag. Gale Joy, the movie star, accepts the invitation at the suggestion of her manager, Jack Haggerty (Louis Simonetti) as a publicity stunt. When Bud discovers that Gale Joy is coming to the prom, he asks his buddies, "Hunk" (William Becher) and "Dutch" (Louis Grasso) to help him out because Bud has already asked his own girl, Helen Schlessinger (Leona Downey), to the prom. He frantically writes to Helen informing her that he has the grippe and can not go to the prom. He then asks Gale Joy to go, posing as Helen, but, alas, Helen comes to Winsocki to nurse Bud through the grippe and the news spreads rapidly that the "Helen" at the prom isn't Helen at all but is Gale Joy, the famous movie star.

Minerva (Carol Frederick) and Etherl (Barbara Hilbert), "Hunk" and "Dutch's" girl friends, are jealous of Gale and decide to "get even" with her for monopolizing their boy friends. They all go on a souvenir hunt which results in having poor Miss Joy's gown torn to shreds and a disgrace to Winsocki. All turns out well in the end due to some fast thinking by Gale Joy.

The play was a rollicking comedy with lots of humor added by the "Blind Date" (Jean Catalano), Doctor Reeber, the Dean of Winsocki, (William Karnik), "Satchel" (Diego Jimenez), "Greenie" (Hugh Gilmore), Chester (Jomer Rand) and his flash camera, Professor Lloyd (Frank Hass), Miss "Delaware Water Gap" (Vilma Cellen), the Old Grad (Alan Heller), and Miss Smith (Lillian Jaeger), the chaperone.

"Best Foot Forward" was directed by Louise Samsel and Barbara Van Patten, who got gray hair trying to keep us wild seniors under control. Of course we had our prompters and stage hands to help make the play a success. It was a good play and we all had a lot of fun presenting it.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

HAVE your tickets ready, please! Have your tickets ready please! Hello all you good people. Here we are at another first nighter at the little theater just off Broadway.

As we enter the huge lobby, we see Shirley Piggott, Olivia Coughi, Barbara Becher, and Clara Aardsma talking over the latest in education. They have become very successful professors at various metropolitan colleges. Just behind them, I see Pete Croce and "Stretch" Thompson, coaches of our highly successful basketball Quintets. Yes, indeed, this is a night for stars. Right across the lobby I see what might be the greatest gathering of musical talent I have ever seen. Bill Karnik, "Chick" Pfeffer, Don Peters, Cosmo Alessi, and Joe Furrer are all successful bandleaders and with them are Nancy Juliano, Marilynne Torns and Gertrude Busch, all feature artists at the "Met," Diego Jimenez, Cosmo's vocalist and also with them is Joan Hibbert, highly successful independent singer. Just to the right of us I see Dana Mortensen, Frank Denzel, and Bob McGowan, night club owners, talking to Bea Bineares, fashion designer, Gemme LePorte, her confidential secretary, and Elsie Orgill, artist for Allen Heller's advertising agency. In case we should have to call for a doctor in the house, I see three very competent ones right before me: Elaine Millich, Richard Feitzinger, and Frank Hass, and in case we need a veterinarian, Bill Becher has just arrived with Barbara Hilbert, prominent woman athlete.

I have a program for tonight's show. In the starring roles are: Bob Haas, Leona Downey, and Margaret Stein, with a fine supporting cast including Alice Jaeger, Pat Prentice, Virginia Graham, Rudy Viohl, Louis Grasso, Carl Bohman, and Louis Simonetti. Writer of tonight's play is Lillian Jaeger. Director is Marjorie Nelson and Clifford Burke is head of special efforts.

Here comes the social elite: Rhoda Garelick, Doris Taibl, Mabel Antfeld, Henrietta Zindl, Dot Warneck, Joan Short, Edibelle Langsdorf, and Jean Catalano are all here. They are followed by the local playboys, Sal D'Adezzio, Pat Canning, Walter Tabor, Wilbur Bittner, Chris Rodriguez, Tony Gelsomino, and Ted Evertz. Standing next to the ticket window, I see Aggie Berni, Janice Wood, and Joyce Minor, athletic champions extraordinary. Right beside them are Charlie Birs, football star and Jomer Rand, baseball slugger. There goes Dot Burrel, Vilma Cellan, and Frances Ermish, ballet dancers at the "Met." I see three of Wilbur Larkin's foremost models, Carol Frederick, Doris Jacobson, and Gladys Haff. They are escorted by the great grocery czars, Hugh Gilmore, Joe Pfisterer, and Johnny Burke. Also entering is John Gaggin, City fire commissioner, and Bill Finn, Engineer for the U.S. Navy. Angela Ardizzone, Agathe DeBella, Audrey Slattery, and Gloria Zemba have beautiful tans after touring South America as representatives of various Hollywood and New York studios. Dot Liedtke and Lucille Brush are resting before taking over their duties in Congress this spring.

The warning buzzer has sounded and the houselights dim for the first act is about to begin. So long now, I'll see you after the show."

cook "good" food without all the loud declaiming
- To Mrs. Easton—Our deepest gratitude for her kindly consideration of our problems and her efforts in sponsoring assembly programs

Signed, sealed, and witnessed by the entire Senior Class of 1947.

JUNIOR CLASS

AS Freshmen, we started with the Triple Treat consisting of a dance, movie, and a play. This was so successful that we decided to have another Triple Treat in our Sophomore year, followed with the Coney Island Jamboree. Both were a tremendous success. At the end of our Sophomore year we had accumulated over $300.00, more than any previous class.

Our Junior year proved to be even more prosperous. We held another Triple Treat and it too was a success. We are planning another in our Senior year. The biggest dance of the year was of course our Junior Prom. The gym was gaily decorated so as to represent a Mexican Fiesta. Balloons were a gay part of the decoration. The girls received miniature wrist bouquets as favors. Many pupils were in attendance. The Juniors provided their own orchestra of which we were very proud. An added attraction to the prom was the annual Grand March.

We Juniors look forward to a very pleasing Senior year, during which we will have our Yearbook to publish and make a success. Another eventful enterprise will be our Senior Ball, which we hope will be as much of a success as our Junior Prom. We owe most of our success to our class advisor, Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Seniors extend best wishes to this class of 120 as they go into their last two years of high school. The sponsors are Miss Pedisich and Mr. Papps.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshman class composed of 110 students are regarded by the Seniors of 1947 as fine prospects for Seniors in 1950. The sponsors are Mrs. Maurer and Miss Kelleher.

EIGHTH GRADE

There are 84 Eighth Graders. Their sponsors are Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Coll, and Miss Knowles. The Seniors wish them success.

SEVENTH GRADE

Good luck from the Seniors to the Seventh grade, numbering 104. The sponsors are Miss Marsh, Miss DeVey, Mr. Stribling, and Mr. Hirsch.

ACTIVITIES

GENERAL ORGANIZATION

UNDER the vigilant supervision of Miss Encie Babcock, Mrs. Etta Easton, Mr. Robert Little, and Mr. Edward Hopkins, the G.O. has once more established themselves as one of the outstanding organizations, not only as a governing body, but also as a group who tries to do their utmost for the good of the school. Tickets are sold annually, which enables the owner to gain admittance into both Football and Basketball games. The officers of this organization are:

President ..... Robert Hass
Vice President ..... Rudy Viohl
Secretary ..... Betty Tuff
Treasurer ..... Harry Diamond

THE BULLDOG STAFF

THE Senior Class of '47 worked for four years to raise money for the purpose of publishing a yearbook and in our last year we started in earnest on it. Marilynne Torns was chosen as Editor-in-Chief of the "Bulldog" with Mabel Antfeld as her Assistant Editor. Others on the staff were Margaret Stein who was the Feature and Club Editor, Joyce Minor and Janice Wood who wrote the girl's sports, Jomer Rand who wrote the boy's sports, and Hugh Gilmore, Dana Mortensen, Barbara Hilbert, and Rhoda Garelick who collected ads to increase the funds of the class. Elsie Orgil lent her talent as Art Editor and Alice Jaeger served as Photography Editor. The staff's typists were Pat Prentice, Virginia Graham, Carol Frederick, and Marjorie Nelson. Mr. Shawver was the faculty advisor and he devoted much of his time to the yearbook.

After the January class was graduated, the staff was cut in half and there was still most of the literary work to be completed. Mr. Sawver and Marilynne worked frantically and gathered the articles written by the staff members, collecting snapshots and getting some last minute writing finished so that they could meet the publisher's deadline. With the full cooperation of the remaining staff, the deadline was met and the "Bulldog" was published.

CAMERA CLUB

THE Camera Club once again is in full swing. Under the direction of Mr. Sauer, this intelligent group has not only learned about cameras, but how to develop and print their own pictures. During the course of the year they have held many snapshot contests which not only proved successful but interesting. Officers are: Pres. Otto Sedler; Vice Pres. Frank Hass; Sec. June Fenkhart, Treas. Margaret Stein.

RIDING CLUB

AMONG the many clubs started this year, the Senior Class of '47 formed a Riding Club—for Seniors only. Every Tuesday afternoon they would journey by the car loads to Hempstead and ride for an hour or two. The beginners were aided by an instructor. The advisor, Miss Hoffman also traveled along. All the members seem to have enjoyed themselves a great deal even though most of them were unable to sit down the next day.

YOUNG AMERICA SPEAKS

ORGANIZED primarily for the purpose of keeping its members informed on the major current events, both national and international in scope; Mr. Hirsch and members of the "Young America Speaks Club" also attempts as some of its objectives: to develop the ability of the student to think and reason clearly in debatable topics; to encourage the further reading of news articles, and listening to approved reporters and commentators; and to encourage participation in class discussion through voluntary outside preparation.

IN order to gain admittance into the Fashion Club, one must be nominated and voted in by all the members. The girls learn about various hair styles, dress manner, and the art of makeup under the instruction of Miss Hoffman. Last fall they held their annual "Fashion Show" in which many boys participated. As usual the show was sponsored by the Seniors.

FASHION CLUB

CURRENT EVENTS CLUB

THE Current Events Club is sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood. The officers include: Eugene Ferraro as president, Carol Helms as vice-president, and Lawrence Roggie as treasurer.

During the year, the members of the Current Events Club enjoyed a pleasant trip to Mineola. Those who went witnessed the finger-printing laboratory and filing bureau in the Mineola Police Station. For our next trip, we expect to visit the Statue of Liberty and take the famous television tour of Radio City.

THE Library Club is almost entirely a service organization as the girls are too busy for social activities. Once in a while they have a noon luncheon, but during the school day the student librarians are busy in the library. They assist Miss Haynes in keeping the book service running smoothly and efficiently, they perform many tasks. The following girls are members: Jean Coughi, Bernice McGinnis, Arlene Mahoney, Joyce Minor, Irene Muller, Marie Ryan, and Doris Stewart.

LIBRARY CLUB

PRESS CLUB

THE members of the Broadcast are a very enthusiastic group in Lindenhurst High.

This year for the first time since the war, the paper has been printed. As usual it is crammed packed with News, Fashions, Jokes, Exchange Abouts and last but not least—"Confidential" which seems to keep everyone gossiping until the next edition. But all this would not be possible if it were not for the able advisors, Miss Louise Samsel, Miss Mary Kelleher, and Miss Encie Babcock.

SCHOOL SERVICE CLUB

NO high school would be complete without school service. The members are responsible for all proper workings of the lights, movie projector, and all other minor details during assembly programs. The boys who participate in this active club are: Dana Mortensen, Neil Thompson, Hugh Gilmore, Otto Leibel, Cliff Burke, Frank Denzel, and Bob McGowan.

THE BAND

AN assembly program just wouldn't be complete without having the band play for us. Under the able directorship of Mr. Mungo, the band has become a very important organization in L.H.S. by playing at all football games and other various school productions. The band is now considered a class and it can be heard rehearsing every eighth period through-out the entire school. Their music is enjoyed by everyone who listens to it.

CHORUS

OUR chorus is under the capable direction of Constance Nielson. This group is composed of forty-five boys and girls.

In the fall, the chorus met at noon, however, during the second half of the year the group met during the 8th period.

The Christmas program given in our school in December 1946 was presented by the Music department. The part of the program given by the chorus was composed of beautiful Christmas music. We are looking forward to more fine performances from the group.

SLIDE RULE CLUB

THIS year for the first time the "Slide Rule Club" has been organized. With a slide rule in one hand and a pencil in the other, you can find them busily working away in the Math Room every Wednesday afternoon. Their goal is to learn how to use the slide rule. With the careful direction of Miss Whiteman they are sure to reach success.

GYM CLUB

THE Gym Club of the High School was reorganized this year after a lapse of a few years due to circumstances beyond our control. During this period the boys learn to perform on flying rings, high bar, ropes, parallel bars, horse and the mats.

Besides learning how to perform on this equipment, the boys learn the safety rules which are of prime importance. Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Papps are co-directors of the club.

AFTER a non-functioning year, the dance club again began practice on the now well-known "Peter and the Wolf." This choice fairy tale was presented for the benefit of the Parent-Teachers Association on December 2. The dance was under the direction of Mrs. Hines until her departure, Mr. Hopkins took over the direction and did a fine job. Early in the year, the club saw Ballet Russe at the Metropolitan.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

LINDENHURST'S French Club program for the past year has been a busy one. The members are fond of singing French songs which they all enjoy. They also go to the city to see plays and movies which have some connections with their work. They are supervised on these trips by Miss Golding. In addition to the above mentioned activities, the club members participate in classroom projects.

FRENCH CLUB

SAFETY PATROL

THE Safety Patrol was re-organized after a lapse of a few years. It appeared to be a must with our school located on the main thoroughfare. This was not only the opinion of the faculty, but also that of the student's as well.

Since the boys first appearances last fall, they have been doing an excellent job under the supervision of captain Neil Thompson.

The boys of the Safety Patrol still think a better job could be done if all will cooperate, and this includes operators of motor vehicles as well as student body.

DEBATE CLUB

ONCE again the Debate Club is now under way in "Lindy." They meet weekly and discuss various current topics of the day. Strong arguments are presented with the affirmative on one side and the negative on the other. During the course of the year, Mr. Michel, who is the advisor, intends to select ten members who are to compete with other schools. Judging by their present work, they are sure to come out on top.

HOME ECONOMICS

THE Future Homemakers of America is a national affiliated club run by Miss Burks of the Home Economics Department. It is strictly a girls club.

In order to raise enough funds for them to purchase some furniture for the department; this happy group held a Christmas dinner, which proved very successful.

During the summer months the Future Homemakers of America is planning to have a camping trip to which Lindy Homemakers are invited. All in all it seems to be a pretty profitable club for all involved.

HOME ECONOMICS

UNDER the able guidance of Mrs. Cadwallader, these little homemakers are considered a junior branch of the Future Homemakers of America, due to the fact that they are Junior High girls only. They meet every Wednesday in the Home Economics Department. Each member is concentrating on making something for themselves—an apron, a blouse or maybe a skirt. Officers are as follows:

President .....	Rona Kass
Vice President .....	Joan Lang
Secretary .....	Grace Cafiero
Treasurer .....	Lois Booth

LEADERS CLUB

THIS most coveted organization was left with many vacant chairs by last year's graduates. To remedy this situation, seven new members were taken in. Among them were: Barbara Hilbert, Joyce Minor, Marilynne Torns, Janice Wood, Ellen Bartholet, Marilyn Willemen, and Marion Cavonis.

The old constitution was amended and a minimum and maximum membership was set up. To comply with this minimum Dorothy Seper and Audrey Stenglein were voted in. A Junior Leaders Club was organized to prepare for next year's Leaders Club.

JUNIOR LEADERS

SOMETHING new has been added to the athletic department of L.H.S. It is the Junior Leader's Club. These girls did not meet the qualifications for Leader's Club itself, but have the ability to assist its members. They are learning the things a Leader must know. Four outstanding girls were selected by the Leader's Club to be the charter members of the newly formed organization. These girls are Gloria Schneider, Norma Bunn, Dolores Schroeder and Alice Schlosser.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

THE Bulldogs had a record of two ties and five defeats this year. Although they were out played at times, they were never out fought.

Coach Hopkins had five veterans of Forty-five's memorable team who were Pete Croce, "Dick" Burrell, "Homer" Rand, Tom Schmitt, and Walter Tabor around whom he built this year's team.

Opening the season away at Sayville, Lindy dropped a hard fought 13-6 decision.

Our next game was at home in which the Bulldogs were overpowered 20-0 by a fast Huntington eleven.

The Bulldogs next played to a scoreless tie in the rain at Port Jeff. Holding Amityville scoreless in the first half, the Bulldogs slackened in the second half and dropped a 12-0 encounter.

Playing under the lights at Babylon, Lindy held their traditional rival to a 6-6 tie. Although the visitors scored 32 points in the first half, the Bulldogs held them scoreless in the second half while scoring 6 points.

Lindy ended the season by losing 26-0 to the champion Bay Shore eleven.

Although Jomer Rand was the only player to make honorable mention on the All Suffolk Eleven, Coach Hopkins expects to have a much more powerful team next year.

V A R S I T Y   B A S K E T B A L L

THE green and white had a very successful season as they won five and lost three to take third place in the Section I battle. The boys were fast and accurate and had perfect teamwork as they met and conquered their opponents. Pete Croce and Neil Thompson were high scorers with 98 and 83 points respectively. Charlie Schwitzer and Pete Croce put up a brilliant defense which was reflected in the low scores of many of the tilts. Phil DiMartino, Cliff Burke, Pete Scarpinato, Don Hoffman, Larry Weis, Guy Antonnacci, Rich Burrell, and Don Macken gave fine support and show great promise for next season. Many of the games were close and spirits ran high when the final period came around.

J. V. FOOTBALL

THE "Jay Vee" squad had a very poor season although it was not from lack of effort. Frank Antonnaci, Artie Bell, Jack Kingsland, Blair Mathies, Eddie Spady, and Harry Meyers were outstanding.

J. V. BASKETBALL

THE J.V.'s had a fair season winning four and losing seven to teams of generally superior experience and size. Most of the opposition coaches do not follow Mr. Papps' policy of using only underclassmen on the J.V. team. This often puts Freshmen and Sophomores against Juniors and Seniors. Kettner, Strauch, Knoth, Hill, Brochner, and Klinger were outstanding. The J.V.'s scored 238 points to their opponents 289.

VARSIY BASEBALL

THE 1947 baseball squad has been chosen and Coach Hopkins is looking into the future. He has decided to build the squad mostly of Sophomores and Juniors so that next season he will have practically all experienced men. He has included but one Senior on this year's team. In this way the younger fellows will be able to play more often and gain the experience necessary to perform in a polished, self-assured manner. Ten of the men on the staff are former Varsity or J. V. players. Hoffman, Di Martino, Winkleman, and Coletti comprise the pitching staff. Coletti, a newcomer to L. H. S., shows bright promise. Knoth and Bell are the catchers. Bell has a lot of pep and go and may be a great aid to this years squad. Antonacci, Burrell, Hill, Brockner, Smith, Thompson and Fernandez are covering the infield with Altomare, Kettner, Ferraro, Barry and "Whitey" Maddock in the outfield. Our schedule follows:

April 17	Amityville	Away	May 12	Huntington	Home
April 21	Northport	Home	May 15	Patchogue	Away
April 24	Bay Shore	Home	May 19	Amityville	Home
April 25	Babylon J.V.	Away	May 22	Northport	Away
April 28	Babylon	Away	May 25	Bay Shore	Away
May 1	Sayville	Home	May 29	Babylon	Home
May 5	Port Jefferson	Away

J. V. CHEERLEADERS

THE girls on the junior varsity cheering squad have the pep and the spirit that is needed for a good varsity squad which they will be next year. Three new members, Gloria Schneider, Rita Edelman, and Alice Schlosser were selected to join Joan Graham, Eleanor Minendez, and Marion Psillas on the J.V. squad. They gave their most loyal support to the teams they cheered for as J.V.'s, and will continue doing so as varsity cheerleaders.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

IN rain or shine, at all the football games, the cheerleaders were out on the field giving their voices in support of their teams, cheering them on to victory. Whether on the football field or on the basketball court, the girls gave their loyal support to the boys. They never lost their high spirit no matter how bad the score was and this helped encourage the team to fight harder and to win.

Cheerleaders play an important part in all games. They add color and excitement during "times out" with their peppy cheers. Spectators enjoyed watching the girls as well as cheering with them. Lindy cheerleaders were rated among the best. On the squad this year were Virginia Graham, Alice Jaeger, Marilynne Torns, Carol Frederick, Pat Prentice, "Bea" Bineares, Emily Haber, Ellen Bartholet, and Joan Hibbert. These girls work hard and long to perfect their cheers and make the fellows on the team proud of them. They cheered because of their keen school spirit and their eagerness to help their teams come to a victorious ending.

The uniforms they wore were the envy of many squads who openly admitted that they liked the smart effect. After the January class left, there remained only four girls on the squad, but they cheered just as hard as ever. No high school game could be complete without cheerleaders.

HOCKEY

N<sup>O</sup> sooner had the fall semester begun when a group of about seventy enthusiastic girls dusted off their hockey sticks and shin guards and were ready to "start the ball rolling" on a new and action-filled hockey season. From this group of vigorous "Lindy" girls, four class teams were chosen with Janice Wood, Ellen Bartholet, Eleanor Menendez, and Joan Schreiber as captains of the teams. Managing these teams for the third consecutive year was Janice Wood. Filling the bill of games were games with Farmingdale, Mepham, and Amityville; and intramurals which were won by the seniors. The finale was put on this hockey season by the attendance of our honor team at two play days. The Long Island Girl's Association held their play-day at Valley Stream High School on October 26. At this game the girls won one game, lost one game and tied two games. The second of these play-days was held at Adelphi College on November 2nd. The honor team included: Marilynne Torns, "Mac" Cavonis, Janice Wood, Virginia Graham, Marilyn Willemen, Gloria Schneider, Joyce Minor, Norma Bunn, Margaret Werber, Agatha Berni, and Alie Jaeger. Subs: Carol Frederick, Dorothy Seper, Joan Hibbert, and Ellen Bartholet.

VOLLEYBALL

WITH the hockey sticks polished and put away, our interests turned to the indoors and volleyball was first on the list here. Since the volleyball season is very short, only a few practices were held before class teams were chosen. These teams were captained by Vilma Cellen, Marilyn Willemen, Catherine Bineares, and Carol Burden.

The L.I.G.A. scheduled our team with Rockville Center, Oceanside, and Amityville. We also played a non-league game with Bay Shore. The Juniors won the intramurals in a breath taking game with the seniors as their chief contender.

To represent "Lindy" at one play-day, the following team was chosen: Alice Jaeger Captain, "Mac" Cavonis, Janice Wood, Marilyn Torns, Barbara Hilbert, Carol Frederick, Joan Hibbert, Dolores Schroeder, Ellen Bartholet, Audrey Stenglein, Marilyn Willemen, Marge Kienzlen. Subs: Joyce Minor, Virginia Lake.

BASKETBALL

THE first basketball practice found a good many girls present in the gym. There were many girls who thought someone had moved the basketball nets since last year. After the first few practices however, things began coming back to normal. The girls who had made their class teams all worked hard to try for the honor team. Twelve girls were chosen for this team: Ellen Bartholet, Marion Cavis, Barbara Hilbert, Virginia Lake, Eleanor Menedez, Joyce Minor, Alice Scholcher, Dorothy Seper, Margaret Stein, Audrey Stenglein, Adel Viohl, and Marilyn Willemen. On a not too bright day, the team left for Mephram, where the play-day was held. Although it was an enthusiastic team that won the first game, 16-7, the scores show that something was wrong with the last three. The scores:

Lindenhurst 16, Baldwin 7; Mephram 14, Lindenhurst 6; Freeport 24, Lindenhurst 9; Oceanside 12, Lindenhurst 4.

SOFTBALL

SPRING started with a rush this year. Girls ran down the steps two at a time to get a ball and glove. Finally, after nights when arms and legs ached from hours of batting practice, the honor team was chosen. This team consisted of the following girls: Bea Bineares, Norma Bunn, Sally Burden, Marion Cavons, Catherine Eli, Laura Haupt, Doris Jacobson, Joyce Minor, Audrey Stenglein, and Janice Wood. The following were selected as substitutes: Ellen Bartholet, Janet Bunn, Dorothy Burrell, Carol Fredericks, Barbara Hilbert, and Dolores Schroeder. Due to the unfortunate death of our physics instructor, Dr. Pierce, the team was unable to attend the play-day.
