

BULLDOG

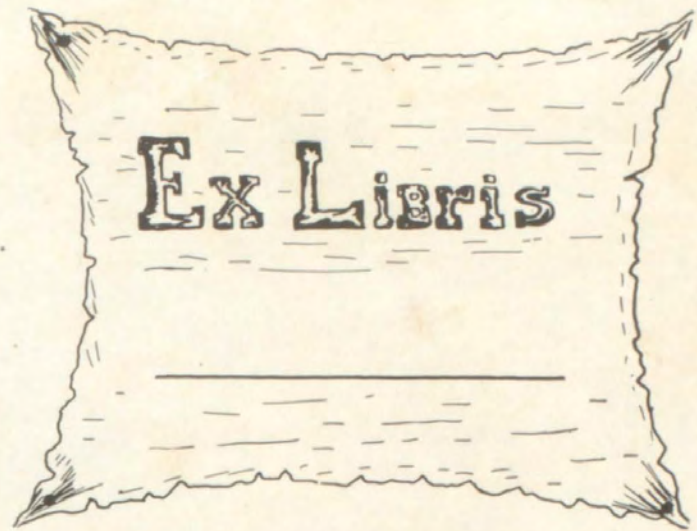

Forty-Niners

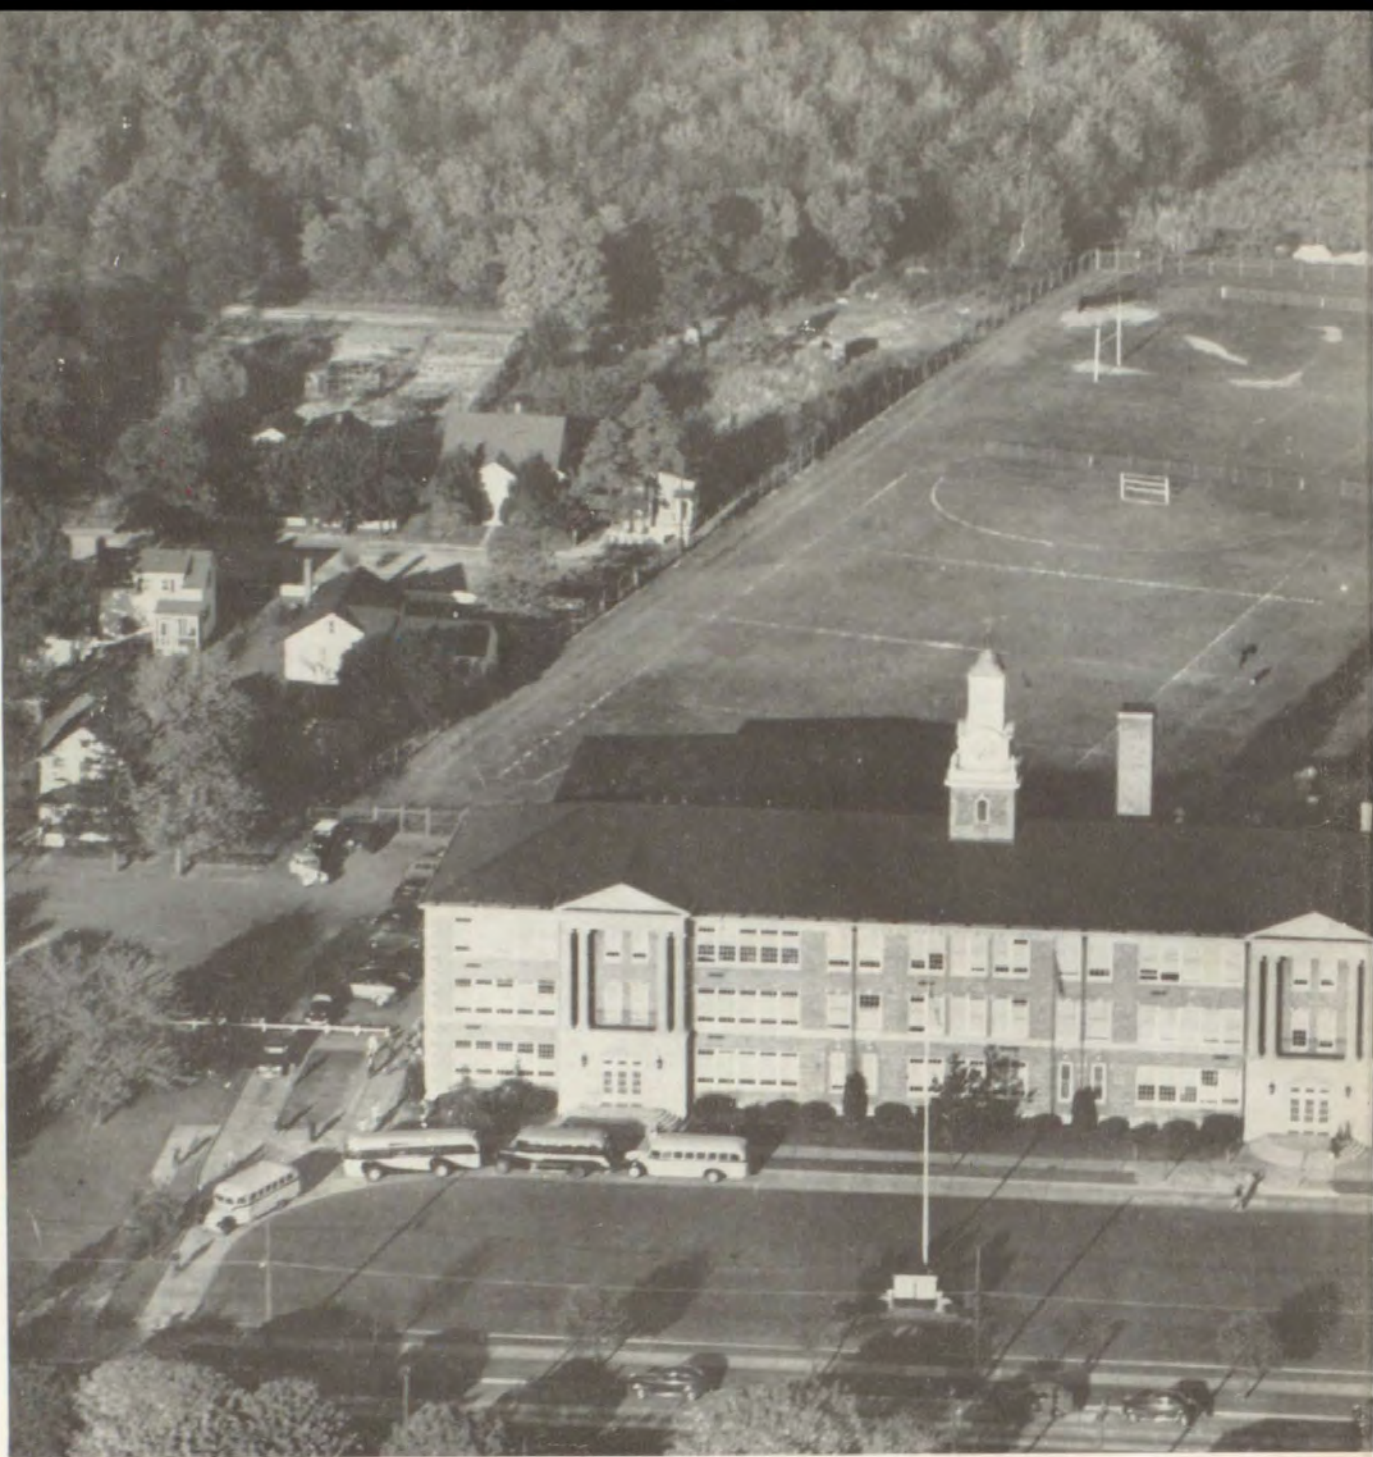

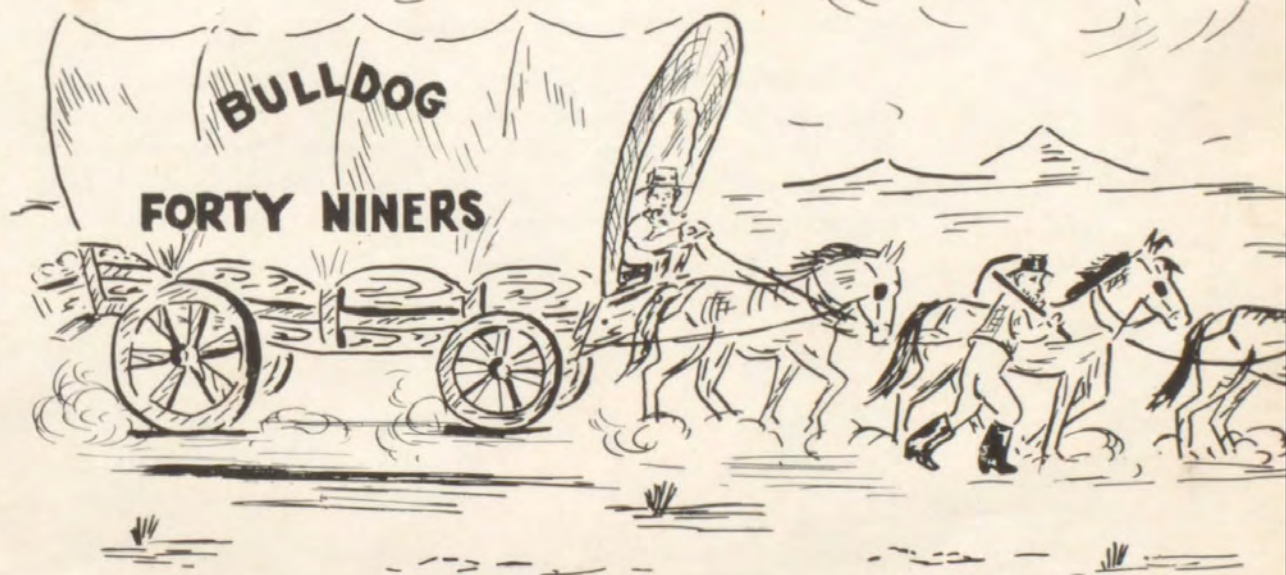

Ex Libris

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF LINDENHURST HIGH SCHOOL
LINDENHURST NEW YORK

FOREWORD

IN this largest yearbook in Lindenhurst High's history, the Forty-Niners have tried to give an accurate account of the past year's events. We have included many new features to give the reader a more complete picture of student life. We have endeavored to give more information about the faculty, more extensive photographic coverage, recognition of the custodians, variety of arrangement, and additional sports coverage. The tradition of our class has been originality. We feel that this yearbook lives up to the tradition. The "Bulldog Forty-Niner" is a fitting tribute to the graduating class. It is a symbol of their years of high school work to be cherished in the years to come. We hope that you, the reader, will have as much enjoyment reading it as we have had in compiling it.

We chose the "Forty-Niners" for our theme because it symbolized the years of high school with graduation as the goal. The theme was suggested by Fred Kienle. The art work was carried out by Berny Lang, the art editor, and his assistant, Joan Barasch, with the cooperation of Miss Hoffman, fine arts teacher.

DEDICATION

VIRGINIA P. GEREK

WE, the graduating class of 1949, dedicate this yearbook to our hard-working advisers, Virginia P. Gerek and Mason Papps. Their guidance and many efforts throughout the years have enabled us to achieve far greater success than any other class could hope for. Their necessary restraints as well as their ready humor have made our association with them a happy one. Mrs. Gerek and Mr. Papps have given us an unlimited amount of their time, helping us with all our affairs and in many cases doing most of the work.

J. MASON PAPPS

As head of the English department Mrs. Gerek greatly aided us with the literary content of the yearbook. Mr. Papps played a very important part in handling the many phases of finance in our senior year.

We, "the Forty-Niners," know that any succeeding class that may have them as advisers will be fortunate. We hope that they will appreciate them as we do. It would have been a tough road to travel without the guidance of Mrs. Gerek and Mr. Papps.

DEPARTMENT HEADS

THE BULL

Editor-in-Chief

H. RICHARD GODIN

THE senior class of 1949 had a large and capable staff for its yearbook "The Bulldog Forty-Niner." Richard Godin was selected as editor-in-chief because of the experience he had gained as editor of the school paper, "The Broadcast." When the staff met in September the heads of departments and their assistants were chosen. Jean Kimbell and Eleanor Menendez became assistant editors. The members of the departments are as follows: Literary editor, Connie Baer; Photography editor, Linde Novelli; assistants, Gertrude Schirmuhly and Gloria Sierko; Art editor, Bernard Lang; assistant, Joan Barasch; Club editor, Rosemarie Germann; Faculty editor, Doris Stewart; assistants, Milly Gaudioso and Janet Rhodes; Girls' Sports editors, Alice Schlosser and Gloria

TYPISTS AND ASSISTANTS

DOG STAFF

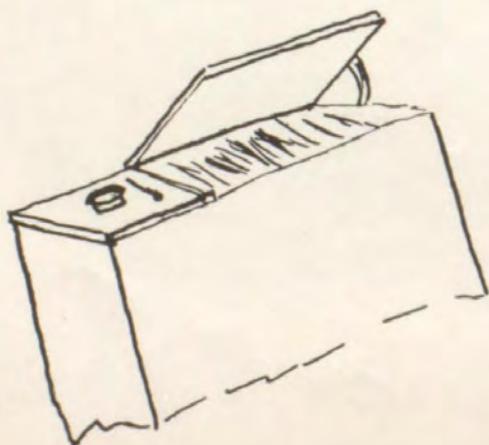

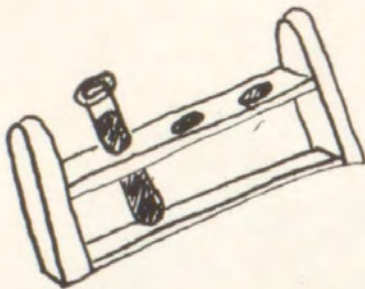

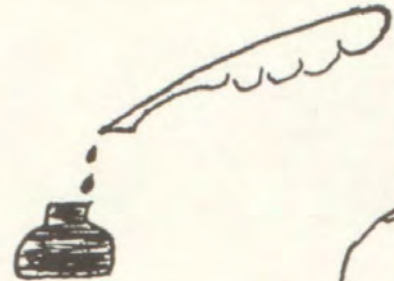

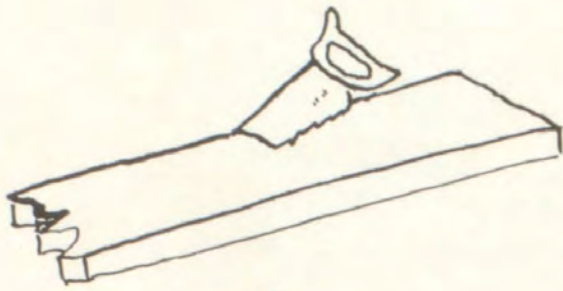

Schneider; Boys' Sports editors, Bill Matthews and Blair Mathies; Class editor, Helen Fisher; Popularity Contest editor, Joan Hill; assistant, Joan Meichner; Senior Show editor, Rita Edelman.

Also circulation manager, Kathryn Burgman; Business manager, Carmela Turano; Advertising manager, Cleve Kingsland; assistant, Tom Beneventano; typists, Arlene Mahoney, Dorothy Kohler, Janet Bunn, Mary Barilla, Frances Gillard, Irene Muller, Mary Crehan, and Esther Piggott; and general assistants, Harvey Bittner, Evelyn Gelke, Joan Graham.

After a survey of other schools' yearbooks had been taken, the staff set out to complete the work of their various departments. The finishing touches were put on in April when the yearbook went to press.

ADMINISTRATION

"BUILDERS of tomorrow's citizens" our faculty might be called. Our association with them seemed trying at times for both teacher and student, but as we look back on our years of high school, we see many pleasant memories.

... The administration forming new policies such as new report cards, period arrangements, "no-wandering-during-fifth-period," and many other changes.

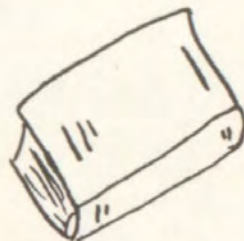

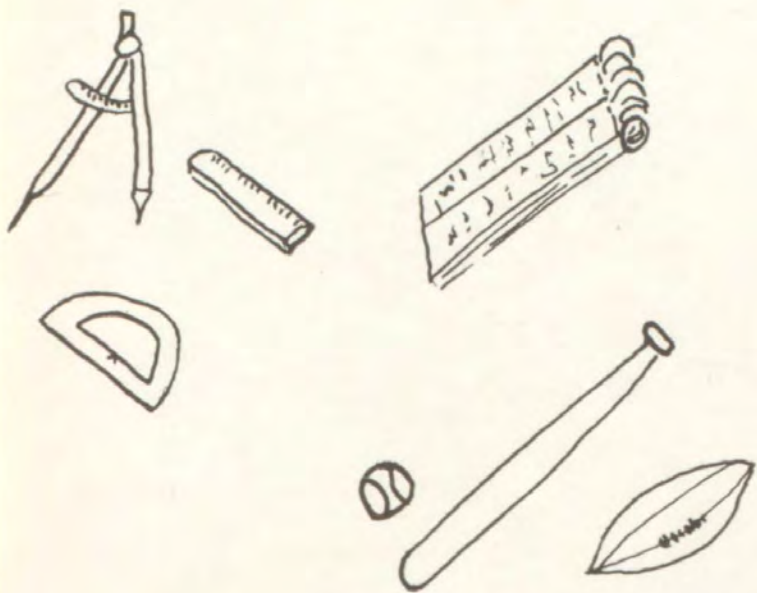

... The secretaries keeping tabs on our whereabouts.

... Mr. Auerbach guiding our futures.

... Mr. Frisbie keeping the "chemists" from blowing up the school, but not from creating "odors."

... Miss Marsh showing us the right stairway to go up.

AND FACULTY

... The "Gym teachers" helping our physical condition.

... The "Home Ec." teachers removing the necessity for "lunch" with cooking classes.

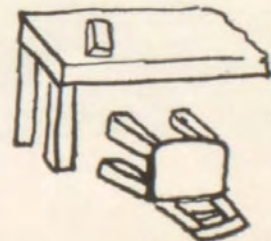

... Mr. Michel and his "jokes."

... Miss Samsel's "Neuw!"

... And all the other typical characteristics of the faculty.

Without these "trademarks" school life would have been dull, indeed.

The following pages contain the most complete "write-ups" that have ever been given our faculty in a yearbook. The faculty also fits into the "largest" category which has been so evident this year with largest senior class and yearbook.

BOARD AT WORK

Board of Education

UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 4, LINDENHURST, NEW YORK

THIS Board is an important governmental agency and in its membership is vested the charge to provide the most desirable and adequate educational facilities for all those resident students who, in later years, must carry on the work being performed by the older generation today. One can readily realize, therefore, that those accomplishments of the Board of Education today have a tremendous influence on the standards and abilities of the future generations.

Members are elected by the voters at the annual district meeting and hold office for three-year terms. They serve in this capacity entirely without financial reward, and must devote considerable time, effort and study to all problems of the system.

One of the current problems has to do with adequate school buildings. During recent years, Lindenhurst has seen an unusual increase in population and the enrollment, especially in the Elementary grades, has practically outmoded the facilities afforded in the old school on School Street which has served the populace for so many years. Therefore, in February of this year, the voters were called upon to express their voice in a proposed $850,000 Elementary structure.

This proposition was defeated, however, which compelled the Board to devise new ways and means to furnish classroom space and to abandon the part time sessions which have necessarily been in effect since last September. The Board has been striving assiduously to evolve a solution and present plans are to rent space next year until such time as the people will approve a permanent building.

LAWRENCE C. LOBAUGH

Superintendent of Schools

Never too busy to aid the student body is our versatile superintendent. Mr. Lobaugh was born and attended high school in Ridgeway, Pennsylvania. Most of his life has been spent in Pennsylvania and on Long Island. He received his B.S. from Alfred University, his M.A. from New York University and has completed two-thirds of the work needed for a doctorate. His hobbies consist of refereeing sports events, hunting, fishing and traveling. He is sponsor for the Honor Society.

ROBERT J. LITTLE

Principal

We wholeheartedly thank our principal for all his kindness and understanding and for the genuine interest and high grade humor he displayed as our Minstrel's Interlocutor. Born in Brooklyn, Mr. Little attended Cathedral Preparatory there. He earned his B.A. at Mount St. Mary's College in Maryland and is completing his M.A. at Fordham University. The greater part of his life has been lived on Long Island. Golf, reading and having membership in various organizations constitute his chief hobbies.

ETTA L. EASTON

*Vice-Principal
Mathematics (Jr. High)*

Patiently understanding and tolerant is our lovable vice-principal, Mrs. Easton. Her birthplace is Binghamton, New York, where she also attended high school. After furthering her education at Cortland State Normal, she came to Lindenhurst and has been teaching here ever since. Besides spending a great deal of her life in Babylon where she has established residence, Mrs. Easton has passed "many suns" in Lindenhurst where she has taught for so long. As many know, music is her chief hobby.

PHILIP AUERBACH Guidance Counselor

New York State's capital city was the locale of Mr. Auerbach's birth and earliest education as well as most of his life prior to entrance into the Army's Military Intelligence. As our new guidance counselor, he has efficiently given aid and direction to many students. Degrees conferred upon him include A.B. and M.A. from Albany State Teachers College. At Columbia University, he received his Professional Certificate for Guidance. Photography is his chief hobby.

ENCIE A. BABCOCK Secretarial

"Leave the machines alone!! Don't type on the cylinder!", are some dynamic, efficient directions that come from Miss Babcock who heads the Commercial Department. Her birthplace is Attleboro, Massachusetts but she attended high school in her present place of residence, Sag Harbor, Long Island. Her B.S. Education was received from New York University. As to non-professional interests, they include swimming, golf, bridge, and dancing. The G.O. and the Broadcast have gained her invaluable services.

HELEN BRION School Nurse

Seaford was the early Long Island home of Lindy High's energetic and tolerant nurse, Helen Brion, who "first saw the light of day" in New York City. In the days when Seaford teen-agers were Bulldog students, she graduated from Lindy. Her Registered Nurse's license was earned in St. John's University, Brooklyn. When not treating some student for a "major illness(?)", she likes to devote time to folk-dancing and the camera.

KATHERINE H. BURGEVIN Secretarial

A resident of Port Chester, New York, vivacious Miss Burgevin matriculated at New York University, after graduation from Plattsburgh Normal. She received her schooling in her hometown of Port Chester. As to avocations, Miss Burgevin likes dancing, having a good hand at bridge and gliding smoothly along on a pair of skates. Her ready smile encourages many of "her girls" who well know her for "not beyond the realm of possibility."

ZITA MAE CADWALLADER Home Economics

Friendly and helpful Mrs. Cadwallader is the head of the Home Economics Department here at Lindy High. She was born in Clinton, Ohio where she attended high school. She received her B.S. Education degree from Ohio University and her M.A. degree from Columbia University. Mrs. Cadwallader is an able adviser for the Home Economics Clubs. She particularly likes music and dancing.

CHARLES CHRISTY Health and Driver Education

Our new course in driver education has been ably handled by this cheerful, young teacher. He attended school and has spent most of his life in Hampton, Virginia. He received his B.S. degree from Springfield College in Massachusetts. He also served four and a half years with the Army Air Corps. Golf and flying are Mr. Christy's hobbies and he coaches football and track. He is an adviser of the Honor Society.

LEVINA DE VEY

Reading, Writing and Spelling (Jr. High)

Not only well known by many as being the teacher of "readin', writin', and spellin'," but also as being Lindy High's cheerleading coach, is Miss De Vey. Her birthplace is Rochester, New York, but she went to high school in Williamson, New York. Miss De Vey attended New York's College for Teachers at Rochester. Cycling and traveling are claimed as being her chief hobbies. She is also a loyal rooter for "Lindy's" teams.

JOHN F. DEVLIN

Mathematics (Jr. High)

Newly appointed as Jr. High Math teacher is this versatile young man. Although born in Ridgewood, New York, he attended high school in Rosedale, New York. His B.S. and M.A. degrees were received from St. John's University in Brooklyn. Besides being interested in drawing, Mr. Devlin is fond of all kinds of sports, especially basketball. He advises the Broadcast.

MARY FORD

Science (General and Biology)

This petite, gay and energetic instructor was born in New York City and has passed most of her life at Seaford. She attended Amityville High School. Mrs. Ford obtained her B.A. from Hunter College and her M.A. from New York University. Her hobbies are horseback riding, golf, skating and painting. Besides raising, tending and observing various species of birds, animals and plants with her Science Club, she advises the Sophomore Class.

PALMER C. FRANCIS

Industrial Arts

Extremely competent and always willing to aid his students is our new Industrial Arts Department head. New London, Connecticut is his birthplace. He attended Amityville High School and has dwelled the greater part of his life on Long Island. At Oswego State Teachers College, he earned his B.S. degree. He is especially interested in aircraft and boat models, radio, photography and ceramics in pottery. Mr. Francis advises the Junior Class.

FREDERIC J. FRISBIE

Chemistry and Physics

When it comes to questions about scientific formulas or experiments, our Science Department Head is a man who will render assistance. Although born at Richmond, Virginia, he obtained his secondary school and college education at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. He furthered his education at George Washington University in Washington, D. C., and Buffalo State Teachers. Playing golf and making furniture occupy his leisure time. By coaching J. V. and Jr. High football, he has greatly aided us.

DR. JULIUS P. GALE

School Doctor

When it comes to school physical examination, this is the "doc" who comes equipped with a stethoscope and tongue depressors. Dr. Gale entered the world at Elizabeth, New Jersey. He received his A.B. degree from Columbia University and his M.D. from the same college. He began his practice in Lindenhurst in 1935 and has remained here ever since except for his term of service with the Army's Medical Corps. Bridge and golf are his special hobbies.

VIRGINIA P. GEREK

English

At the head of our English Department is this industrious and delightful instructor. Lake Ronkonkoma, New York, is the place where she was born and has lived most of her life. She graduated from Sayville High School, received her B.A. from Madison College, Virginia, and her M.A. from Columbia University. Mrs. Gerek likes sports, reading, bridge and attending the theatre. She gave much time and energy to the Forty-Niners as an adviser.

ESTELLE MARIE GOLDING

Language

New York is the birthplace of this "charmante teacher." She received her high school education at St. Mary's Academy, Champlain, New York, her A.B. from Good Counsel College, White Plains, New York, and her M.S. Ed. from Fordham University. Most of her life has been spent in and around Long Island. Swimming, reading, cycling, and theatre attending constitute her chief hobbies. She is adviser for the French Club.

FRANCES GRAHAM

Secretary

Lindenhurst High's efficient and helpful secretary proclaims our fair village of Lindenhurst as the place where she was born and acquired her schooling. To further advance her learning, she attended Paine's Business School in New York City. When not engaged in the numerous duties that are attached to her position, Mrs. Graham particularly likes to relax with her family or enjoy a movie. She is frequently seen at our school's sporting events.

ELAYNE R. HINES

Physical Education

Getting her "first glimpse at the world" in New York, where she has since spent a great deal of time, except for her high school attendance at Malverne, New York, is our spirited and versatile girl's sports instructor. Her B.S. Education degree was conferred at New York University. As to special interests, Mrs. Hines enjoys golf and traveling. She is the adviser of the Leader's Club and greatly assisted the Forty-Niners as their Variety Show coach.

LOUIS C. HIRSCH

Social Studies

A native of Lindenhurst is the Jr. High's humorous and friendly teacher of social studies. He attended "Lindy High" and Hofstra College, where he received his B.S. Education degree. He has resided most of his life in his hometown, where many vivid childhood memories are present. Besides enjoying "fun with his family," he likes swimming and ice-skating. Young America Speaks is the club of which he is the adviser.

FRANCES HOFFMAN

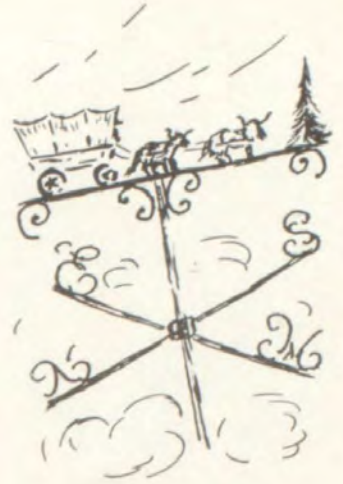

Fine Arts

Heading the Fine Arts Department of our school is this active teacher who has often displayed her artistic talent for the benefit of the school. She was born in Port Jefferson, New York, but attended high school and has lived most of her life in Babylon, New York. Her B.F.A. was obtained from Syracuse University and her M.A. from Columbia University. She advises the Fashion Club and is extremely interested in photography as well as being a loyal rooter for the teams.

EDWARD F. KIENLE Physical Education

This young amicable instructor was born in Lindenhurst and passed his years of primary and secondary schooling here. After returning from the army with a splendid record, he continued his education and earned his B.S. at Cortland State Teachers College. He then attended Columbia University, where he recently received his M.A. Skiing is what he likes best and his ambition is to travel. Mr. Kienle is an adviser of the gym club and the G. O., coached varsity baseball, and was assistant football and basketball coach.

NORRINE M. MAHLER Dental Hygienist

The introduction of a new faculty position brought us a recent dental hygiene graduate of the Long Island Agricultural and Technical Institute at Farmingdale. She is young, gay, and friendly and has removed many fears of dentistry. Miss Mahler was born in Bay Shore, but attended high school in Amityville, where she still resides. Her favorite pastimes consist of knitting and collecting miniature glass animals.

BERTHA R. MARSH English

Many students at Lindy High have taken "steps" in the right direction with the assistance of the school's kindly and persuasive freshman English teacher. She was born at Danby, New York, and attended the Ithaca, New York, High School. She has received a Teachers State Life License. Her teaching brought her to Lindenhurst, where she has spent most of her life. She likes gardening and theater, but best of all making the Freshmen learn their English.

HENRY MICHEL Social Studies

Spending most of his life in upper New York State and Lindenhurst, where he was born and attended school, is Lindy High's genial and humorous Social Studies Department Head. He attended St. John's University, receiving his B.S.S.S. and M.S.Ed. degrees. He had many enlightening, thrilling and humorous Army experiences. Mr. Michel likes to bowl, fish, read and travel. He coaches debating and enormously aided the Forty-Niners by coaching their Mintrel.

JOHN MUNGO, JR. Music

This capable and spirited teacher instructs instrumental music at our school. Mr. Mungo was born in Italy. Upon arrival in this country, he attended high school in Lawville, New York, and has since resided in New York State. Ithaca College is where he obtained his B.S. degree and he then did graduate work at Syracuse University. Mr. Mungo especially likes fishing, golfing, motoring and music. He directs the Band and Dance Orchestra Club.

CONSTANCE OSBORNE Music

Small in stature but, Oh so Mighty! This teacher is full of fun and often creates that "never a dull moment atmosphere." Although born at Binghamton, New York, she attended high school and has lived the greater part of her life at Saratoga, New York. She received her B.S. degree from Skidmore College at Saratoga Springs. Making patchwork quilts, crocheting rag rugs and swimming give as her hobbies.

ELSIE PATRICIA PANZNER

Music

Specializing in the instructing of vocal music is this lively, young teacher who came here after receiving her B.S. Education degree from Potsdam State Teachers College. Her birthplace is Long Island City, but she attended high school at Islip, New York. When not behind the piano, she likes to do oil painting. She advises the Twirlers, Girls' Glee Club and the famed Male Septette.

MASON PAPPS

Physical Education

At the head of our Physical Education Department is this energetic and friendly teacher. He has lived most of his life at Yonkers, New York, where he was born and attended high school. He received his B.S. from Cortland State Teachers College and his M.A. from New York University. Chiefly he likes radio and television programs, basketball, badminton and ice-skating. He will long be remembered as one of the Forty-Niners' hard-working advisers.

LORRAINE S. PEBLER

Social Studies

Often exercising her "easy going" nature and pleasantness is this social studies teacher. Lindenhurst is where she was born and attended high school. Most of her life has been spent in "Lindy" and Baldwin, New York. She attended Hofstra College at Hempstead where she obtained her B.A. and M.S. Education degrees. Stamp collecting, swimming and boating are her hobbies and she is an adviser of the Freshman class.

JEAN F. PLATE

English (Jr. High)

This amiable and cheerful instructor is another new addition to our faculty. Her birthplace is Jamaica, New York, where she went to high school. Most of her life has been passed in Jamaica and at Point Lookout. Queens College is where she obtained her B.A. degree. Her leisure time is occupied mostly with swimming, stamp collecting and dancing. She is adviser of the Stamp Club.

ETHEL RATCLIFFE

Librarian

The person who has greatly improved our library is our experienced new librarian, Miss Ratcliffe. She was born in Troy, New York, attended high school in Hartford, Connecticut, and has lived most of her life in the Hudson Valley. Her B.A. and B.L.S. degrees were received from Albany State Teachers College. She likes music, drama and conversation and is the adviser of the Junior and Senior High Library Clubs.

IRVING RUCKEL

Social Studies

Another new faculty member is this jovial teacher. His birthplace is Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, where he attended high school. Mr. Ruckel received his B.S. from State Teachers College in his home town and his M.A. from Bucknell and New York Universities. He has lived most of his life in Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and New York, where he gained much sports coaching experience. He is Freshman class adviser and likes to read and coach basketball.

LOUISE L. SAMSEL

English

We "ain't kjiddin'" when we say Miss Samsel is truly a grand person. She was born and went to high school in Oswego, New York. Her A.B. degree was received from Hartwick College and she has resided most of her life in Lindenhurst. Besides being interested in all sports, she also likes fishing, archery, roller-skating and collecting penguins(!) The Press Club and Broadcast claim her as one of their advisers.

MILTON A. SAUER

Language (Latin, Spanish, German)

Our Language Department Head is a man who doesn't like people to 'muff it.' Born and attended high school at Rochester, New York, Mr. Sauer also has spent much of his time on Staten Island and in Lindenhurst. He obtained his B.A. at Rochester, his M.A. at New York University and did graduate work at Besancon University, France, and Columbia University. He likes tennis, badminton and photography and is the Safety Patrol's adviser.

IRVING SCHWARTZ

Science (Jr. High)

Friendly, cheerful and likeable is the Jr. High's new science teacher. The active, adventuresome and wandering "Forty-Niners" occupied his homeroom. Chiefly his life has been lived in New York City, where he attended Abraham Lincoln High School. He matriculated at Rutgers University, and earned a B.S. degree. Mr. Schwartz likes best to explore the world of books and is the able adviser of the school's Service Club.

DOROTHY C. SHERWOOD Social Studies (9)

Always willing to help people is this thoughtful social studies teacher. She was born in New York City and attended Hempstead High School. Entering Washington Square College of New York University, she merited her B.A. and M.A. degrees. Mrs. Sherwood is active in taking classes to the United Nations and has become quite an authority on U.N. affairs. Besides advising the Honor Society and Current Events Club, she likes fishing, boating and dancing.

JESSIE BURKS SMITH Home Economics

If you hear a pleasant Southern accent at Lindy High, it's probably Mrs. Smith's. She was born and attended high school in Mississippi. She obtained her B.S. at Mississippi State College for Women and did graduate work at Mississippi State, the University of Tennessee and Columbia University. Most of her life has been passed in Mississippi and Tennessee. Photography and gardening constitute her hobbies. She is adviser of the Home Economics Club.

ELLIS C. TRAVIS

Social Studies and English (Jr. High)

Another newcomer to our Jr. High is this pleasant and polite instructor. He was born at Peekskill, New York, and attended Hendrik Hudson High School at Montrose, New York. His B.A. degree was received from Valparaiso University in Indiana. Except for his "hitch" with the Army, most of Mr. Travis' life has been spent in New York State. He likes sports and coin collections and is an adviser of the Sophomore Class.

NEVA VAN EMMERIK Mathematics (Sr. High)

The Math Department at Lindy High is headed by this grand person who has often displayed tolerance and kind assistance to her numerous math "whizzes." Although born at Warren, Pennsylvania, she came to live in New York State and attended Elmira Heights High School. She received her B.S. degree from Elmira College. As for hobbies, her favorites are boating, fishing, refinishing furniture and antiques.

NEVA MARIE WRIGHT Speech and Dramatics

Two more new courses brought to our school this ambitious instructor. Her residence has been for the greater part in New York State, for she was born at Binghamton and attended high school in Johnson City. At Emerson College, her B.L.I. degree was conferred and her M.A. was earned at New Hampshire University. Miss Wright's leisure time is occupied with the theater, radio and dancing. She advises the Masqueeters and Footlights Club.

MARIELLE S. WOODWARD Business

Another friendly instructor who does a wonderful job of assisting and preparing her students for the "big business world" is Miss Woodward. Her birthplace is Sag Harbor, New York, where she also attended Pierson High School and has lived most of her life. Plattsburg State Normal is where she spent her college years. She likes tennis, golf, swimming, skating and dancing and is one of the Junior Class advisers.

GLADYS YOUNG Secretary

Jolly, friendly and helpful Miss Young was born in Babylon but attended high school right here in good old "Lindy." When she isn't bustling back and forth between the administration offices attending to her various duties, she likes to bowl and read. If you want to read a good "Who Done It?" mystery, here's the person who can give you some "tips."

Custodians

The people responsible for keeping the school in such good condition are our custodians. Left to right—Al Chiesa, Mrs. Marie Scharfenburger, Herman Jaeger, and Oswald Goerken. Also Tom Argust.

YOUNGTIMERS

OFFICERS

Old and New

Sophomore Year

Junior Year

Senior Year

Class History

THROUGHOUT their stay in Lindenhurst High, the "Forty-Niners" built up a reputation for originality. This year's graduating class has made each of its affairs a little different than the usual.

In its first high school year, the class elected Richard Burrell, president; Robert Twist, vice-president; Bessie Koenig, secretary; and Donald Hoffman, treasurer. For the one affair allotted to freshmen a circus dance called "The Big Top Hop" was held. The gym was decorated in red and white and circus acts provided the entertainment. The advisers for the class in our freshman year were Miss Pedisich and Miss Schneider (who are now Mrs. Gerek and Mrs. Pebler).

At the beginning of the second "joyous" year of high school, the Forty-Niners elected Otto Liebl president of the class with Cleve Kingsland, vice-president; Eleanor Menendez, secretary; and Donald Hoffman, treasurer. Mrs. Gerek again was an adviser and Mr. Papps was chosen as the other.

The class' biggest dance hit was the "Basketball Bounce" held in December. The entertainment featured was a basketball game between the "Dribbles" and the "Bounces." The boys dressed as girls and the girls dressed as boys. Later on in the year another dance, called "The Stratosphere Swing," was held. A dance band, "The Rhythmic Six," supplied the music. Several novelty dances rounded out the evening.

For the junior officers the class decided on Eleanor Menendez as president; Donald Hoffman, vice-president; Bessie Koenig, secretary; and Helen Fisher, treasurer.

Our first affair was the "Holiday Hop" which was held in December. Because of extremely bad weather the attendance at the dance was small.

On January 10, the class held a "New Year Leap." The girls had the privilege of asking the fellows, for a change, and of cutting in. The decorations featured balloons with confetti and streamers.

The Prom was next in the month of March. The theme was nautical with decorations composed of sea props and an overhead sky of blue paper. The prom was a huge success with 114 couples attending.

A movie, "Jessie James", was held for the final affair of the year.

Embarking on the final step to graduation, the class chose Tom Beneventano, president, Neil Kettner, vice-president; Millie Turano, secretary; and Otto Liebl, treasurer. Eugene Ferraro was chosen as president of the G. O. and Jean Kimbell as vice-president. Richard Godin was named as editor of the yearbook and Eleanor Menendez and Jean Kimbell as assistant editors.

A dance called the "Kickoff Jamboree" was the first affair held. The Variety and Minstrel Show, the biggest hit in years, was the next event. It is described fully on pages 54 and 55. A basketball game between the women's faculty and the girls proved to be a success for the next presentation of the class. The finale to four years of work was the softball game between the men's faculty and the senior boys.

RUTH M. AARDSMA

One of the top-ranking seniors scholastically, Ruth became a member of the Honor Society in her senior year. In her quiet manner she concentrated on her studies and kept her activities at a minimum. Ruth's hobby was playing the violin and she also enjoyed knitting and sewing. Ruth liked to work with children and hoped to become a kindergarten teacher. She was one of the small percentage of seniors to start with the class in kindergarten.

FRANCES D. ANTONACCI

Fran, as she was called by her classmates, could always be found where a "fast Lindy" record was being played. As you can gather, she was known for dancing ability, as evidenced by Fran's favorite pastime . . . dancing, of course. She was also active in softball and volleyball. Her ambitions were to become a model or typist.

CONSTANCE B. BAER

Connie was one of the outstanding seniors in sports as well as scholarship. As a member of the L. I. G. A., she participated in hockey, volleyball, bowling, archery, basketball, softball and Leaders Club. Her other activities included Dramatic Club, Press Club, Showboat cast, and literary editor of the Yearbook. Connie was probably best known for her dramatic abilities. Her ambition was to be successful in any field which she may choose.

JOAN E. BARASCH

Outstanding in the field of fashion, Joan was president of the fashion club, Macy's Jr. Deb Board representative and was fashion editor of the Broadcast in her senior year. Her humor made her popular with everyone. Joan participated in softball, bowling, ping pong, volleyball and basketball in the sporting whirl. Her other activities were assistant art editor of the yearbook and Showboat cast. Joan's favorite expression was "All dressed up and no face to go!" Her ambitions included college and owning a red Cadillac convertible.

MARY F. BARILLA

Known as "Sass" due to her role as one of the endmen in the Minstrel Show, Mary was famous for her high-pitched laugh. Besides the Minstrel, Mary also participated in the Honor Society and the yearbook staff. Her ambitions were to become a nurse or beautician and to learn to play the piano. Mary's favorite pastimes were listening to records, dancing, and attending the movies. Her pet peeves were "big wheels" and sarcastic teachers.

THOMAS C. BENEVENTANO

"You'll die laughing when you hear this one," was the favorite expression of our class president, Tom Beneventano, or "Benny," as he was often called, and it typified his merry spirit. An active "Forty-Niner," Tom took part in track, intramural sports and in his senior year he made the All-Opponent Team in football. One of Gloria's future ambitions was to get married and raise a football team for the glory of Lindy High.

ALBERT T. SIMONETTI

"Al" had been with his class all through his school days, and was well-liked by everyone for his friendly ways and genial personality. His sole ambition when he graduated from high school was to become an officer in the United States Merchant Marine. Al's hobbies included archery, sailing, and tinkering with automobiles.

EVELYN M. SPELLANE

"Evvy" was a quiet member of the class, who spent her spare time in reading. She participated in Softball and Volleyball. "Goey" food was her weakness, and conceited people her pet peeve. "Evvy" could very often be seen in a pair of slacks which she found to be comfortable school togs.

MARION A. STEELE

Marion was known for her quiet, friendly personality while in school. When out of school, her ambition was to become a successful secretary. Her many sports activities included hockey, basketball, volleyball and softball. Marion's hobbies were knitting, sewing, and roller skating. She was a member of the Minstrel Chorus.

DORIS M. STEWART

Doris, sometimes called "Stew" by her classmates, was one of the top Seniors looking forward to a bright future. Her ambitions were to become a successful Social Studies teacher and Librarian. Having many honors and activities to her credit, Doris was Treasurer of the Lindenhurst Chapter of the National Honor Society, Faculty editor of the Yearbook, Secretary of both the Debating Club and Chorus, and also the recipient of the Social Studies Award in her Sophomore year and won first prize in a V.F.W. essay contest.

ANN E. THOMSON

Ann was a member of the class since her kindergarten days, and took part in all class activities. She participated in the Senior Minstrel Show and in many extra-curricular sports, including basketball, volleyball, softball and hockey. She also made the hockey Honor team twice and received her letter for these sports. Ann's ambition was to become successful in the business world.

DANTE A. TRAVERSA

Wherever one finds Dante he also finds "sly" humor. Dante was a member of the varsity football team for three seasons, the track team in his junior year and played intramural basketball and softball. His other activities were G.O. representative as a freshman, French Club as a sophomore, and Gym Club as a sophomore and junior. Dante's favorite pastime was "chasing females". His ambitions were to become a jeweler or a playboy.

BETTY TUFF

Betty was active in girls sports throughout high school, participating in volleyball, hockey, basketball and softball. She was secretary of the General Organization in her Sophomore year and also participated in the Senior year. Betty's favorite hobbies were collecting records and driving. "To become a success," was her ambition.

CARMELA M. TURANO

"Millie," as she was called by her friends, was always known for her friendly and sweet personality. Always a hard worker, Carmela was in the Senior Variety Show, the Business Manager of the Yearbook, a member of the Chorus, Press Club, and Leaders' Club. Along with these many activities, Millie also held the offices of President of the French Club and Secretary of the Senior Class. She participated in many sports activities, including hockey, basketball, and softball.

ROLAND G. VIETS

Roland was an active member of the band and received a Band Directors Award, as well as being President of the group. His favorite pastime was music and he belonged to the Dance Band, Septet, Orchestra and chorus. Roland participated in Football and Track and was Basketball and Football manager. He was a member of the Minstrel Show's "Spittoon Trio."

PAUL O. VOGELSBERG

Paul was well remembered for his scientific work. His hobby was working in his laboratory at home and he liked listening to classical music. Paul was on the Board of Admissions of the Honor Society. He also liked to hunt and his ambition was to become a brain or heart surgeon, or a physician. He began attending N.Y.U. after finishing school in January.

IRENE P. WANZELAK

Irene was also known as "Ivy" to her classmates. She was active in the Senior Minstrel Show, and the '49er's Yearbook Staff. Irene's pet peeve was "snobbish people", as one can well imagine it would be, because of her quiet, friendly ways. To become a good typist was "Ivy's" main ambition. Her hobbies were sewing and knitting.

ANTHONY J. WARTA

Tony joined our class after serving four years in the Navy, in order to complete his high school education. Tony played three years of varsity football and while in the Navy won two boxing championships. He enjoyed building and rebuilding model engines. Tony's favorite pastimes were reading and eating. His ambition was to become a history teacher. Tony did very well scholastically after his long absence from school.

ARTHUR J. WEISBERG

Arty was always laughing and quite friendly to everyone. He participated in intramural sports and dramatics. Arty was famous for his tall stories and "jokes." His hobbies were reading and writing and he liked to eat, talk and dream. Arty's ambition was to be a wealthy bachelor. He enjoyed swimming in the summertime.

HARRY C. WENDT

Known for his cheerful and easy-going nature, Harry had a very bright and adventurous future planned for himself as a Navy man. While in school, Harry was also known for his ability to play the accordion and trombone, and demonstrated these talents in the Senior Variety and Minstrel Show. He was also a member of the Senior Marching Band and School Service Club. Harry played all intramural sports.

JUNE A. WERNER

June was a very active Senior in all extra-curricular activities. She was active in volleyball, hockey, basketball, and also belonged to various school clubs, including the Leaders' Club, Press Club, Dramatic Club, and the Home Ec. Club. June's ambitions were to travel and have a kind, considerate husband (nice work if you can get it)! She was able to graduate in three and one-half years by doubling up.

EDMUND C. WILD

While in Lindy high, Eddie was a member of the football team, baseball team, and played intramural basketball. His other activities included Current Events Club as a freshman and sophomore and Gym Club as a junior and senior. Eddie's hobbies were ice skating and following professional sports, especially the Brooklyn Dodgers. His pet peeves were boring assemblies and study halls. Eddie's ambition was to become a mechanical engineer.

JOHN L. WINKELMAN

John, who was also called "Wink" by his friends, was very active in baseball and basketball during his entire high school career. Known for his superior pitching ability, "Wink" had a brilliant future ahead of him in the field of professional baseball. As you would guess, his favorite past-time was reading books on sports. He also enjoyed drawing.

BERNARD B. YUHAS

Barney, although small, was an asset to the football team. He was elected J.V. Captain in his sophomore year. He participated in intramural sports and baseball. Barney was known for buying old used cars. His hobby was fixing them. His ambition was to be an automobile mechanic or to become a skilled player in any field of sport.

Student Elections

THIS year two parties were formed to run for the positions of Mayor and Trustees. The Liberal Party had shown its worth in many previous elections. The Lindycrat Party was newly formed and as yet, untried, but was nevertheless a worthy opponent.

The faculty committee was composed of Mr. Michel, chairman; Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Gerek, Miss Samsel, Mrs. Pebler, Mr. Hirsch, Mr. Ruckel and Mr. Travis.

The village committee was composed of Mayor Milton Turk, Police Chief Edward Morlock, Alfred L. Pfeiffer, president of the Board of Education, and Lawrence C. Lobaugh, superintendent of schools.

The Liberal Party ran Neil Kettner for Mayor and Eleanor Menendez, Harry Wendt, Eugene Ferraro, and William Schaubel for Trustees. The campaign managers were Fred Kienle and Otto Liebl. Their assistants were Tom Beneventano and Richie Godin.

The Lindycrat Party's candidates were Ed Wild for Mayor and Doris Stewart, Alice Schlosser, Jean Kimbell, and Bill Matthews for Trustees. Berny Lang and Berniece McGinnis were the campaign managers.

With the exception of the post of chief of police which was to be selected by examination, all other officers were to be appointed.

The assembly in which the speeches were to be presented was held on April 29, 1949. The results of the elections were not available at the time the Yearbook went to press.

Successful running of the campaigns was greatly aided through the efforts of Stanley Philipstahl, the general chairman of the program.

In last year's elections, the Liberal Party put in four of its five candidates and the Progressives one. Andy Fernandez was elected Mayor and Otto Liebl, Ed McDermet, Lois Peters, and Gertrude Spoerl were elected Trustees. Fred Kienle won the examination for chief of police.

“WE want our Senior play to be different.”

That was the cry that was heard echoing through the halls of Lindy High in November.

And that is how our Senior Variety and Minstrel Show came to be.

We called together Mrs. Hines and Mr. Michel to help us. Mrs. Hines composed the choreography for the first half of the show and Mr. Michel directed the second half of the show, the Minstrel.

Remember the chorus of beautiful girls? Can't you just see Connie Baer, Rita Edelman, Evelyn Gelke, Joan Graham, Joan Hill, Ellie Menendez, Alice Schlosser, Carmela Turano and Adele Viohl kicking their legs to the rhythm of "Life Upon the Wicked Stage?" And how could anyone forget their handsome partners: Tom Beneventano, Eugene Ferraro, Richard Godin, Don Macken, Bill Matthews, Blair Mathies, Dante Traversa, Artie Weissburg, and Ed Wild.

Could anyone forget Artie Weisberg as lovable Captain Andy and Joan Barasch as Parthey Ann?

“Showboat”

Variety and Minstrel Show

Remember Gloria Sierko and "Bill" and remember George Graf singing "Old Man River?" "We're a Couple of Swells." Sure, you remember. Adele Viohl and Rita Edelman did a song and dance number to that. "There's no Business like Show Business" was danced to by Alice Schlosser. No, that was no Metropolitan Opera star you heard singing "Make Believe." That was Rosemarie Germann.

Then came the Minstrel with the endmen Winslow Peters, George Graf, Phillip De Virgillis, Willie Schaubel, Nick Giampetruzzi, Otto Liebl, and Mary Barilla and Frances Gillard. I'll bet your sides still hurt from laughing at Sid Kass, Willie Palmer, "Dolf" Iurillo and Charlie Schaubel as interruptionists. The minstrel chorus consisted of Kathryn Burgman, Mary Christen, Willie Cole, George Eastwood, Joe Garraffa, Fred Kienle, Jean Kimbell, Don Kleb, Joan Kehm, Bessie Koenig, Bernie Lang, Maureen Levy, Joan Meichner, Adlinde Novelli, John Paterson, Lois Peters, Esther Piggot, Stan Phillipstahl, Janet Rhodes, Mill Scarpinato, Doris Stewart, Gloria Schneider, Francis Schott, Marion Steele, Ann Thompson, Betty Tuff, Roland Viets, Irene Wanzelak, and Harry Wendt.

The "Showboat" was repeated for the benefit of the "March of Dimes."

Alma Mater

Hail to L. H. S. our dear school
Hail the never-ending rule
May we all be loyal, steadfast, and true
For old Lindy will lead us through
Rah!! Rah!
And after the four years of work
In which we have learned not to shirk
As alumni we'll carry on
Her banner "Say never die"
And echo her name o'er the world.
We all will shout for Lindy upright and true
And for her green and white we'll fight tho we're few
As for her standards we will all try to raise them
Boast of them, praise them from every view
We'll boost her team tho they be far from the goal
And we'll support her pennant on every pole
We'll all do our best to stand the test
Dear Alma Mater Lindy High!

TENDERFEET

J U N I O R S

Class of 1950

The "Class of the Half-Century" was very active in its junior year. They elected as officers Richard Spoerl, president; Harry Meyers, vice-president; Adele Viohl, secretary; and Joel Bartholet, treasurer. Their advisers were Miss Woodward and Mr. Francis.

The first junior affair was the "Football Finale" in November to close the football season.

Their next effort was the "Hoopster Hop" in December. A basketball game was held between the junior girls and the women's faculty. The girls won (of course).

The top social event was held on March 12. The affair was the Prom which had "Evening in Paris" as its theme. The Gym was beautifully decorated with the "Arch de Triomphe" as the most outstanding feature. The Barons supplied the music.

As Spring approached, the Juniors hit upon another money-making idea. They sold green and white beanies, school pennants, and window stickers.

The senior class extends the juniors best wishes for a good yearbook and a successful senior year.

SOPHS

Class of 1951

The class of 1951, in its second year of existence, had for its officers: Ella Kellerman, President; Sidney Shapiro, Vice President; James Kimbell, Secretary; and Ed Schacker, Treasurer. Mrs. Ford and Mr. Travis were their advisers. The Sophomores had a schedule of two dances this year. In February they presented a Valentine's Day affair,

"The Sweetheart Swing" and later on in the year gave a novel hobo dance. Last year, as Freshmen, Richard Opfer was President; Lois Bolender, Vice President; Gus Ingenito, Secretary; and Mrs. Pebler and Miss Westhoff were their advisers. They gave the movie "Junior Miss" which was a great success.

The picture of the officers is at the upper left. Mrs. Ford was not present for the picture as adviser with Mr. Travis. The two snapshots are of Joan Fraser and Terry Maschi.

Class of 1952

This year's Freshman Class, numbering over 150, had Milton Morahan for president. Joe Costantino was their secretary and Ruth Tupot their treasurer. This threesome, with the help and encouragement of their advisers, Mrs. Pebler and Mr. Ruckel, led the Freshmen through their debut in high school social activities. They gave, as their traditional sole function, a movie-dance, on March 26, with a matinee on the 25th. On the screen was "Sun Valley Serenade" and for dancing in the gym, later, a band was featured.

Vito Elicio was elected to the Vice Presidency of the class in September, but since his transfer to Amityville High, that post has not been filled.

The officers and advisers appear in the top picture. Since there are over one hundred fifty students in the freshman class, it is one of the largest freshman classes in the history of the school. If they hold their numbers until they become seniors they may break the record of the "Forty-Niners."

EIGHTH GRADE

Class of 1953

With over one hundred forty members the Class of 1953 will soon begin their high school careers as freshmen. The homeroom teachers of these classes were Miss De Vey, Mr. Travis, Mrs. Gerek, and Mrs. Sherwood. The graduating class hopes that these students will get as much out of high school as they did.

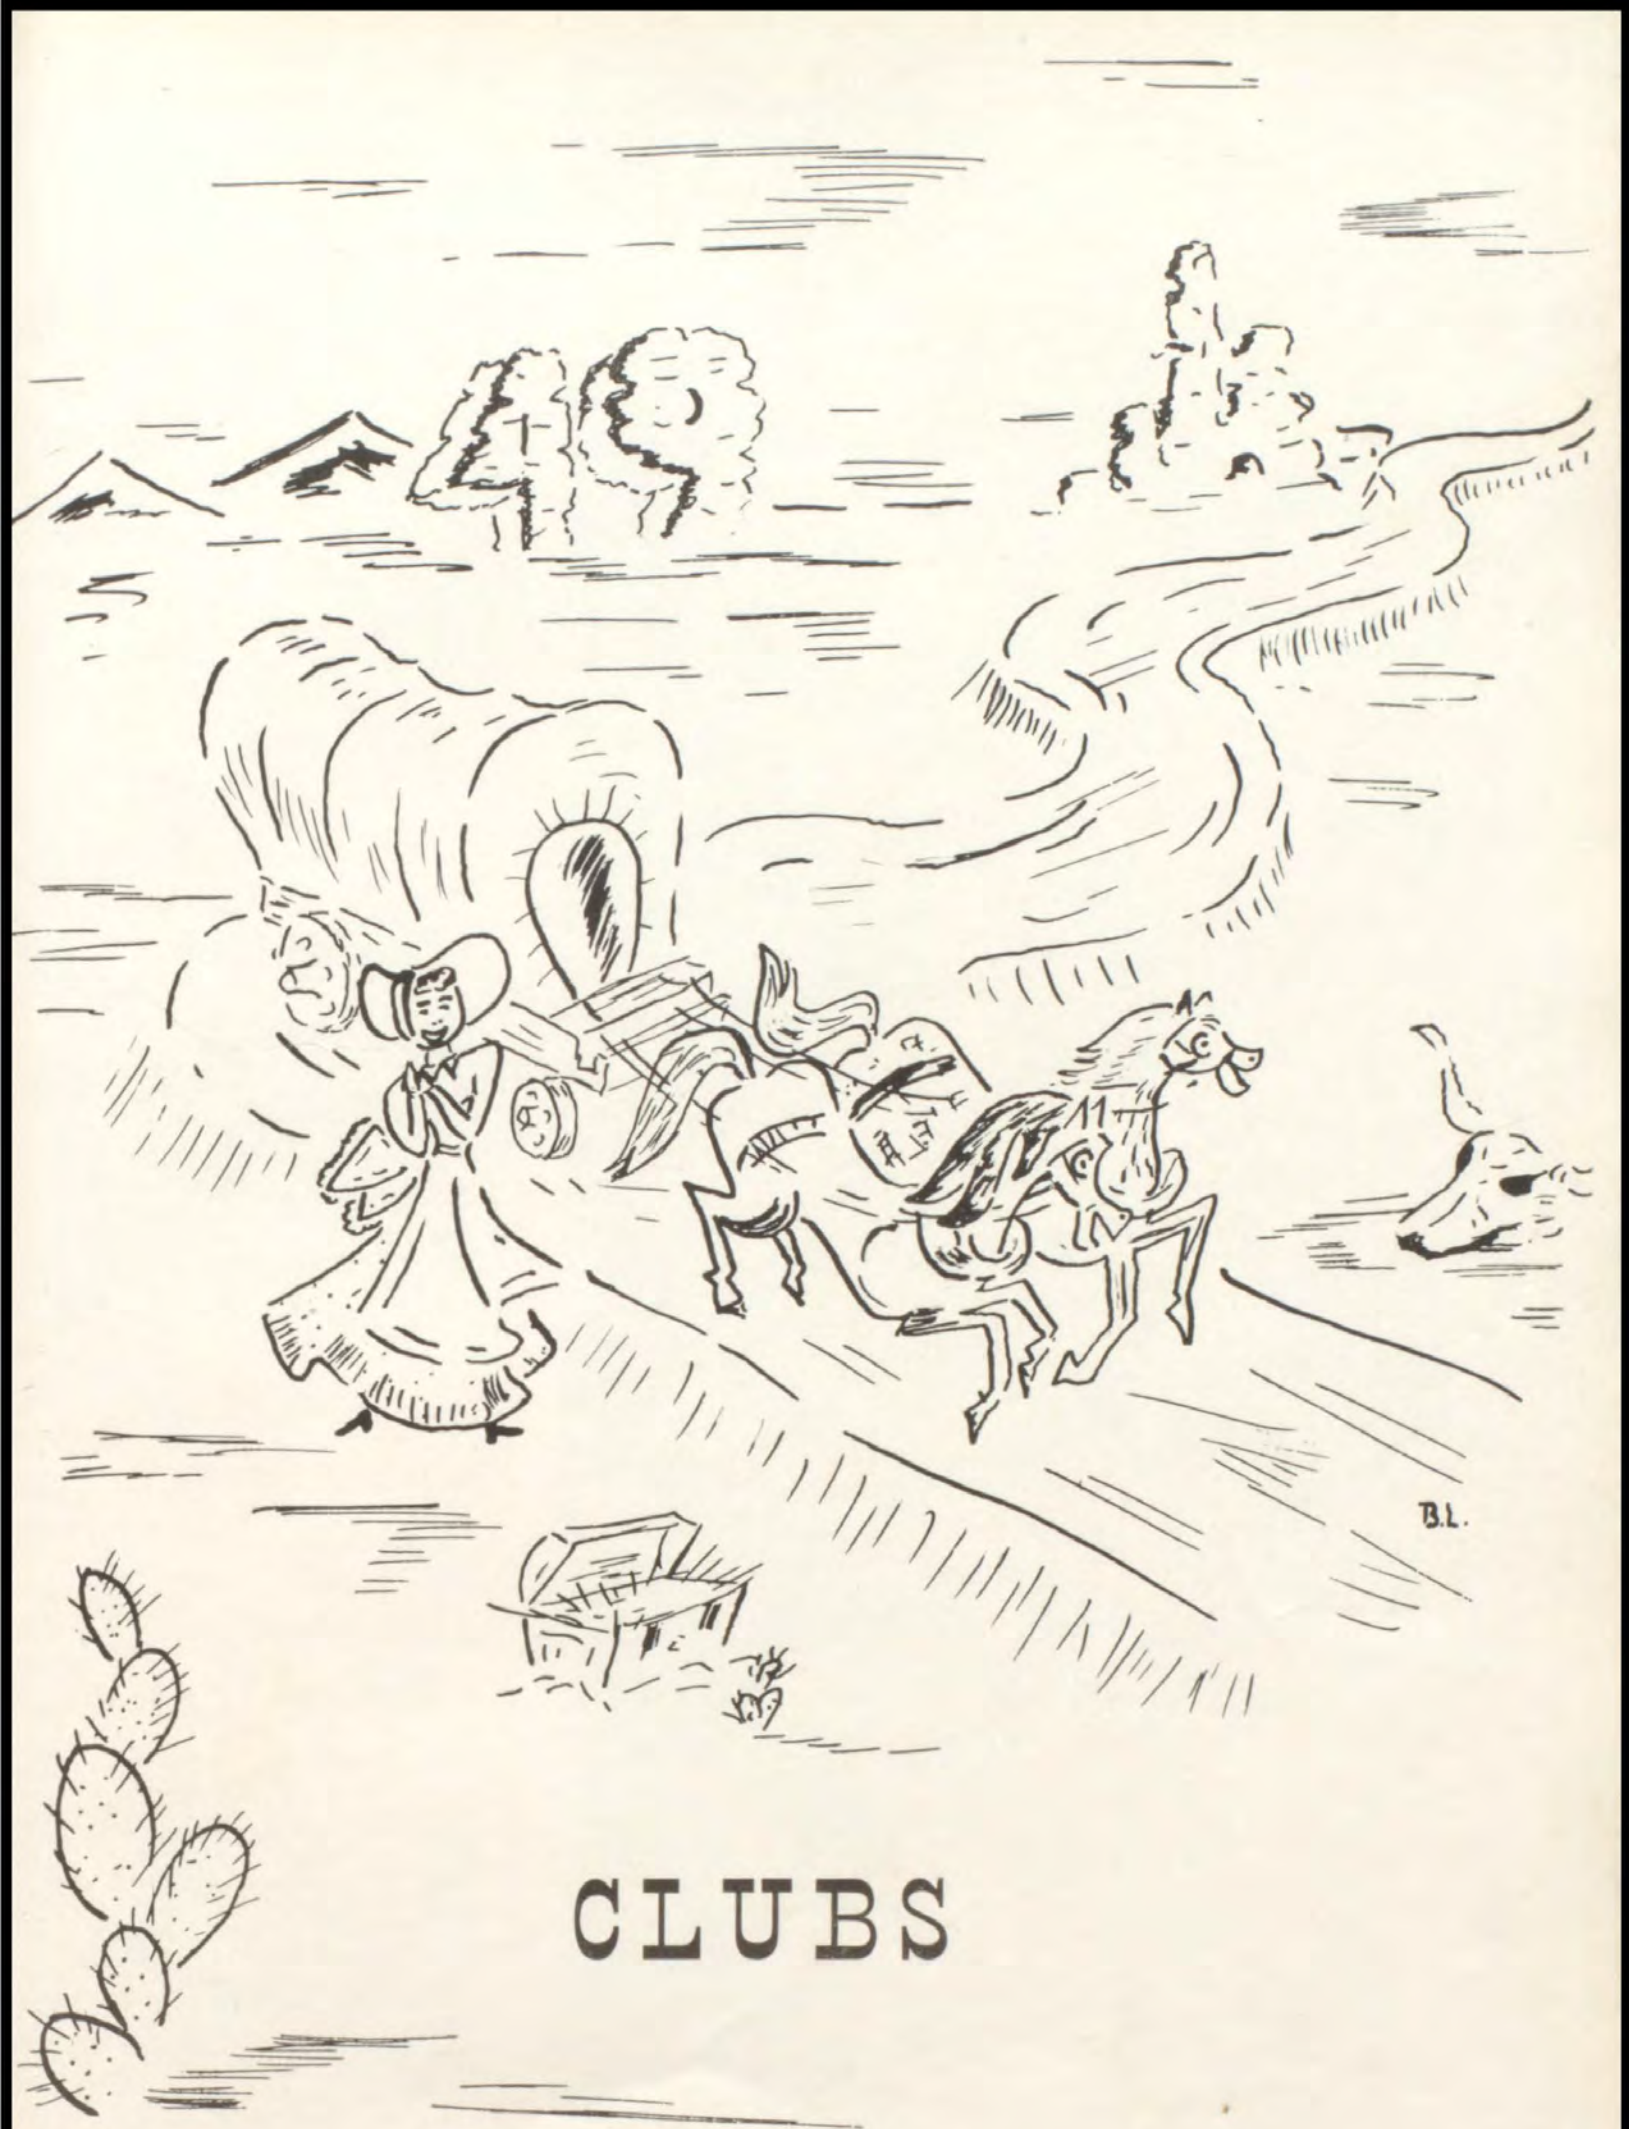

SEVENTH GRADE

Class of 1954

The seventh grade consisted of more than one hundred students. The homeroom teachers for the seventh grade were Miss Plate, Mr. Devlin, Mr. Hirsch, and Miss Marsh. With another year ahead in junior high, the seventh graders have a long wait until graduation from high school. We hope their remaining years will be enjoyable. Before they know it, they'll have to find words to fill up space corresponding to this.

CLUBS

Honor Society

This is the first time that a picture of the Honor Society as a group appears in this publication since it is a newly formed organization. The Honor Society is a very choice organization since its members are chosen according to scholastic standing, character, service and leadership. Rosemarie Pokstefl, its former president, was presented with the Honor Society plaque given by the National Honor Society. Besides Rosemarie Pokstefl, its officers were Vice-President, Winslow Peters; Secretary, Jean Kimbell; and Treasurer, Doris Stewart. Since the President and Vice-President graduated in January, Richard Buchter and Ruth Aardma were elected to fill the positions respectively.

Leaders Club

The main purpose of the Leaders Club is to assist in controlling gym classes and teaching younger students the rules of any sport more specifically. All the members must be voted in on the qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, and loyalty. Mrs. Hines, the girls' gym instructor, is the Leaders Club adviser. Officers are Alice Schlosser, President; Gloria Schneider, Vice-President; and Rosemarie Pokstefl, Secretary-Treasurer.

Fashion Club

The Fashion Club is under the supervision of Miss Hoffman of the Art Department and has as officers Joan Barasch, President; Rosemarie Germann, Vice-President; Joan Pollini, Secretary-Treasurer. The fifteen members had their main event on January 14, which consisted of a Fashion Show with the girls and a few selected boys modeling clothes from Macy's Junior Deb Center. The affair was a great success and the money taken in at the door was given to a worthy cause: the March of Dimes.

G. O.

The General Organization, considered the governing organization at Lindenhurst High School, consists of homeroom representatives. The General Organization is of great aid to everyone in school and issues G. O. tickets annually with which students can gain admittance to basketball, football games and dances. Besides this, their main function, the General Organization sponsors assemblies and gives many parties and dances. The G. O. is headed by Gene Ferraro, President; Jean Kimbell, Vice-President; Norma Santorum, Secretary, and advisers, Mrs. Easton, Miss Babcock and Mr. Kienle.

Debate Club

The Debate Club, being restored after several years of laxity, was very successful under the guidance of Mr. Michel. The club members traveled to Bay Shore and Babylon, winning both debates on the topic: Resolved, "That the United Nations be now revised into a world government." A Debate League was also recently formed consisting of Babylon, Bay Shore, and Lindenhurst. Since the Debate Club has informal meetings, no officers were elected.

French Club

The French Club is naturally confined to those students taking French, and has only nine members. Miss Golding is the adviser, and the officers are Loretta Manzari, President; and Rita Dominguez, Secretary-Treasurer. The members have started correspondence with students living in France. An annual event for the French Club is to travel to New York to see a French play or movie and dine in a French restaurant. This year, for the first time, the members of the French Club will receive pins.

Press

"Meet the Deadline" is a familiar phrase that can be heard among these enthusiastic Press Club members. The main activity, and one that keeps them very busy, is to publish the Broadcast every month. Rosemarie Germann is editor-in-chief, and helping her is Jean Kimbell, co-editor. The Broadcast contains current articles along with such features as Confidentially, written anonymously; Exchange Abouts by Eleanor Menendez; Alumni News,

Band

The Lindenhurst High School Band is a very active department under the direction of Mr. John Mungo. The band meets five times a week for rehearsal, for which the members receive one credit for a year's work. With the Chorus, the band works hard all year to presents its Annual Winter and Spring Concerts. The Band also plays for assemblies, football games, village parades and any other times they are called for. Sometime in the Spring the Band held a concert at Jones Beach State Park.

Twirlers

The twirlers were formed to give color and some-feminine spirit to parades, football games and concerts. The girls work diligently to gain points for twirling awards. The Drum Majorette for the past two years has been June Fenkart. June also instructed new members in the twirlers.

The new Drum Majorette is Grace Beck.

Club

Rona Kass; Fashionalites, Joan Barasch; Girls Sports, Alice Schlosser; Boys Sports, Ray Sullivan. The circulation is taken care of by Lillian Guadoso and advertisements by Norma Santorum. A benefit basketball game between Lindenhurst and Seton Hall was held to defray the expenses in publishing the Broadcast. All this would not be possible were it not for the able advisers, Miss Samsel and Mr. Devlin.

Junior Band

The Junior Band is also under the direction of Mr. Mungo and consists of Junior High students interested in continuing Band work when they reach Senior High. It might be called a "feeder" for the Concert Band. The Junior Band meets once a week.

Chorus

The Chorus under the direction of Miss Panzner, is a very active part of our music department. The members of the Chorus hold class every day the sixth period and receive one credit for one year's participation. The Chorus has assisted the Band in assemblies many times and has added a beautiful part to the Spring and Winter Concerts. They assisted with the music at the Baccalaureate Service and Graduation Exercises.

Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club, often nicknamed the "Seven Mistakes," consists of seven Senior boys. They are George Graf, second bass; Nick Giampetruzzi, first bass; Willy Schaubel, second tenor; Phil De Virgilis, first tenor; and Winslow Peters.

The Septette is under the direction of Miss Panzner and entertains for many assemblies and for the concerts given by the band and chorus. In March the boys went to be auditioned for television at the News Building in New York. They were told that something can be done with them.

Library Club

The Library Club has a membership of nine girls who are interested in library work, chosen by Miss Ratcliffe, the librarian, who is their adviser. The girls in the Library Club took an interesting and helpful tour through a large public library in New York. At the meetings, they discuss ways in which to improve the library and learn definite procedure of library work. The Library Club is of great assistance to the librarian in that they help her keep the shelves neat and the books in place.

Junior Library Club

The Junior Library Club is somewhat like the Senior Library Club but on a modified basis. These girls learn the elementary procedure of library work and gradually work into the Senior Club. This Library club also helps the librarian while they learn. Officers are Geraldine Leone, President; Patsy Leone, Secretary; Margarite Parsons, Treasurer.

Safety Patrol

The Safety Patrol has a total of 24 members whose duty it is to see that cars are parked properly, to control traffic and to direct cars entering and leaving the school. Under the able direction of Mr. Sauer, who changes their posts weekly, the boys of the Safety Patrol help to keep accidents around the school at a minimum. Since this project is their main function, no officers were elected.

Home Economics Club

Mrs. Smith's Senior Home Economics Club consists of all the girls in Senior high school that are interested in Home Economics. With President, Helen Jungeman; Vice-President, Geraldine Lind; Secretary, Norma Santorum; and Treasurer, Lois Bolender; as their officers, the girls do much sewing and cooking. The Home Economics Club put on a Style Show, in which the girls modeled all the clothes that were made. The Home Economics Club sold pyrexware during the Christmas season at retail price leaving no profit.

Junior Home Economics Club

The Junior Home Economics Club is a very large one having approximately 60 members all under Mrs. Cadwallader, the adviser. Lois Luken was elected President, Beatrice Lord, Vice-President; Anne Swanson, Secretary. The girls sold Christmas cards and "all occasion" cards. They do not do much cooking or sewing but have very interesting meetings putting on short plays, quiz programs and amateur talent shows.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club or sometimes called "The Masqueeters" is under the supervision of Miss Neva Wright, the dramatic and speech instructor. The dramatic group has been very active this year, preparing plays and monologues to be presented in assemblies and working on a three-act play. The officers of the Masqueeters are President, Janet Rhodes; Vice-President, William Kleb; Secretary, Helen Klapproth; Treasurer, Walter Angermuller.

Junior Dramatic Club

Since there are so many Junior High Students interested in Dramatics, two Dramatic Clubs have been formed. One is under the supervision of Miss Marsh, and the other Miss Wright. The members of the Dramatic Club learn the best way to put on stage make-up, the fundamentals of stage direction and properties. They also put on small skits to make them familiar with acting so that the Senior Dramatic Club will be even better in the future.

Science Club

The Science Club, with Mrs. Ford as their adviser, elected Joanna Tafuri, President; Eleanore Stockner, Vice-President; Marcia Willemen, Secretary-Treasurer. These potential scientists, all very interested in the field, make group and individual experiments and then give reports of the outcome. Mrs. Ford also takes the group on interesting field trips.

Junior Science Club

The Junior Science Club is similar to the Senior Science Club but consists of Junior High School members. Under Mrs. Ford, the adviser, they make simple experiments and report on the outcome. The club takes trips to study the natural part of science. Officers elected were President, Joe Kaulich; and Secretary, Patricia Schaubel.

Stamp Club

The Stamp Club is a club for Junior High students interested in the different aspects of stamps. At their busy, and interesting meetings, the members report on the newest happenings in the stamp world and trade, sell, and discuss stamps. There are also a few coin collectors owning prize collections. Miss Plate is the adviser of the Stamp Club and Robert Hurde, President; Richard Blennau, Vice-President; and Marilyn Benstock, Secretary, are the officers.

Current Events Club

THE Current Events Club, a small group under Mrs. Sherwood, formed the organization with the desire to learn how to read different sections of the newspaper, and pick out highlights of the news quickly. As their name implies, the club discusses all the current topics and as their main project visited the New York Times Building. Since they hold no business meetings, the Current Events Club did not elect officers.

Young America Speaks Club

THIS club is for the benefit of the students in the seventh grade, interested in Social Studies. It endeavors to encourage constructive thinking and enlightening reading research in the field of national and international current news events. A film on the United Nations and the Atomic Bomb in Japan shown to the club, brought about oral debates and discussions. Mr. Hirsch is the adviser.

Gym Club

THE boys of the Gym Club meet every week to practice different skills on the Gymnastic apparatus. Mr. Kienle, the adviser, plans to form a Gym Team to compete with other schools. Since the Gym Club is an informal one, officers were not elected. At their weekly meetings, the boys worked for the sport exhibition they put on.

School Service Club

THE School Service Club, a very helpful club to the entire school, is not very large but always ready to do those extra little things that are consistently forgotten. The boys take care of the lights, curtains and other stage equipment. The School Service Club is headed by Mr. Schwartz, the adviser; President, Otto Liebl; Vice-President, Harry Wendt; Secretary, Paul Vogelsberg.

Importance of Clubs

Club activities are an important part of the school life of many students. Clubs give students the opportunity to display and develop talent in varied fields of interest which may be useful in the years after graduation. They also provide a means of enjoyment other than the team sports available in high school. Extra-curricular activities help to keep energetic boys and girls busy and give them goals to aim for other than scholastic. Everyone should be a member of a club to broaden his friendships and interests. Do you belong to a club?

ATHLETICS

BL.

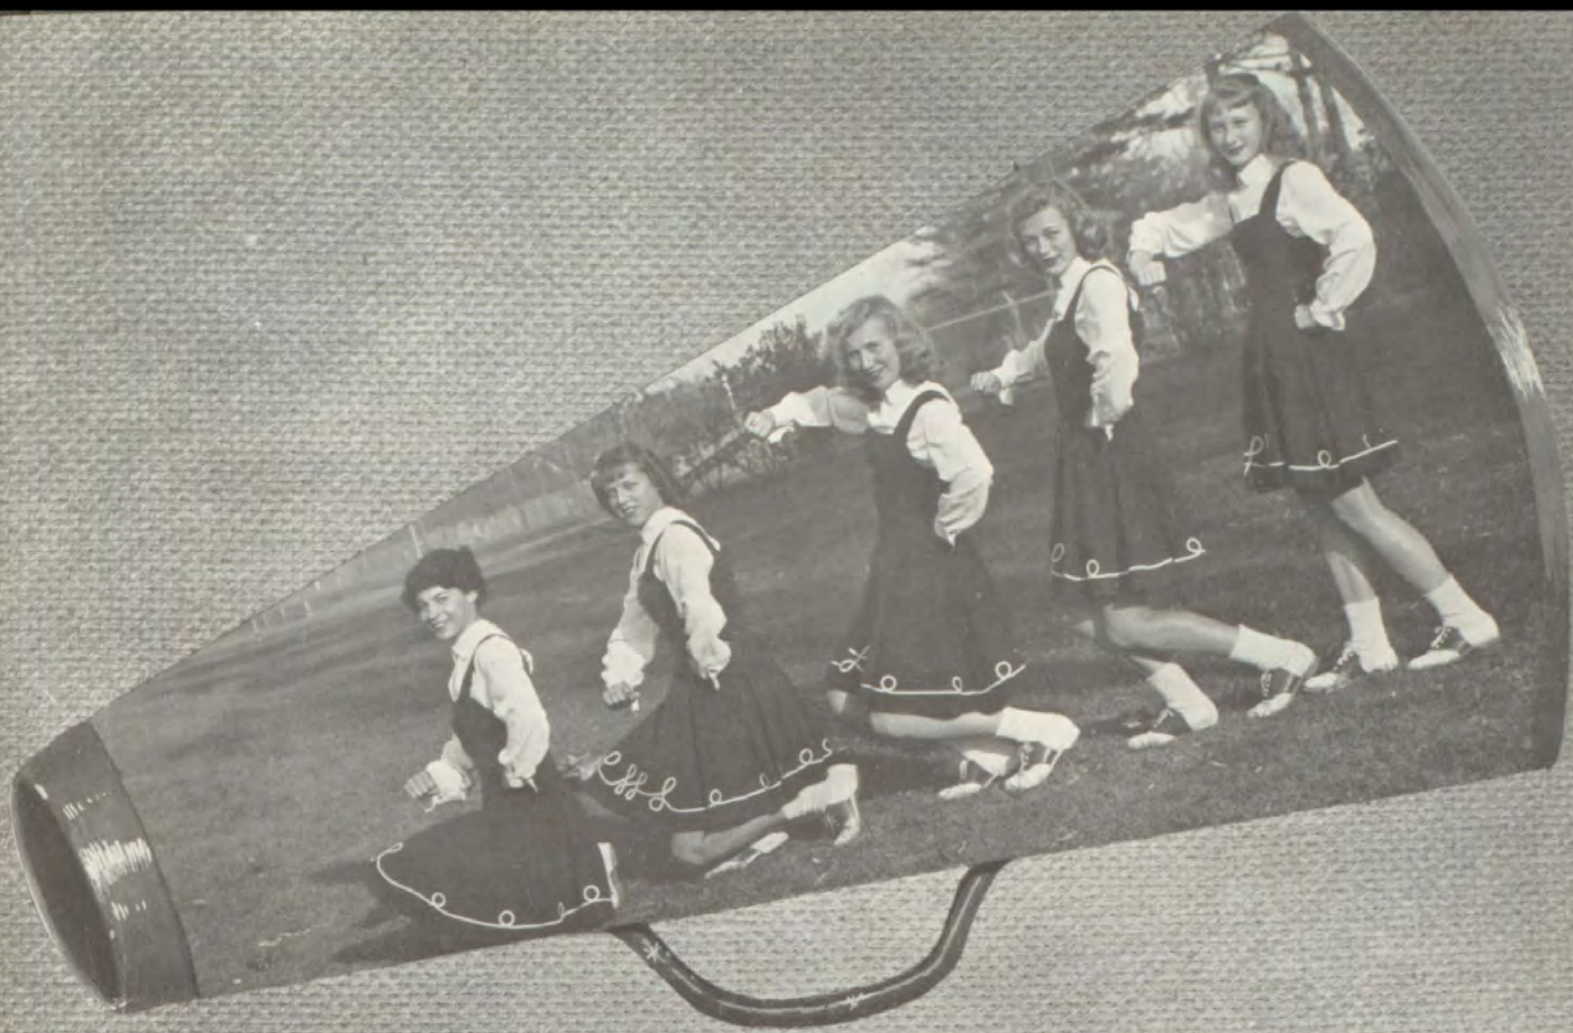

Gold Key Girls

AT the time the yearbook went to press five girls were eligible to receive the gold keys awarded by the Long Island Girls Association. To receive a gold key a girl must earn 600 points in girls' sports under the L. I. G. A. The girls to receive keys were Eleanor Menendez, Alice Schlosser, Joan Graham, Gloria Schneider, and Connie Baer. They worked very hard to obtain this high honor and well deserve it.

Cheerleaders

THIS year ten peppy girls added their charm and energy to the cheering squad. Their contagious vigor inspired the spectators to join with them in encouraging our fellows to win. They added color and excitement during "time outs" with their snappy cheers and were an important factor in the games.

The Varsity consisted of Eleanor Menendez, Captain; Gloria Schneider, Joan Schrieber, Adele Viohl and Joan Walton.

The J. V. cheerleaders were Mary Bento, Anita Zito, Barbara Bernagozzi, Ella Kellerman and Joan Wegener.

The girls were under the able direction of Miss Levina DeVey.

VARSITY

LINDENHURST'S 1948 football team proved to be the best in three seasons. This was largely due to the excellent coaching of Charles Christy and Edward Kienle. Mr. Christy had been J. V. coach last year and Mr. Kienle was a new member of the faculty.

Although they finished in sixth place in the league, the squad always played a rough and ready game. On the defense they ranked with the best.

Throughout the season the team was handicapped by injuries to such star players as backfield men Don Hoffman, Guy Antonacci, Vito Elicio, and Bill Matthews; and linemen Don Macken, Vince Colletti and Barney Yuhas. Many of these boys played under strain due to their injuries but finished the year with new vigor acquired in team competition.

Neil Kettner, a veteran of three years of varsity, was elected honorary captain and also received a berth on the All-Suffolk team. He was selected on the second squad of the 1948 All-Opponent team. Receiving honorable mention on the All-Suffolk team were Don Macken, Don Hoffman, Guy Antonacci, and Dick Chiesa. The only Lindy griddler to receive honorable mention on the All-Opponent team was Tom Beneventano.

FOOTBALL

The trophy for the most valuable player, donated by Joseph E. Godin, was awarded to our stellar center, Don Macken, who was one of the best defensive players in the league.

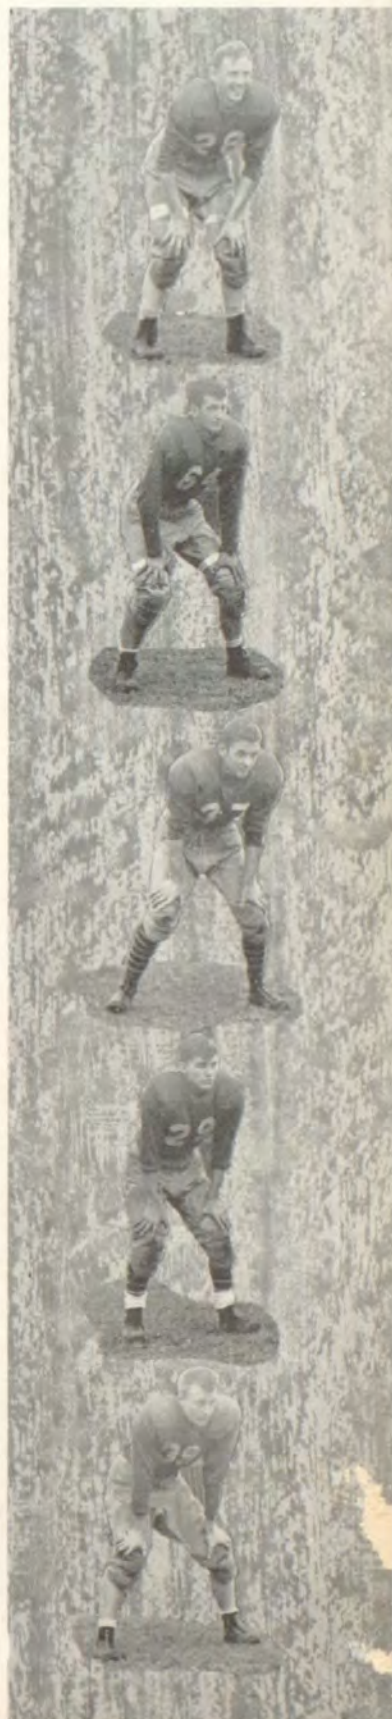

Our backfield was rounded out by Bob Knoth, Art Knappe, Cleve Kingsland and Richie Burrell while the rugged forward wall was held up by Dante Traversa, Blair Mathies, Gene Ferraro, Ed Wild, Dave Busick, Gonzales Lourenzo, and Fred Wanerka.

The Varsity Managers were Richard Godin and Roland Viets.

The first "blood" was drawn by Guy Antonacci in the Sayville game. Neil Kettner deftly added the point for a 7-0 win. Blair Mathies scored on a short pass from Art Knappe in the battle with Amityville. A safety was scored at Babylon.

Although most of the varsity graduates, the 1949 season looks bright with a light, fast team in the offing. Only time will tell!

Jr. Varsity

THE junior varsity worked hard this year and also had fun in a different respect than the varsity since they didn't have the heavy responsibility on their shoulders as did the varsity. The J. V. was the training ground for future varsity material. Mr. Frederic Frisbie was the able J. V. coach.

Herb Hemendinger led the team in the scoring department. Roy Ulin was elected honorary captain and several of the outstanding players were Milt Morohan, Harvey Bittner, Josh Lederburg, Sid Shapiro, Jack Paterson, and Richie Spoerl.

Frosh Football

THE freshman football squad, coached by Mason Papps, included seventh and eighth graders besides freshmen. They worked hard and were a necessary part of the football system in preparing for better teams in the future. They learned fundamentals and had inter-squad scrimmages.

Hockey

THE Hockey Honor Team was picked by Mrs. Hines to represent "Lindy" at the L. I. G. A. Playday at Mephram High. The first game was played against Mephram and resulted in a 0-0 tie. The second game was another tough battle also resulting in a deadlock 0-0 with Southside. The last game of the playday was with Amityville. Lindy got its goal in the second half and held the lead until the referee shouted "one minute left." Just that instant Amityville tied up the game with a goal. The game ended in a 1-1 tie. Lindy wound up in second place in the playday.

There were four class teams in hockey from which the above honor team was chosen. Below is a snapshot of some of the girls on the class teams.

UNDER the new league of two divisions Lindenhurst finished in third place with four wins and four losses. In non-league play the Bulldogs won six while losing three.

Although Lindy had a small team of nine players they had a successful season in scoring 608 points to their opponents 556. Coach Mason Papps' squad handed the first place Sayville their only league loss 38-30 and beat every team in the league except Northport at least once.

Neil Kettner was elected honorary captain and received honorable mention on the All-Suffolk squad. He led the team in points with 167, John Brockner was second with 114 and Joe Marold was third with 92. In league games only, the above three led in the same order with 84, 73 and 56 respectively.

In foul shooting John Brockner led with a percentage of .551, Marold was second with .521 and Kettner was third with .507. Kettner had the most foul shots made with 35. For league games only, Kettner, Marold and Brockner finished in that order with percentages of .666, .571, and .565 respectively.

Bob Brodersen was injured in the Seton Hall game and missed six games. The other team mainstays were Don Hoffman, Roy Mathison, Art Knappe, John Winkelman, and Bill Tyack who also played J. V. Only three players, Kettner, Hoffman and Winkelman, graduated. This makes Coach Papps' hopes for next season bright.

The basketball managers were Richie Spoerl, Bernie Schacker and Bill Kaelber.

THE J. V. squad coached by Edward Kienle put on a spurt at the end of the season winning six straight games for an 8-8 season record. Oddly enough the squad had six straight losses at the beginning of the year.

For a J. V. team they scored quite a few points with 507. Milt Morahan led the scoring with 109, followed by Josh Lederberg and Bill Tyack with 92 each and Roy Ulin with 81. Also among the higher scorers were Herb Hemmendinger and Bob Shaw.

Bill Tyack led the Bulldog juniors in foul shooting with a percentage of .514, followed by Hemmendinger .457 and Ulin .386.

The team elected Bill Tyack honorary captain. The Junior Varsity was rounded out by Joe Franklin, Bill Blakeney, Paul Poveromo, Joe Jennewein, Bob Graham, Alex Metzner and "Sonny" Zeme.

Next year several of these boys will move up to varsity and help keep up the Lindy Banners.

Volleyball

AFTER all the hockey sticks and shin guards were put away, out came the volleyballs and nets. The girls had few volleyball practices but did well against the other teams. The volleyball honor team played at Oceanside this year.

The girls who made the honor team this year were: (standing) Ella Kellerman, Joan Graham, Rita Edelman, Captain; Alice Schlosser, Norma Bunn, Lillian Graf. (kneeling) Eleanor Menendez, Joan Walton, Gloria Schneider, Joan Hill and Joan Schriber.

ARCHERY was added to the girls' sports calendar this year. The sport was open to all freshman, sophomore, junior and senior girls. During October the team played in a meet at Baldwin High School.

The archers this season were: Connie Baer, Doris Shubert, Joy Mellor, Loretta Manzari, Frances De Lemme, Margot Pueldner, Evelyn Gelke, Rosemarie Germann, Rona Kass, Geraldine Kingsland and Pat Early.

Archery

Girls' Basketball

AS in most girls' sports there were four class teams in basketball. From the girls on these teams the honor team was chosen.

On February 24, the basketball honor team traveled to Southside High School, Rockville Centre, to compete in the "Playday." Lindy played Amityville, Far Rockaway and Southside.

The first game, against Amityville, was a victory for Lindy, 20-13.

The second game was with Southside and although it was a close game, Southside came out on top, 17-14.

The girls were determined to win the third game and did, beating Far Rockaway 14-5.

The members of the basketball honor team were: Eleanor Menendez, Alice Schlosser, Joan Hill, Adele Viohl, Joan Schrieber, Joan Pollini, and Lillian Graf, forwards; Gloria Schneider, Joan Graham, Joy Faria, Loretta Manzari, Catherine Busick and Vivienne Speece, guards. Joy Faria was the captain.

Girls' Athletic Instructor

THE person responsible for most of the improvements and management of girls' sports is Mrs. Elaine Hines. She has been with the faculty for several years and has seen the realm of girls' sports steadily expand.

In addition to the athletic teams Mrs. Hines also is in charge of girls' gym classes. In the future we hope to see more developments come about such as the L. I. G. A. which Mrs. Hines helped to bring to Lindy.

SPORT

THE Sixth Annual Girls' Sport Night was won in a tough battle by the Green team 42-38. The Green team was captained by Alice Schlosser and Co-Captained by Joan Graham. The White team was Captained by Eleanor Menendez and Co-Captained by Rita Edelman. These girls were elected by the rest of the girls and then chose their teams.

Each team chose themes for its entertainment and marching and spent a great deal of time in perfecting them along with the games which were to be played. The White team used "a vanity table come to life" for its entertainment. A high point of the entertainment was the scene in which they used luminous paint. It was a wonderful effect and was one of the reasons why they won it. For their marching the theme was top hats and canes and again the luminous paint.

The Green team chose "Grand Central Station" for its entertainment theme. Featured were "porters" and train songs. In the marching, which they won, an Indian theme was used. They also sang Indian songs. A beautiful Indian headdress, worn by Gloria Schneider, was made by Mrs. Mary Ford.

The Green team took first in: scooter relay, team "21," marching, basketball, team organization, roller relay, and "dribble in and out." They took second in: human croquet, entertainment, and roller relay.

The White team took first in: entertainment, human croquet, and suit case relay. They took second in: scooter relay, team "21," marching, suit case relay, basketball, team organization, and "dribble in and out."

NIGHT

Mrs. Hines was the director of Sport Night and was mainly responsible for its being such a successful affair. Mr. Papps was the announcer and the judges were Mrs. Easton, Mr. Auerbach, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hopkins. Mr. Little presented the girls athletic awards.

Others who helped out with the affair were: Mr. Schwartz and the School Service Club, Miss Burgevin, Mr. Francis, Miss Hoffman, Miss Panzner, Miss Babcock and Mrs. Ford.

Sport Night is always one of the outstanding events of the year and is certainly a worthwhile project. It seems to improve every year although that is quite a hard thing to do. All those connected with Sport Night should be commended for their wonderful efforts.

THE baseball picture in Lindenhurst was a bright one this year as Coach Edward Kienle came up with one of the best teams in several years. With one game remaining to be played the Bulldogs were assured of at least second place.

Not counting the last game against Sayville, Lindy had five league wins and two losses. In non-league play they had three wins and four losses. John Winkelman pitched two shut-outs and Gerry Damm one while the team was never shut out in fourteen games.

The squad scored 78 runs to their opponents' 53. In hitting Lindy garnered 70 hits to opponents' 57. Neil Kettner had three home runs and Gerry Damm one. The team collected five triples and ten doubles, three hit by Joe Marold.

Winkelman racked up five wins against three defeats and Damm broke even with a 3-3 record. Joe Franklin relieved in five games without being credited either way. Jim Kimbell rounded out the pitching staff.

Brockner, Marold and Kettner led the team in batting averages, while Kettner led in extra-base hits.

The outfielders were: Vince Colletti, Neil Kettner, Ed Moffat, Gene Ferraro, Herman, Larsen, and Joe Jennewein. In the infield were Ed Wild, Roy Mathison, John Brockner, Bob Knoth, Barney Yuhas, Buddy Kirk and Gus Ingenito.

COUNTY MEET—8 POINTS

IN its second year at Lindenhurst the track team showed much improvement under the able coaching of Mr. Charles Christy. The team won two meets and lost two and took a second and fourth in the County Relays at Patchogue.

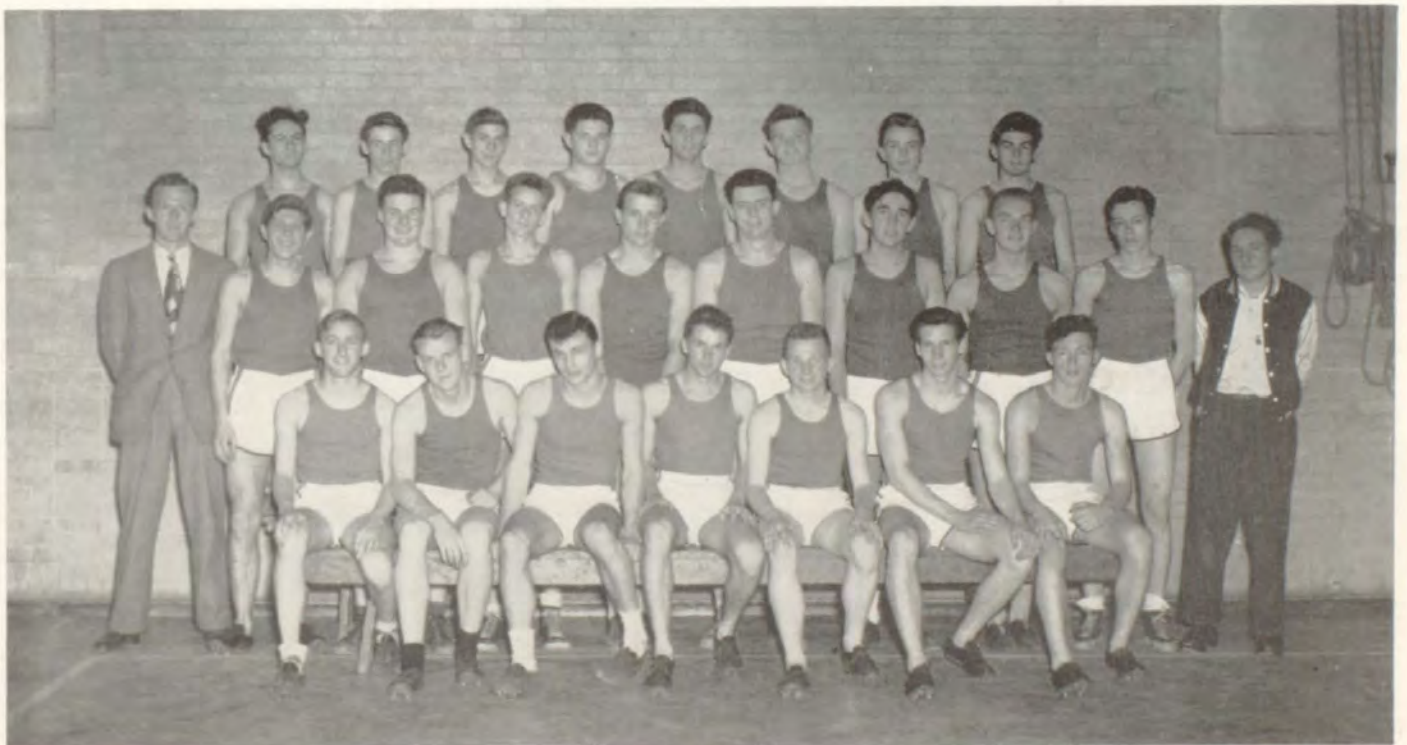

The Bulldogs were strongest in the field events but had a good all-around team. Otto Liebl led the scoring with 30 points, closely followed by Blair Mathies who had 29.

The first meet of the season was lost to East Rockaway, 73-31. On the home improvised track the squad was victorious over South Huntington, 65½-38½ and over Northport, 78-26. At Babylon they lost the last dual meet, 58-46.

In the County Relays the 440 team won their qualifying heat and took second in the finals. The hurdle relay team placed fourth in the finals.

Several members of the squad entered the county meet at Riverhead on June 4.

The members of the team and their points are as follows: Mathies 29, Liebl 30, Kleb 20, Matthews 26, Wanerka 19½, Ulin 18, D. Chiesa 18, Beneventano 16, Schaubel 13, Viets 9, Giller 6, Kass 6, Groat 6, Schott 6, Wendt 5, Lourenzo 4, Moses 4, Palmer 3, Al Chiesa 10, Tyack 2, and Philipstahl 1. The manager was Tom Kienle.

Intramural Sports

TO round out the sport program giving those not able to play on school teams a chance, intramural sports are made available to both boys and girls throughout the year.

In the boys' program volleyball, basketball and softball are played. The girls also play these sports and have class teams in field hockey.

These activities give the younger boys a chance to develop and supply added sports outside of gym classes. More than once a member of an intramural team has taken a place with the school teams. In intramural sports there is not the pressure on which is present in inter-school games and the boys and girls in either case can be at ease. Sometimes that is overdone and a rough-and-tumble scrap results. It's all good fun and no one can predict the outcome of an intramural game. Anything can happen in intramurals!

As the faculty of L. H. S. increases and more supervision is available, the intramural program will increase accordingly. Perhaps in the near future six-man football games may be added in the fall.
