Foreword

This book is a record of friendships, of play, of work, and of all those happy diversions of a school year. If in the future these pages should freshen and perpetuate, cherished memories, the yearbook staff of 1952 will feel it has accomplished the task entrusted to it.

MRS. DOROTHY C. SHERWOOD

For the innumerable favors granted, for constantly thinking of our present and future successes, for being a source of help and encouragement, We, the class of 1952 wish to thank Mrs. Sherwood for helping us attain every goal we tried for. Without Mrs. Sherwood to help us this yearbook and many other of our accomplishments could not have been possible.

MISS PHYLLIS SCHROEDER

With deep affection and sincere gratitude, We, the class of 1952 in recognition of constant sacrifices and efforts, wish to thank Miss Schroeder for the many things she has done for us. Without Miss Schroeder our play could not have been half the success it was.

MR. PALMER FRANCIS

To faithful, kind and understanding Mr. Francis, we wish to express our gratitude and sincere appreciation for all he did to make our fourth and final year in High School a success. His help with the scenery for our play and his help with our yearbook will always be deeply appreciated by the cast and by the yearbook staff.

Dedication

We, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-two, dedicate as a formal acknowledgement of our indebtedness to our beloved principal, Robert J. Little, this yearbook, for without his efforts and everlasting faith in us, this, our last and most glorious year of our high school career, would have been but an idle dream.

Administration

MR. LAWRENCE C. LOBAUGH

We, the Class of 1952, sincerely wish to extend our humble gratitude for the tireless guidance and consideration extended to us throughout our four years in High School. We know that such a generous and thoughtful superintendent can never be replaced in our minds and hearts.

MR. ROBERT LITTLE

The Senior Class of 1952 wishes to express our sincere appreciation and profound gratitude for Mr. Little's tireless effort, fatherly understanding and ever-ready aid. We only hope that we may prove worthy of these generous efforts that have been expended so graciously on us by Mr. Little, Principal of L. H. S.

MRS. ETTA EASTON

May we, the Senior Class, extend to Mrs. Easton our sincere gratitude for her most ardent efforts to better our education and deportment and most of all, for taking a personal interest in each and every one of us.

Top row-L. -R. Mr. Frevele- Dist. Clerk; Mr. Law, Mr. Gaggin, Mr. McGraw, Mr. Lobaugh, Mr. Gaulton, Mr. Little, Principal.

Board of Education

This board is an important governmental agency and in its membership is vested the charge to provide the most desirable and adequate educational facilities for all those resident students who, in later years, must carry on the work being performed by the older generation today. One can readily realize, therefore, that those accomplishments of the Board of Education today have a tremendous influence on the standards and abilities of the future generations.

Members are elected by the voters at the annual district meeting and hold office for three-year terms. They serve in this capacity entirely without financial reward, and must devote considerable time, effort and study to all problems of the system.

"Little kids who act like brats" are Patsy's pet peeves. She likes music, books, and roller skating, and she was in the chorus, and Dramatics Club. Pat, who was known for the clicking of her knitting needles plans to be an elementary teacher.

ELEANOR SYMINGTON

Eleanor played hockey, volleyball, basketball, softball and bowled. She was a member of Leaders' Club and a G. O. Rep. Besides sports, "Cake" liked swimming, tennis and Spencer. To become a successful wife is El's ambition. "English teachers" were her pet peeve.

LUCILLE ZACCARIA

Lu's personality and athletic ability made her known to all Seniors. She played hockey, volleyball, basketball, and softball, and earned her gold key. Besides sports, movies, dancing and listening to Tony Bennett records were her favorite pastimes. Lulu was an active member of Leaders' Club, Press Club, Senior Play, and the Year-book Staff. To be a successful office worker is her ambition.

THERESA SCHMIDT

"Susie", as she was known by her friends, went out for volleyball, basketball, softball, and modern dancing. She liked Home Ec. class and free periods. "Susie" was one of the engaged girls who planned to get married and be a good wife to Louis.

MARIE STEIN

"Marie" was a quiet senior. She was a member of the band, and participated in basketball, hockey, softball, volleyball and archery. Marie's secret ambition is to open a dog kennel. "Show offs" were her pet peeve.

DORIS SCHUBERT

"Doris" could always be heard telling someone to "Take it easy." She went out for softballs, basketball, hockey, archery, and volleyball. Besides sports, Dorie liked dancing, roller skating, and driving. To be a successful secretary is Dorie's ambition. "People who could dish it out and couldn't take it," was her pet peeve.

ROBERT SEDLER

"Bobbykins" was a member of the Science Club and Advertising Manager of the Broadcast. He liked going to sport events and working on the broadcast while in L. H. S. His pet peeve was "Traffic control" in the halls. His ambition is to succeed in anything he attempts.

DOROTHY SEKORA

"Dot" claimed her pet peeve was boys who can't dance, but think they are experts. She belonged to the Chorus and Dramatic Club. Dot liked drawing and reading and her ambition was to become a Kindergarten Teacher.

HAROLD SELZLE

"Teen's" ambition is to become a veterinarian. He likes classical music, manual arts, hunting and fishing. Harold was in the Archery club, science club and was on the wrestling and track teams.

KEITH SEMERAN

Keith played Varsity track and J. V. baseball, besides intramural sports. He was a member of Lindy's band. Class Cliques was Keith's pet peeve. "Sam" liked girls and cars most. To become a mechanical or civil engineer is his ambition.

WILLIAM SHELFO

"Bill's" pet peeve was "Women drivers," because they always seem to get in his way. His ambition to be a criminal lawyer didn't seem to coincide with his love of wine, women and dancing. Bill was a member of the Honor Society, played intramural softball and basketball. His hobby is oil painting.

JOHN SILVANI

Johnny belonged to the Science Club. Conceited people were his only gripe. Women were his first thought. Johnny's ambition is to become a butcher.

MARGUERITE SLATER

Marguerite went out for basketball, volleyball, hockey, softball, badminton and archery. She belonged to the Home Ec Club. Marge liked to draw best of all. Her pet peeve was long lectures.

WALTER SMITH

"Smitty" was a Varsity Club member and President of the Band for two years. He played Varsity basketball, J. V. baseball, football, and cross-country. He liked sports most of all in school and disliked "police control in the halls." His ambition is to join the Navy.

FRANK SPADY

Frank, otherwise known as "Sam Spade," could always be found dancing in the gym during lunch hour. He participated in baseball and intramural basketball, and volleyball. He enjoyed girls, and baseball most in school, and his pet peeve was class cliques. His aim is to work up to Manager of Sears Roebuck & Company.

BARBARA STABILE

"Bobbie" came to Lindy in her Jr. year from Manhattan, where she was in the Debating Club, the Science Club, and on the basketball team. She likes dancing and cooking, and her ambition is to be a private secretary. "Health class" is her pet peeve, and cooking is her hobby.

ADELE SVENDSEN

"Della", whose ambition is to become a secretary, likes music, dancing, and skating. "Health Class" is her pet peeve, and her activity was volleyball.

ANDREW TAFURI

"Andy's" quiet and friendly manner made him one of the most popular Seniors. He played Varsity football and baseball and intramural basketball. To graduate from college and become an engineer is Andy's ambition. Andy's only peeve during high school was "French."

CARMELLA TATA

"Cookie" was known for her beautiful smile and personality. Her "quiet laugh" combined with her favorite expression "How Funny" were also known to everyone. She played hockey, volleyball, basketball, and softball, and also a member of the Press Club. She likes dating Jack most and to go to college and become a buyer is her ambition. "Cookie's" pet peeve was gum cracking.

PENROD TURK

"Pen", who's going to become a gunsmith, likes guns and hot rods. He was in the Service Club, and his hobby is photography. "Women drivers" are his pet peeve.

EDWARD TANNACORE

"Eddie" came to Lindy in his Junior year from Flushing. His ambition is to become an aeronautical engineer, make a few million dollars, and then retire. He likes baseball, basketball, and wrestling. His hobby is reading Science Fiction Stories, and his pet peeve is "Teachers who give homework over the week ends."

ROBERT URANN

"Bonjo." as Bob is known to his friends, wants to become an auto mechanic. He likes cars, and his hobby is fixing cars. "Wheels" are his pet peeve, and he was in the Bowling Club.

FRANK VASTI

"Frank" played Varsity and Jay Vee baseball. He liked lunch hour and girls, and his pet peeve was second period study hall. He hasn't decided as yet what his ambition is.

VIOLET VIOLA

"Vi", was a quiet senior who thought that her senior year was her nicest, was a member of Lindy's chorus all during high school. Besides painting photographs, her other likes included popular music and dancing. "People who are false" were her pet peeves during school. Vi's ambition is to graduate from high school.

ETHEL WANZELAK

"Tillie" was known for her "quiet" laugh. She was Secretary of the Honor Society, on the hockey, volleyball, badminton, and basketball teams. She likes to roller skate, dance, and eat potato chips. Her pet peeve was, "Know-it-alls". To get married and raise a family is Ethel's ambition.

BARBARA WEINER

"Bobbie" was in the Science Club, the International Friendship Club, the Home Ec. Club and she played hockey and softball. She was on the Yearbook Staff. "Success in medicine and marriage" is Bobbie's ambition, "Homework and conceited people" are her pet peeves, and writing poetry to pen pals is her hobby. She likes bowling, popular music and dancing.

ROBERT VIOHL

"Bob" was band treasurer and secretary in his Junior year and V. P. in his senior year. He played J. V. baseball and belonged to the band for three years. Bob's pet peeve was Spanish, but he liked baseball, cars, and his girl. Bob's ambition is to go to college and become a mechanic.

MAXINE WEISSBERG

"Max" participated in basketball, softball, volleyball, and bowling. She was G. O. Vice-President and was on the yearbook staff. She enjoyed her Sophomore year most in school, and disliked people calling her "Sis". Her ambition is to graduate from College and marry.

JOAN ANNE WESTERVELT

"Joan's" sophistication and stylish clothes made her known to her fellow pupils. Playing volleyball, basketball, and baseball, skating and dancing were her activities. Besides boys, cooking special dishes was Joannie's favorite hobby. Her pet peeve was would-be-wheels. To become a private secretary and marry the boss is Joan's ambition.

JANE WINTERBOTTOM

"Janie" belonged to the Science Club and participated in archery, badminton, and volleyball. Janie's pet peeve is conceited boys, and she likes science and badminton. Jane's ambition is to be an Elementary school teacher.

RUTH WITMEYER

Ruth, otherwise known as "Iggie" came to L. H. S. in her Junior year from Industrial Arts H. S. in Manhattan. She claimed her pet peeve was rumors. Ruth liked art most while in high school and her ambition is to be a fashion illustrator.

AUDREY YOUNG

"Aud" was a quiet and friendly senior with a beautiful soprano singing voice. She played softball, volleyball and basketball. Besides sports, Audrey was a Varsity cheerleader and enjoyed twirling and dating Bob. To be a secretary and get married is Aud's ambition in life.

THE HIGH SCHOOL BAND

An assembly program just wouldn't be complete without having the band play for us. Under the able direction of Mr. John Mungo, the band has become a very important function in L.H.S. by playing at all football games, Jones Beach Concert, and the Spring Concert. They practice mornings between the hour of eight and nine in the auditorium. This organization helped to make our Senior Play a big success. They played their selections between the acts of the play and also before and after the play. They should be highly commended for the excellent job they did.

THE TWIRLING CLUB

This club under the direction of Mr. John Mungo, drum majorette Marianne Bier and assistant majorette Marie De Martino led their twirlers, which are composed of twelve members, who are as follows: Mary Scaglione, Grace Grabher, Marguerite Parson, Elsie Nohs, Arlene Born, Marion Berni, Eleanor Carson, Janet Beck, Jean Neumair and Lyn Gutherman, for the parades, football games and basketball games (first time this was done in L.H.S.). They had snazzy routines and outfits. They also twirled for the Memorial Day Parade, Tulip Festival Parade, Jones Beach Concert and the school's Spring Concert. This too is a successful organization in conjunction with our school band.

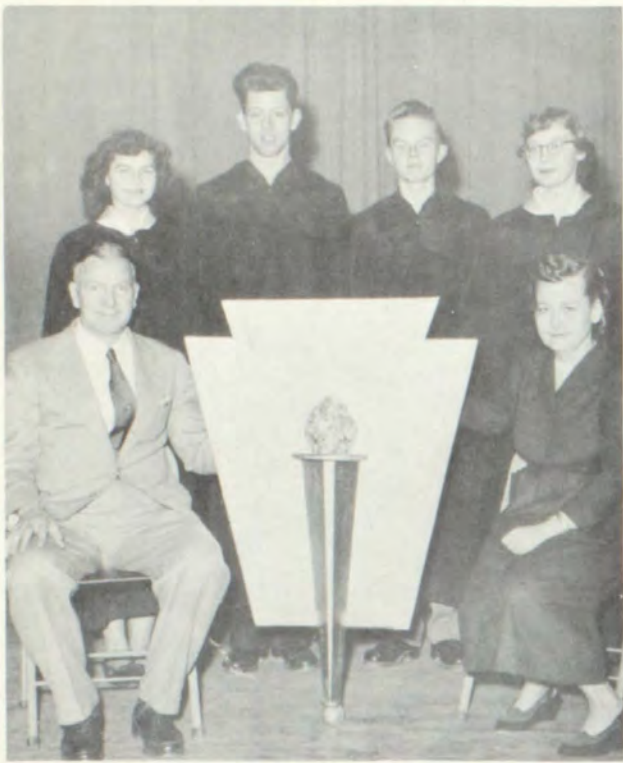

G. O.

The General Organization consists of everyone in the school who holds a G. O. card. Each of the homerooms sends a representative to the meetings over which Richie Grabher presides. Maxine Weisberg is Vice-President, and Frances Scarpinato Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Easton, Miss Babcock and Mr. Michel supervise the functions of the G. O. two of which include sponsoring "outside" assemblies and a Christmas Party.

Each month the G. O. representatives choose a Student of the Month. This student is chosen for being outstanding in leadership, scholarship, and service. Only one has been chosen to date, this being in the person of William Shelfo. We hope that in the future many more Students of the Month will be chosen.

Under the capable leadership of its officers and advisors, the Lindenhurst Honor Society has lived up to the ideas set up in the Society's constitution. The advisors are Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood and Mr. Laurence C. Lobaugh. The officers are, reading from left to right, Ethel Wanzelak, secretary; Alex Donnan, treasurer; Richard Grabher, president; and Maryann Sakolsky, vice president.

H O N O R

A relaxing hour spent in the Honor Society's private room. All members are granted the privilege of using this room instead of going to study hall. Since they are left on their honor a supervisor or teacher is not needed. This is one evidence of the trust put in a Society's member. It is also the reason so many of the students in L.H.S. want to become a member of the Honor Society. It is a goal worth shooting for.

SOCIETY

Giving information to a stranger in Lindy High is also the work of the Honor Society. In this case the member is Bill Shelfo. The Honor Society, in addition to running an information desk, also has a lost and found department. Each member spends a period a day at the information desk.

BROADCAST STAFF

This year's Broadcast Staff under the able supervision of Mr. Stephan Langford and Miss Katherine Burgevin, was Lindenhurst's outstanding monthly publication.

With such enthusiastic journalists as Jerry Muller, Ethel Lundstedt, Mary Colie, Gerry Turrisi, Harriet Brush, Roberta Hauser, Ann Genelli, Donald Clark, Alvera Gregory, Marilyn Ott, Patricia Milligan, and Joy Marcroft.

Each issue was jamed packed with News, Fashions, Jokes, Exchange Abouts, Sports, Nickle Coke, and of course, "Confidentially Yours." added much to its reading pleasure.

FASHION CLUB

With Miss Hoffman as its capable director, the members of the Fashion Club stage an annual fashion show which is sponsored by Macy's. Other activities include the study of makeup, dress designs, and hair styling. In order to become a member you must be either a junior or senior, chosen by the present members of the club.

LEADERS' CLUB

Under the able direction of Mrs. Sklar and Mrs. Nieman, the girls assist in conduction of gym classes, and teaching of techniques. To become a member of the Leaders Club, a girl must participate in at least two sports a year, show a sportsman-like attitude, and be voted on favorably by all members of the club. Evelyn Jaeger, Phyllis Fisher, Connie Feiber are the President, Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer, respectively.

VARSITY CLUB

Under the capable supervision of Coach Cotton the Varsity Club was responsible for raising funds for the maintenance of the teams. Among their activities for the year were several successful "Victory Dances" and the sale of boosters and programs. Only lettermen are initiated every fall.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

With Miss Hatch as Librarian and Council Director, the Lindenhurst High School Library Council manages to keep our library up to date in the best of books. Working during their study periods the council members do everything from typing to filing. During the year, the Council gave a Faculty Tea and a Christmas Party.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

With Mrs. Smith as capable director of this active group, the club belongs to the "Future Homemakers of America". Learning how to prepare for their own future home, the members sew and cook. They meet once a week and discuss the problems that a housewife would meet in her everyday life.

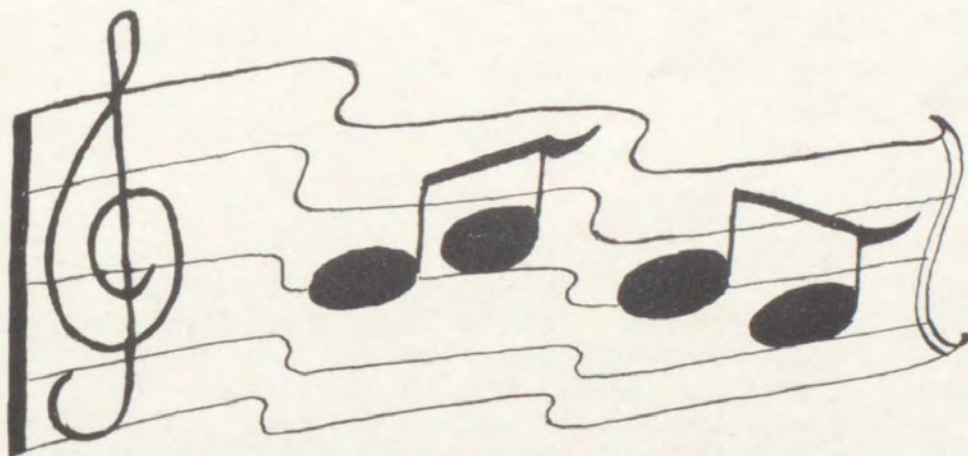

LUCKY ELEVEN

The Lucky Eleven is a dance band recently reorganized. As of yet they haven't performed in public, but in the very near future they plan to play for the noon-hour dances.

It consists of eleven members of the Concert Band, and it is directed by John Mungo, Jr. Under Mr. Mungo's expert guidance the Lucky Eleven have become a really "jazzy" outfit.

SERVICE CLUB

With such an able leader as Mr. Irving Saffrin, the Service Club could always be seen ready and willing to help. The members included John Salamone, Howard Rutherig, Floyd Chivvis, Richard Grabher and Alexander Donnan.

Among the services rendered by these faithful members were the showing of movies at Parent-Teacher meetings, in classrooms and during assemblies and the lighting and setting of the stage for the Senior play "Father of the Bride." No matter what it was the Service Club could be counted on to do the job quickly and efficiently.

Our high school chorus, under the capable direction of Miss Elsie Panzner, has performed dilligently in many numerous and enjoyable concerts. The chorus is comprised of 83 boys and girls who meet every fifth period in the auditorium. The chorus, this previous year, has performed at the Thanksgiving assembly, the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Sports

HOCKEY HONOR TEAM

Although the team wasn't very successful this year the girls, picked from the four class teams, played hard, and even in defeat, gloriously demonstrated the wonderful techniques taught them by their capable coaches, Mrs. Sklar and Mrs. Nieman.

Playday was held at Lindenhurst on October 30, and the first game was a hard loss for Lindenhurst. The score was tied at one all when Amityville, in the closing minutes, scored a goal which broke the tie and won the game. The score of the second game was Mephram 2 and Lindy 0, and in the final game of the crucial series Farmingdale's 1 topped our girl's 0.

The team consisted of: left wing Peggy Shees, left inner Bea Lord, center forward Evelyn White, right inner Connie Feiber, right wing Joy Maschi, left half-back Joan Lang, center half-back Lois Luken, right half-back Flo Huhle, left full-back Phyllis Fisher, right full-back Ann Swanson, and goalie Pat Early. Substitutes: Marianne Bier, Barbara Burns, Terry Desimone, Dee Goercken, and Joan Milligan.

Joy Maschi and Joan Lang made the team for the third time, an unusual feat, deserving to these girls.

VOLLEYBALL TEAM

With hockey sticks and shin guards all put away the volleyball season opened. Even though the girls could have only one practice a week, their playing was an honor and attribute to the school. It was the big event of the year! This vivacious bunch of girls won every game on the Volleyball Sports-day of 1952. No one could compete with them because of the splendid teaching that was given to them by Mrs. Sklar and Mrs. Nieman. It was the first time in seven years that a playday had been won.

The proud athletes were happy to wear the green and white jackets the next day. It was a symbol of their achievement. These girls were: Dolores Goercken, Audrey Young, Joan Lang, Lucille Zaccaria, Evelyn Jaeger, Phyllis Fisher, Bea Lord, Jean Roth, Terry Desimone, Connie Feiber, Lois Luken and Joy Maschi.

The Scores of playday were:

Lindy	24	Farmingdale	10
Lindy	32	Southside	5
Lindy	33	Amityville	4

BASKETBALL HONOR TEAM

Playday was held in Farmingdale on March 1. The girls passed and dribbled the ball as if they were professionals but only because they were instructed by two pros., Mrs. Sklar and Mrs. Niemen.

With a little luck the girls might have won but as it was they didn't. Mephams came out on top. The Lindy-Mephams game was tied at 14 all at the half, but in the closing minutes the Mephams girls broke the tie and went on to win. Lucille Zaccaria was high scorer for her second year. Others on the team were: Audrey Young, Arletta Marold, Joan Lang, Maryann Sakolsky, Phyllis Fisher, Maureen Bak, Bobbie Blankenhorn, Lois Luken, Pat Early, Ann Swanson and Evelyn White.

ARCHERY HONOR TEAM

The archery honor team was picked from the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior girls who went out for the sport. Under the leadership of Mrs. Sklar and Mrs. Nieman these girls learned how to control the arrows to get them where they wanted to.

Playday was held at Mephram. The Lindy girls weren't the victors with the highest score but neither were they the lowest. This showed not only good teaching but good playing to those new players.

The girls who played and tried their best were Adele Vigilante, Marguerite Slater, Marie Stein, Lois Haegert, and Johanna Geisler.

BOWLING TEAM

Like all other sports an Honor Team was picked from the four class teams. This is a comparatively new sport in Lindy and under the direction of Mrs. Ramsauer the girls bowled every Friday afternoon.

Playday was held at Amityville where eleven schools participated. The Lindy girls came in fourth and were very proud of it as they only were a few pins behind third place Mephram.

Five girls played on this team: Eleanor Ramsauer, Diane Rutherig, Joan Pfaff, Sandra McGraw, and Dolores Goercken who was high scorer for Lindy.

Gold Key Girls

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

This peppy squad of girls sparked our football and basketball teams through the year. During the football season the weather was never too cold or nasty for them. On the coldest days we could see them out on the field leading the crowd in a cheer for the teams victory. Many times the boys didn't win, but they knew the cheerleaders were with them, win or lose.

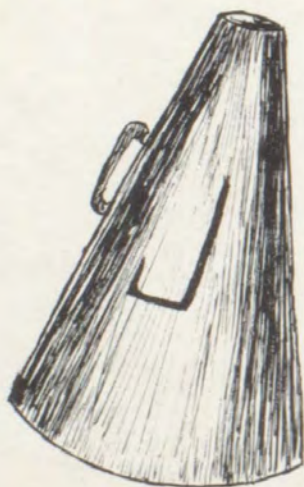

The girls advisor was Miss Schroeder but do to the Senior Play and other work she was doing for the Senior class she was forced to resign.

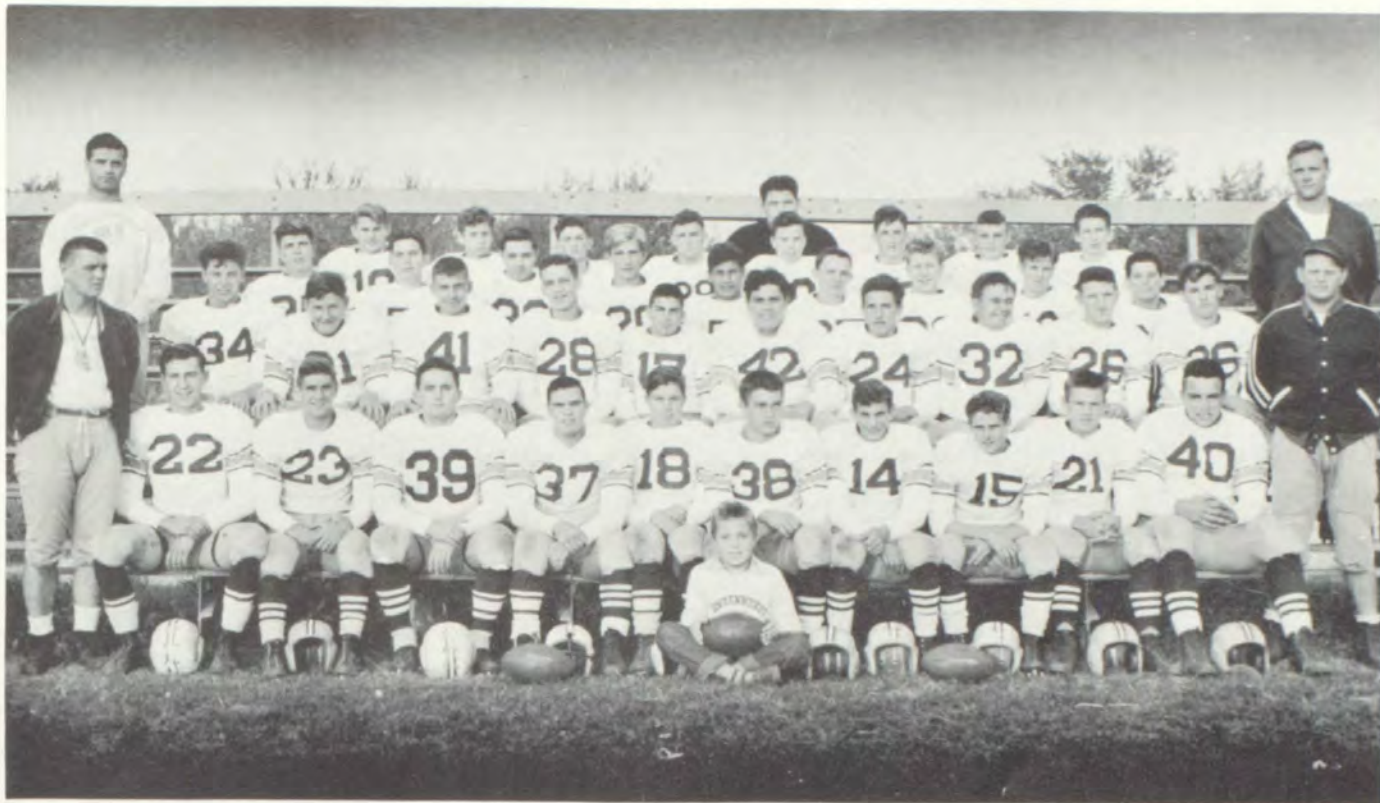

At the beginning of the year the Varsity Club asked the Cheerleaders to become members. They gave two dances together and the girls helped sell programs, refreshments, etc. at the wrestling tournament.

The squad consisted of: Ethel Lundstedt, Joan Lang, Audrey Young, Joy Maschi, Evelyn White and Lois Luken. Evelyn and Lois will be the only ones back next year.

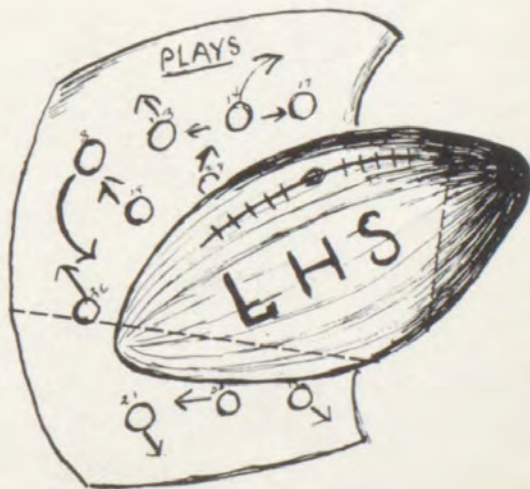

This year a completely new squad was chosen. It consisted of: Lorraine Gelke, Carol Mergler, Joyce Torterella, Joan Bier, Rita Farranto, and Helen Hemendinger. A peppy lot are these, the future Varsity squad, and they will surely do their best to cheer the boys on to victory.

The Bulldogs, while not having a terrific season, did much better than they have in the past few seasons. Under the magnificent coaching of "Duke" Greenwich, Edward Kienle, Alvin Cotton, and Joe Marcino, the Bulldogs won three, lost four, and tied one. The backfield stars this year were, John Niland, Chuck Schreiber, Tony Avitable, and John Reidener. Outstanding in the line were Don Holmstrom, Pierre Jelis, Bill Kennard, John Shiffert, and Ed Nordstrom. Harold Joers did a fine job of kicking for the Bulldogs this year.

WRESTLING

In its second year at Lindenhurst the wrestling team improved greatly under the coaching of Mr. Joe Marcino. The Bulldogs strongest men were in the lighter weight classes. The veterans from last year were: Don Clark 106 lb. class, Frank Bertino and Rocco Cassano 115 lb., Joe Quigley 123 lb., Ed Germann 130 lb. class, Armand Arabian 136 lb., Walt Chapadeau 141 lb., and John Reidener.

The newcomers were: Irl Everette 106 lb., Eddie Ortler 115 lb., Eugene McGrellis and Hans Morgenstern in the 123 lb., George Price and Jim Robertson 148 lb., John Lipka 157 lb., Bob Wright and Herb Stockner 168 lb., Roger Cellan, John Shiffert, and Ted Wendland in the unlimited lb. Class.

The most outstanding boys this year were, Clark, Quigley and Reidener who holds the record for the quickest pin which is .35 seconds.

The teams played this year were as follows: Stony Brook, Long Beach, Southside, Manhasset, Farmingdale, Valley Stream, Lynbrook, Bay Shore, Oceanside, Malverne, Mephram, Baldwin, Riverhead, and Amityville. The boys also competed in the Eastern L. I. Tournaments held at Lindenhurst.

In the first ten matches, Lindenhurst won five and lost five.

BASKETBALL TEAM

This year the green and white Varsity Basketball Team was spurred on to many a victory by the able leadership of Coach Edward Kienle. With a fine record of eight wins and five losses as of February 15, they were placed high in the league standing. On the starting line-up were Tony Avitable, Art Hibbert, Keith Logan, Art Lorelli, and Billy Schneider.

Their continual practice was reflected in the fast and precise timing of the team against their opponents. An aid to their high morale was the high attendance maintained at all the games throughout the entire season.

J. V. BASKETBALL

Our jayvee's record this year was three won and fifteen lost. The record itself does not tell the true story. In the games that were lost, or the games they were losing, they kept right on fighting and scrapping right until the final whistle. Many of the games lost were very close and could have given either way by order of a foul shot or bucket. Most of the teams they faced had a definite height advantage and an edge in experience. Our boys made up for this with their will to win and hustle. They started the season at Patchogue and lost a real tough heartbreaker by one point. Their coach Mr. Tivnan had them drilled to play good, clean, hard basketball, and they were not to be denied that night, because they showed they could play that way. Not only in that game did they show that spark, that determination, but in every game after. One thing that stands out from all the rest was the spirit that they had. They went out against much better teams and played with all their hearts as though it were for a championship. That's the way it was all year. It was not the case of having a losing attitude. No team in Lindy in the past few years has had that. Gordie Hill, Ed Sheehan, Danny McDonald, Dan Doyle, Walter Kienle, Erickson, Ryan and Gelke formed the Nucleus of the team. Hill and Sheehan were of great value to the team. Hill hit with an uncanny assortment of shots from all over the court as did Sheehan with set shots and one handers. Mr. Tivnan saw that all of the boys played and got that much needed experience that is so fully required on the varsity. Here's lots of luck to Mr. Tivnan and his team in the years to come. Lots of luck to high scorer Hill and second high scorer Sheehan and to the rest of the team. Hope you "bring home the bacon" or "varsity" next year.

our Junior Prom

The first scene in "Father of the Bride" finds the Banks family seated around the breakfast table. The family consisted of Mr. Banks, Sal Ciavolino; Mrs. Banks, Dolores Goercken; Ben, Bob Marcus; Kay, Connie Feiber; and Tommy, by Armand Arabian. Kay's dreamy attitude leads her father to ask whether she intends to marry her steady beau, Buckley Dunstan played by Donald Horne. After Kay's announcement of the wedding, the usually peaceful domain of Stanley Banks becomes a three ring circus. Arguments concerning the number of people to be invited to the reception are numerous, even with the help of Mr. Banks' secretary, Miss Bellamy, played by Joan Lang. Arrangements have to be made with Buckingham Caterers under the direction of a debonair gentleman named Mossoula, played by Richard Gaggin. More complications set in when Delilah, the Banks' maid played by Florence Huhle keeps getting in the way of the decorators. Tommy's arrival with his best friend Buzz, played by George Edelman adds more confusion to the already disrupted household.

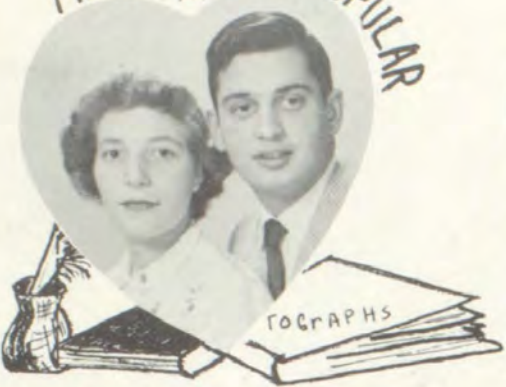

Just when Mr. Banks is on the verge of screaming, Peggy, Ben's fiancée played by Joy Maschi, comes in with the bridesmaids played by Marianne Bier, Corrine Hirsch, Pat Early, Roberta Jacobson, Barbara Palmer, Ethel Lundstedt and Lora Manzari. Kay's arrival on stage fully dressed in her bridal costume dramatically closes the play.

Despite all the heartaches and hard work, every Senior who participated in making the play a big success enjoyed it whole heartedly and was rewarded with a dinner-dance at the Chez Mimi.

We also would like to extend our deepest appreciation and thanks to all those who graciously assisted in helping us, mainly the Service Club, under the direction of Mr. Saffrin, Mr. Mungo and The High School Band and especially our talented, patient and able-bodied director, Miss Phyllis Schroeder. Also, we would like to express our appreciation to our Advisor, Mrs. Sherwood, for her thoughtful gift of a real wedding cake presented to the Father and the Bride at the dinner-dance.

KITCHEN STAFF

Due to the need of money at the beginning of our Senior year, and encouraged by Mr. Marcino's suggestion, a kitchen staff of seven seniors was formed. Cooking hot dogs on Tuesday and hamburgers on Thursday, the staff faithfully fed the students and faculty through their senior year. Serving on the staff was Richard Gaggin, Terry Desimone, Donald Horne, Marianne Sakolsky, Cleone Bahr, George Edelman and Sal Ciavolino.

CANDY STAFF

This staff of five members was formed in September of 1951 to earn some much needed money for the Senior Class. Serving during lunch hour through our senior year, Donald Marold, Maxine Weisberg, Robert Marcus, Katherine Rogus and Alexander Donnan sold everything from soup to nuts. This staff in conjunction with the kitchen staff enabled the children in school to have a well balanced lunch. It served as a help to the children and a great help to the senior class.

JUNIOR PROM

On April 21, 1951, the class of 1952 gave their Junior Prom. The scene was set at the famed Stork Club. Tables decorated in black and white were artistically arranged around the gym floor. Gentlemen handsomely dressed in tuxedos escorted beautifully dressed young ladies under the canopy leading from the entrance of the school down into the gym.

Music supplied by the Stork Clubbers added a professional air to the dancing. For all those who desired a remembrance of the evening's enjoyment, pictures were taken inside of a large ring by Jerry Muller, class photographer. As a added attraction those present participated in the Nantucket, a novelty dance. After a grand march around the floor, the king and queen were chosen. They were Joe Marold and Madeline Spencer, respectively.

Class Will

We, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty two, being of sound mind and possessing our faculties, do hereby will and bequeath the following:

Class Prophecy

Gaze into the crystal ball
And before you you will see
The world as 'tis just ten years hence
The future to you and me.

First to pass before the crystal
Is our friend George Edelman
Who fate has destined to become
A department store tycoon.

Next we find sweet Joanie Lang
Gazing at her image
Yes, 'tis she who is to be
A famous fashion model.

Private secretaries all are Rosemarie Metzner, Barbie Lee and Marianne Bier, who
Are the third shadows that we see.

Another group that's come to view
What the future has in store
Are Don Brown, Rich Grabher and
Alex Donnan, engineers all three.

What is it that is growing there
Ah yes, now it's clear
'Tis our dear old Alma Mater
Only much larger than it used to be.

A whole new group of teachers
Has been added during the years.
Pat Schaubel, Bob Leporte, and Carol
McDuffee are the first three we see.

Coming toward us arm in arm
Are Cleone Bahr, Terry Desimone, and
"Dee" Goercken, who teach French,
Elementary School and Phys. Ed.

Farther down along the line are viewed
Drs. Marcus and Perini who are aided by R. N. Barb Weiner
In their duties to humanity.

Next is seen the radio station WLLI
Where busy secretaries hurry to and fro
With news for caster Jerry Garraffa
And scripts for comedian Frank Hohlbein.

Music is furnished for the shows
By pianist Carol Hamblet
And sitting in the sponsors' booth
Is Mary Ann Sakolsky.

A "QUIET" sign now comes before us
And behind it sits Jane Winterbottom.
Yes! You guessed!
She's the new librarian.

Peeking next into the future
Are Ralph Pebler and Fred Glaeser
Who run boat-yards and Service stations, respectively.

Just glancing at the future are Dick Sauer, journalist, Photog
Jerry Mueller, and Lu Zaccaria
And "Tillie" Wanzelak, secretaries.

They're in a hurry, as you can see
To meet their paper's deadline
And record Mayor Ciavolino's speech
At the dedication of Turk's Gun Museum.

The crystal ball is fading now
I'm afraid we'll have to leave you,
But remember one and all
We'll meet you in the future.

Class History

In September of the year 1948 the class, to be later known as "The Elite," made its debut into Lindenhurst High School society. Another group of students joined our Society in January 1949, making ours the record freshman class in the history of the school with a total enrollment of over one hundred and fifty students.

We were fortunate in having a wonderful faculty to advise us during our high school days. Mrs. Pebler and Mr. Ruckel, who are no longer with us, helped us to acclimate ourselves to this new type of society during our freshman and sophomore years. Our President while a freshman was Milt. Morahan, our Secretary, Joseph Constantino, and Treasurer Ruth Tupot. We tried to be original in all our undertakings and succeeded very well, when as a freshman we presented, on March 25th, a dance and a movie, entitled "Sun Valley" Serenade.

In September 1949 we entered the next strata of society, our Sophomore year, Without the aid of Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Gerek, and Mr. Travis the students who had entered in January would not have stayed with us. If we have not done so before we wish to thank them now for giving of themselves so earnestly.

During this school year we had to make a name for ourselves and did so by being a very ambitious class. Our capable President Sal Ciavolino together with the executives, Evelyn Jaeger, vice-president; Gloria Prisco, secretary; and Terry Galuzzi, treasurer; gave us inspiration to raise funds, enabling us to be worthy of our place in society. We gained much profit by selling car tags, which were new in our community but our originality was first noticed when we produced our Carnival Dance with its gay and sparkling "Midway." We admit that we were not being socialities but a carnival is for All children, from nine to ninety.

As Juniors we were quite consistent in selecting our executives. Milton Morahan was again elected to the Presidency, Ronald Scholer was vice-president, Joy Maschi was our secretary, and Terry Galuzzi was once again the watch dog of our treasury. Mrs. Pebler's departure from our midst thrust Mrs. Sherwood into the position of being our helpmate for our last two years. She helped us tremendously and we now extend to her our most grateful thanks for the privilege and pleasure of working for and with her.

We were increasing our finances, by selling football, basketball and L pins, when the question of our school rings arose. The contract we held had expired and so, again achieving originality, we changed the ring design. We hope that we have given the undergraduates a ring they shall like, for it is a favorite among most students.

At the end of the football season we asked the football team to play a hockey game with the girl's class hockey team. It was agreed that it was to be a game to end all games. The boys, acting as players and cheerleaders, were dressed in girls skirts and shorts, and wore, for added protection, their shoulder pads and helmets. It was a most hilarious game which was won naturally by the alleged weaker sex.

The biggest event of the year was the Junior Prom for which the theme was the Stork Club. The prom gave us the inspiration for our theme "The Elite." You will find details about the prom in another section of this book. The prom was the last and Best of our activities while we were Juniors.

In September, impossible though it seemed, we were actually Seniors. A new and entirely different world was open to us. It proved mostly to be a world of hard work, but we soon found that work was fun. We elected as officers Sal Ciavolino for President once again, and Don Horne vice-president, Joan Lang secretary, and Terry Desimone as Treasurer. With the able assistance of our three advisors, Miss Schroeder, Mr. Francis and Mrs. Sherwood we planned our first event to raise money. The event was a cake sale at Hill Super Market.

A few weeks later the socialites let down their hair and thoroughly enjoyed themselves at the Senior Hayride. The dance held afterwards at the civic clubhouse in American Venice.

Our Senior Play, "Father of the Bride," will be long remembered. A great man once said we learn from experience, well, that is exactly what we did. We enjoyed presenting our play and sincerely hope everyone liked it as much as we did when we worked on it.

This is our history, and we're quite proud of it for now we too are history. We sincerely hope that in the future we, the class of 1952, will continue to make history in the society of our fellow men.

Acknowledgement

A little bit of smiling and a little sunny chat
A little bit of courage to a comrade lagging back
It's not the biggest things that make the biggest show
It's the many things these people did
That makes this yearbook so.
