Dear Alma Mater
Lindy High

The class of '54 presents the story of their Alma Mater during their senior year at Lindenhurst High School.

THE 1954

Lindenhurst High School

BULLDOG

Lindenhurst, New York

Foreword

Dear Alma Mater Lindy High—These words will, in a few years, bring back historical sentiment and fond memory. The Bulldog, in a sense, both a history book and a memory album, opens its leaves with these words taking the reader through the story of Lindy Hi, by means of the school song.

The poem, written by Mrs. Clinton Lunt, in 1930, then a student, has survived through the years. Though there is nothing that is more part of Lindy school life, the poem has lost its position of importance recently.

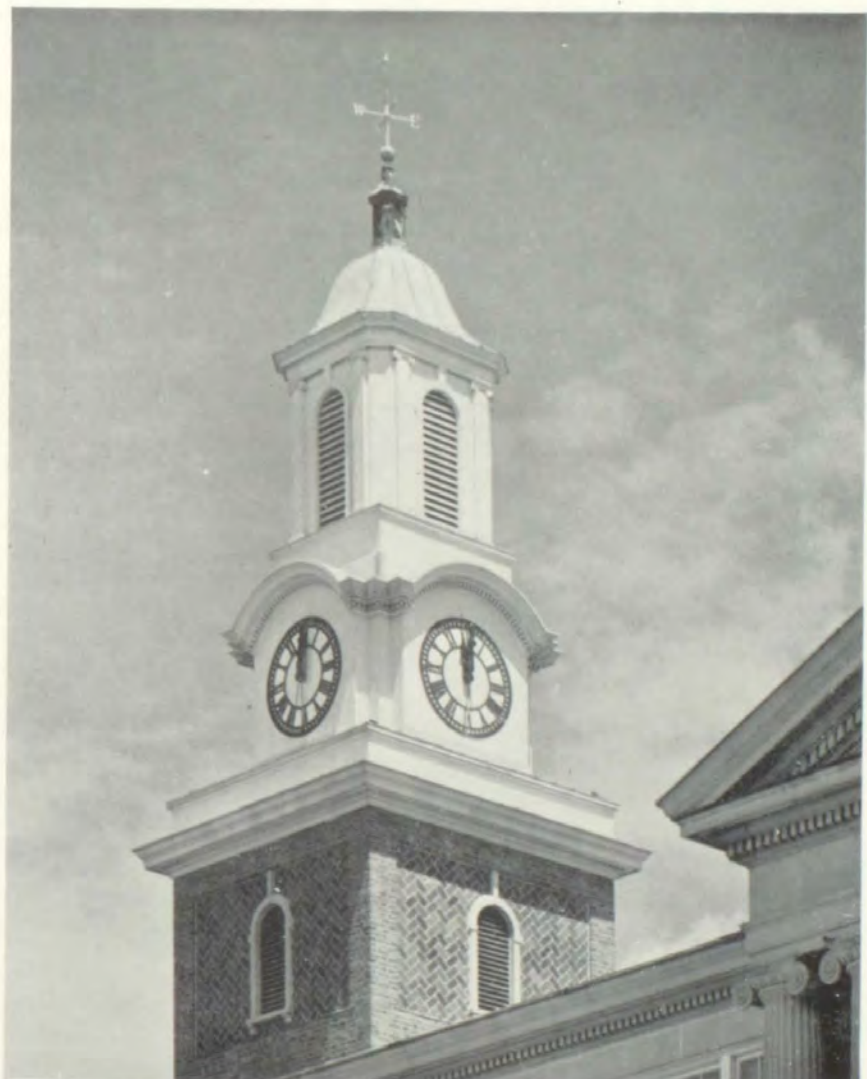

The staff has hoped through presentation of this motif to revive interest and spirit into the once fiery song that swept Lindy with pride, glory and to victory.

Hail to L.H.S. our dear School

The Class of 1954 dedicates this annual to the tower clock. It has, in these past four years, molded our school days into daily routines which we learned to follow. It afforded us no time for procrastination but made us face our responsibilities with reality.

This clock, as it extends into the sky, sets an example to the graduates striving to attain such great heights in their lives.

Words of and Farewell

MR. ROBERT J. LITTLE
High School Principal and Acting Superintendent

During the years you have spent in our schools it has been the aim of your teachers to assist you in the mastery of the tools of learning. They have watched this mastery lead to the development of inquiring and orderly minds.

You have had common problems and goals. Through this understanding of one another's problems, it is our hope that as years go by you shall make an earnest effort to understand the problems of the people of other nations, and that you shall use your abilities to help solve them. With this understanding as a common foundation, the world in which you live will be better.

You are now on the threshold of a new life. Remember always your duties as a citizen of this great democracy of ours. Good citizenship will guarantee our future generations the same opportunities and liberties that you have enjoyed.

Wisdom to the Seniors

MRS. ETTA EASTON
Vice Principal

My sincere congratulations to the girls of this graduation class of 1954. It has been a pleasure to have been associated with you for the past four and in some cases, six years as Assistant Principal and Dean of Girls. It is my hope that wherever your life's path may lead you—you will remember a few of the principles for clean, honest living that your teachers and myself have tried to teach you—that at all times you will be a credit to your Alma Mater, the Lindenhurst High School. May you be successful in whatever field of work you may enter and when you enter the greatest of all professions—that of being a wife and mother—enter it with all of your heart and soul, with the determination to be one of the very best. God Bless you all.

When the class made its entrance in high school in September of 1950, it was decided that a good name would be maintained for ourselves. A Freshman class was allowed to have only one affair a year. The Hill Billi Hop, which was held on December 8, 1950 was the first dance for us. It was declared a great success by all, but naturally, could not have been done without the help of the advisors, Miss Marielle Woodward, and Mr. Alvin Cotton.

In the early Spring there was a picnic at Belmont State Park.

On Dec. 7 the second annual Hill Billi Hop was given. As in the year previous, it was a success.

To raise more funds for the class, it was decided to have a Matmen's Dance, which was in honor of the grapplers.

That year we also ran a successful Rummage Sale, which boosted our fund raising campaign.

The officers were John Shannon, President; Edmund Germann, Vice-President; Vivian Weissflog, Secretary; and Maryann Moll, Treasurer. The year ended with another picnic at Belmont Park.

"High School Hero" captured large audience with

One of our greatest successes while in school was our senior play, "High School Hero." It was presented on April 29, 30, and May 1.

The three-act comedy revolved mainly around Sue Pringle, Bill Rockwell, Gertrude, Dan, and Eleanor, played respectively by Vivian Weissflog, Harold Collins, Joyce Tortorella, John Shannon, and Frances Rhodes. The story stresses the relationship between the students of the high school and the newly appointed young principal, and shows the willingness on the part of all the students to make her job a pleasant and easy one.

The final curtain of the comedy brings the play to a happy conclusion.

Mr. John D'Antonio, was the excellent director of the play.

He was capably assisted by assistant director, Roberta McNally, Stage manager, Norma Harris, and script girl, Beverly Landt.

Others responsible for the play's success are the students "behind the scenes," who handled such details as lighting, scenery, publicity, prompting and makeup.

It was not an effort, however, for these people to participate in class work, as they not only enjoyed themselves but also got the greatest satisfaction from the final result.

The Senior Girls' Secretarial Staff under the able direction of Mr. Cardinal, worked for the teachers once a week. The training gained is to help them in the future when they get out in the business world.

Varsity Football

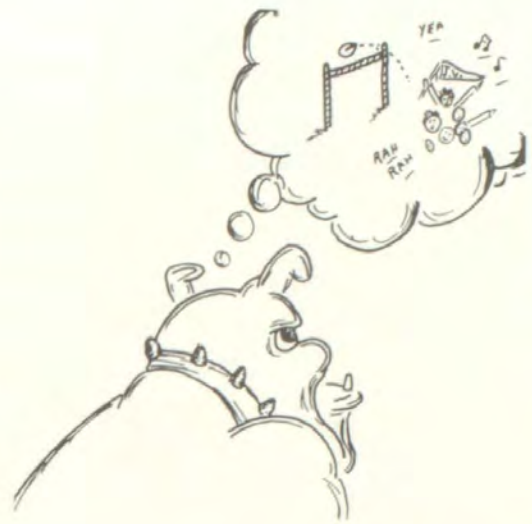

The 1953 Varsity Football campaign was far from a glorious one. The Bulldogs went through the entire season without a single victory.

Opening the season against the Amityville Crimson Tide, the Green and White turned in one of their most impressive performances considering that the team was green and resting weakly on the experience of fullback Roger Cellan, halfback Ray Dominguez, and linemen Lou Kubat, Ed Germann, John Shannon, Ted Fabien, Ed Garcia and Joe Quigley. The 26-0 loss proved that the Bulldogs weren't ready for the early scheduled game.

The season closed dismally without victory but with the hope of a more successful future with 10 lettermen returning.

The Lindy J.V. gridmen turned in an impressive 4-2-1 record for the season. They handily triumphed over Riverhead, Patchogue, Amityville and Huntington while dropping hard fought contests to Bay Shore and Wantagh, and also tied Port Jeff 7-7. The team was predominately Sophomores and they should develop to give Lindy a gridiron powerhouse.

The team was led by hard running Ken Cellan, George Reidner and Jack Kess and the ingenuity of Rich Hemminger. They were also boasted by a strong forward wall, with such stalwarts as Bill Spano, Ed Lundstedt and Dan Magee.

But J. V. success sails to bright horizons

The '54 edition of Lindy hoopsters started the season in an auspicious manner by knocking off Islip and Port Jefferson respectively A-1 and B-1 champions. However, they were handicapped by lack of experience in many of the games to follow. Ed Sheehan, the team captain and only senior in the starting line-up, teamed up with "Zeke" Gadzinski who kept things at an even keel for coach Ed Kienle's lads. The remaining starters were Dan McDonald, William Rieger and William Montalbano. These four juniors are expected to team up with such J.V. stars as Richard Hemin-dinger and Frank Nichols to give Lindy a perennial powerhouse in '55.

The mighty '54 Bulldog grapplers, had a glorious season, winning nine and losing only three. The losses came at the hands of Amityville, Mepham, and Bay Shore. Lindy proved itself by beating teams like Baldwin, Riverhead, Valley Stream and Garden City.

Mr. Victor, the new wrestling coach, won the confidence of the boys, and has helped to establish Lindy as a name to be respected in the wrestling circles. Outstanding figures among the grapplers were: Joe Quigley and Frank Bertino. Ray Ortler, Roger Cellan, Tom Krug, and Jack Keller were other dependable veterans.

Next year the Bulldog grapplers will count heavily upon returning veterans George Reidner, Wally Lanaham, Ken Cellan, Larry Klumas, Ed Garcia and Ray Young.

Track competition this past year was one of stiff competition. The team was led by the well seasoned veterans but had great help from the newcomers.

The high point getters were: Paul Adler, Roger Cellan, Lou Kubat and Ray Ortler. Newcomers in to put on a good performance were: Adam Gadzinski, Henry Monperler and Ken Cellan. These boys should be the foundation of teams to come.

The mile was run this year by Paul Adler. Roger Cellan and Lou Kubat performed in the weights. Ray Ortler, a broad jumper, also was one of the top runners.

baseball season with successful turnout

The Lindy Varsity Baseball team started the season with five returning veterans, these being Andrew Anselmo, 3rd base; Robert Allar, 1st base; Gene Gelke, center field; Ray Dominguez, left field; Ed Sheehan, pitching; Ronald Hammel, handling the catching. The rest of the team was rounded out by William Montalbano, shortstop; James Karika, 2nd base; Herman Whitmyer, right field. The remainder of the mound staff was rounded out by Donald Wesly and Louis Capuano. The latter two will spell Lindy's diamond hopes in the future.

The J. V. Baseball team completed a very successful season. The team had a very large turnout and displayed themselves admirably against such teams as Huntington, Amityville, Babylon and a host of others.

The Frosh Gridmen turned out an impressive three-two record this past season. Northport handed them their first defeat of the season, winning by a score of 20-0. The second defeat came at the end of the season when Bethpage beat Lindenhurst by a close score of 7-0.

The Frosh Basketball team, led by Mr. Gunthrope, ended the season in utter defeat. Although they were backed by such players as Joe Pugh and Joe Marubio, the team seemed to lack the zest that was needed to win.

Mr. Murphy's Grapplers had a better than average season. They lost two matches, tied one and won four. One of the losses came at the hands of Mephram, and the other loss was to White Plains by one point.

Outstanding wrestlers were Tom Quigley 103 and Don Knapp 136, who went through the season undefeated. These boys should become tremendous aids to the varsity in the future.

The untiring efforts of the Varsity Cheerleaders have helped boost the moral and spirit of our teams during the between games. Behind their leadership in cheering our teams on were many long hours of practice. Leading in the students' shout for Lindy this year were Nancy Harder, Joan Bier, Pat Sherrill, May Jane Wreith, Naomi Tupot, Lorraine Gelke, Norma Johnson and Joyce Tortorella. Joyce, a cheerleader for three years, was chosen as captain. Mrs. Sklar coached the vivacious eight.

The jayvee cheering squad, with their pep and vitality, promise to make an excellent varsity squad next year. Norma Harris, Gloria Seegot, Barbara Boehck, Pat Irene, Joyce Morahan and Pat White were the carefully chosen girls of the squad. Joyce Morahan captained the group.

For the second year, a Frosh cheering squad was selected to boost the Freshman teams.

Under the capable advisorship of Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood, the organization this year presented cartoons for children in order to raise funds. A duty assumed by all members is the taking care of the lost and found one period a day after school. Its officers are Raymond Ortler, President; Marilyn Maler, Vice President; Vivian Weissflog, Secretary; Andrew Anselmo, Treasurer.

In January, new members were taken into the organization. They are Beverly Landt, Queen Mary Arabian, Florence Arabian, Louis Kubat, Robert Joyce, William Diana, William Tafuri, Herman Klapproth, Sylvia Traversa, Janet Logan, Norma Johnsen, and Elaine Wild.

The Student-Faculty Organization is under the able supervision of Mr. Michel, Miss DeVey, Mr. Francis, and Mr. Jewell. Among their activities, the S.F.O. represented the students at the curfew hearing, organized a talent assembly, and took The Broadcast under its wing. Each month, the S.F.O. elects a "student of the month" who has been outstanding as a senior. President of this group is Vivian Weissflog; Vice-President, Joyce Tortorella; Recording Secretary, Elsie Brugos; Correspondent Secretary, Dennis Sullivan; and Treasurer, Sylvia Traversa.

The Broadcast and The Bulldog busied many

The Bulldog Staff had as its leader this year, Edmund Germann. Assisting him was co-editor Joyce Tortorella. The theme "Alma Mater" was originated at the first meeting of the group. The group started working immediately, thus making The Bulldog an immediate success.

Mr. Palmer Francis, industrial arts instructor, once again assumed the duties of faculty advisor. He has been an advisor of The Bulldog for four years.

To Elaine Stork and Al Dirskha time was of the essence.

The Broadcast Staff is one of the oldest organizations in Lindenhurst High School.

It successfully issues once a month its publication "The Broadcast."

This year it was taken under the wing of the Student-Faculty Organization. Under this arrangement a member of the S.F.O. would receive the paper free of charge while all others must pay fifteen cents per copy.

Clifford Mishkin was the Editor of the group and received the able assistance of co-editors Alice Heling and Alfred Dirshka.
