The Younger Years

Homecomings of the Past as we leave our Legacy.

Hard at work at preparation for the parade.

A Lindy Enthusiast.

Although we were new to the experience of Homecoming, as Freshmen we still did a fantastic job. The theme for this year was Hollywood Comes to Lindenhurst which we symbolized by a Pink Cadillac. Placing second in the float competition, right behind the Senior Class, made us extremely proud.

In our Sophomore year we teamed up with the freshman class to teach them the ropes of building a great float. The theme was Broadway Plays and our float, Peter Pan, took second place.

As Juniors in 1995 we helped Lindenhurst celebrate its 125th birthday by building a gigantic birthday cake. As a result, we won the class float competition. This year we brought back the old tradition of a Homecoming Dance. All the hard work paid off when the dance was a success. Everyone enjoyed the opportunity to dance the night away surrounded by Lindy pride. Before the dance ended, the entire Homecoming court had been crowned.

WELCOME TO MINNEAPOLIS

Marriott
CITY CENTER

From November 14 to 16, 1996 five members of the National Honor Society Executive Board attended the 4th annual NHS Conference in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Those who participated were Kelly Tammone, Nick Pietris, Dan Hosey, Sue Burke, Amy Quigley, and co-advisor Barbara O'Donnell.

During the trip the main event was the conference. The students attended many workshops on character, scholarship, leadership, and service. The highlight of the Conference was receiving one of 10 national awards for outstanding community service. The chapter won for National Honor Society participation in "Safe Halloween."

Of course, while in Minneapolis everyone went to the famous Mall of America.

4th Annual NHS Conference

November 15 - 17, 1996

Marriott City Center Hotel, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Michelle Kamme and Ann McGrath were two of 1,650 student council leaders and student activity advisors that attended the 60th National Association of Student Councils (NASC) Conference June 22-26, 1996, at Fort Meade High School in Fort Meade, Florida.

With a theme of "Rays of Leadership" the national meeting included training sessions on leadership skills, effective communication, motivating other students, appreciating diversity, and effective student activity projects. The delegates heard such speakers as Debbi Fields of Mrs. Fields Cookies, and Pat Williams, general manager of the Orlando MAGIC.

While in Florida they, of course, visited Disney World and Sea World.

Because of the Conference, Michelle and Ann were able to bring home new ideas which they have been able to implement while in office in Student Council.

NYSASA

On November 23rd, 1996 four students and one teacher boarded a plane to attend the annual New York State Advisor Student Association (NYSASA) Conference in Buffalo, NY.

By exchanging ideas and attending Leadership workshops, our Student Council is one of the best around.

During the trip many exciting events occurred. Frank Cush was named the District Representative for 1996-1997.

Meghan Scharf was named the new District Advisor. Lee Pase Hiner was awarded the NYSASA District Advisor of the Year award. The Student Council was awarded for it's 3rd year in the Honor Council. Michelle Kamme was nominated for the Kristen Haver Memorial Scholarship Award. Congratulations to this year's Student Council and hopefully the tradition of excellence will continue in the years to come.

To The Class of 1997:

My sincerest congratulations on your graduation from Lindenhurst High School. I am extremely confident that we have provided you with a sound education. I believe that the education we have provided you has been sound if we have taught you how to learn. Through learning you become a better person; a person who understands that part of being brave is to fear. Learning shows us that the purpose of life is to do something that makes a difference. Unless you understand the importance of learning, the many experiences you have had at Lindenhurst High School and all we have taught you will be of no value. You are excellent models of the product that develops as a result of good families, a community supportive of education, dedicated teachers, and a truly outstanding school that will continue to meet the needs of all of its students.

I personally have enjoyed working with each and every one of you. I consider myself fortunate to have known you and for the knowledge I have gained from you. The class of 1997 has not only distinguished itself as an outstanding class, but has made this Principal extremely proud of you and thankful that he has had the opportunity to work with such wonderful people.

I hate to see all of you leave us but know that you must move on. In doing so, I wish you the best that life has to offer. Go out into the world and continue to give to yourself so that you can give to others. I will miss all of you. God Bless each of you.

Sincerely,

Frank M. Smith
Principal

Dear Classmates of 1997,

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate each of you. The class of '97 has an extreme amount of pride and honor which we have bestowed upon Lindenhurst High School throughout the last four years.

Together, our class made a difference. The class of '97 brought back many traditions and reached many goals. It is because of our strong sense of spirit and unity that our class was able to bring back a homecoming dance, organize class trips, raise considerable and record amounts of money, and create an incredible level of Lindy Pride. This is all due to the outstanding talents and qualities in each of us.

With my warmest regards I would like to say that it has been my privilege to serve as your Senior Class President. I wish nothing but prosperity and good fortune for your futures. You all should know that it took all of us to make the class of '97 what it is. The one thing each of us can leave here knowing is that we have left a great gift to Lindenhurst High School . . . A Legacy.

Warmest regards
Danielle Pauciullo

"You cannot clone a planet. Protect our Earth. It's the only one . . ."

Imaginary Distance
Memories of people lost,
Lost in your train of thought,
Skipping from one priority to the other,
Their distance from center enlarges.
Your time of day,
Not to give to them.
A feeling of astrangement,
Lingering in your heads,
A glance in your passing,
And one small thought on the other,
While lying on your beds.
Your old friends hold no water,
Just fond memories.
Cast aside like garbage,
Shed like a skin.
They are waste from your former life,
And play no role in your newfound destiny.

International Club

It's been a busy year for the International Clubs. They strived hard to outshine last year's activities during International Week in March. Besides furthering their cultural education, they have set up a cultural display by Library I, put out a successful cookbook, and had a fabulous International Banquet. The night featured not only multicultural cuisine, but masks sold by the Italian Club. It was a real fiesta for all.

Coach Schnatz Nets First V-Ball Playoffs

by Seanglenn Kearney
 The Boys Volleyball team got off to a slow start this season dropping 1 and 3 after losing five-game matches to both East and West Hampton. The team re-dedicated itself and reaffirmed its goal of qualifying for the Suffolk County Playoffs.

Led by senior co-captains Michael Jordan and Danny Cuozzo, the Dawgs proceeded to win four out of their next five games including a strong win against Northport to bring their record to 5 and 4. In spite of a serious injury to junior co-captain Derek Springer, the team was able to maintain the intensity and hold a record of 8 and 6 coming down to the last four games. Thanks to much improved setting of Anthony Kline who averaged 24 assists per match, and the hustling defense of Ryan Brennan and Chris Turtell the Dawgs finished on a 3-1 run soundly defeating the #4 seed Commack in four games. The outstanding serving and defensive play of Sean Milito, Kevin Kozub, Kevin Leary and Seanglenn Kearney allowed the Lindenhurst Boys Volleyball Team to win its first ever Suffolk County Playoff Game at home. This was a first for coach Schnatz. The Dawgs finished a strong seventh but were eliminated in the quarter-finals by #2 seed Half Hollow Hills. The coaches are looking forward to next season when the returning 6 players are joined by several strong J.V. players to continue the success which the 1996 team started.

Michael Jordan, co-captain, led the team to County Playoffs. Leading in a total of 230 kills with a hitting percentage of 53.1%, he earned All-League and All-County as a third year varsity player and second year as a starter, a great achievement from All-League last year. His career high is 23 kills against West Hampton and has 46 digs throughout the season. Along with Danny Cuozzo, he was selected to the All Tournament Team. After graduation, Jordan plans to play volleyball at Sacred Heart University in Division I under Coach Scott Carter.

Congratulations-

- Mike Jordan - Team MVP-All-League/All County
- Danny Cuozzo - Mr. Offense-All-League
- Anthony Kline - Most Improved-All-League Honorable Mention
- Derek Springer - All-League Honorable Mention
- Ryan Brennan - Mr. Defense

After the first play off game against Half-Hollow Hills, the Lady Dawgs won 1-0 with Lisa Baldwin scoring the only goal in the game. Great defense was played by Angela Coangelo, Renee Eger, Allison Santino, Helen Skowron, and Eleni Theodorou. Liz Daniels did an outstanding job in net. The offense was a success with Lisa Baldwin, Kristen Ford, Barbara Simmons, and Eleni Theodorou.

Unfortunately, the second playoff game against Sachem wasn't as successful as the first. The score was 5-1 with the only goal scored by Lisa Baldwin.

Congratulations to Lisa Baldwin and Vicky Bergs for making All-County. Other honorable mentions are All-League: Renee Eger, Allison Santino, and Eleni Theodorou. The awards were given out on November 25 at 7:00 pm at the Smithtown Sheraton.

Harding, Balicki Kick Dawgs Into Playoffs

By Kelly Ann Menke

This was an exceptional year for the Boys Varsity Soccer Team. It was also the last for Captains Brian Harding and Martin Balicki, and also Goalie James Skanlon, Striker Saverio Ciancotta and Defensive back Willy Kazinierzczyk.

The team improved greatly from last year. Their record this year was 11-4. They also made the playoffs. In the first round they had to play Sachem, always a power, to whom they lost.

This large improvement can be largely accredited to Paul May, the coach of the summer league, which many of the players attended. Paul May is a Lindy graduate who played soccer here, then attended Fairleigh Dickenson University on a full scholarship. He now donates some of his time to help improve our program.

It is also the last year for Head Coach, Mr. Kuplen. Also coaching this year was Mr. Lullo who states, "This year was great! The guys worked well together and I look forward to next year for the team will be larger."

The team was lead by captains Martin Balicki, Brian Harding and Steven McAllister who were great emotional leaders. The MVP's of the year were Martin Balicki and Brian Harding.

All-Conference honors were earned by Ricky Campana and Brian Harding, All-League by Martin Balicki. Overall the Boy's Varsity Soccer team had an exceptional year and we all look forward to next year.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

Girls Varsity Volleyball, playing in the highly competitive Fall Season, finished 3rd in League I. This was the best finish for the Bulldogs in the last 5 years. Coach Sam Moxon emphasized teamwork and conditioning, and was proud to have five young ladies designated All-Stars: Kelly Sullivan, Nicole Buscema, Kristy Eiring, Christina Miller, and Theresa LoMonaco.

Girls JV Volleyball was a young squad, composed of 12 freshmen and 4 sophomores. Coach Donna Garziano taught the girls commitment and communication as keys to success and built her program around that. As confidence increased, the girls demonstrated improved play and teamwork. This year the squad gained tournament experience by competing in the Smithtown Classic, where they placed 8th and caused major upsets with their tenacious play. The coach is counting on Colleen Atkinson and Rebecca Iraci to lead this young team in the future.

The coaches and athletes would like to thank the parents and community members of the Bulldog Brigade for their continued support of the Athletic Program. Their continued attention to doing what's best for their children is greatly appreciated by all.

LINDENHURST HIGH SCHOOL'S
FIELD HOCKEY, BOYS VOLLEYBALL, AND BOYS AND GIRLS SOCCER
MAKE 1996 SUFFOLK COUNTY PLAYOFFS

Lindenhurst High School made headlines this Fall when four Varsity teams qualified for the Suffolk County Playoffs. Forty-five athletes were designated All Stars in their respective sports, and over 125 received Scholar-Athlete recognition.

FIELD HOCKEY

Qualifying for the playoffs for the second consecutive year was Varsity Field Hockey, under the direction of Coach Pat Jansen. The team finished 4th out of 11 teams, and recorded a 1-0 overtime win in the 1st round of the playoffs.

Among the highlights of the season were a 1-0 win vs. top-ranked Babylon and a great effort against Long Island Champion, Centereach, holding them scoreless for 56½ minutes. Outstanding players included Tammie Smith, Erin O'Connor, Vicki Davidson, Carolyn Schutz, Shannon Speed, and Heather Partridge.

Coach Elyse Romano's Girls JV Field Hockey Team had a successful season, reaching or surpassing many team and individual goals. Over half the team was comprised of rookies, but worked hard to learn and improve field hockey skills everyday. Outstanding players included Mary O'Connor, Kristen Dreyer, Maggie Bopp, and Sara Freund.

GYMNASTICS

Varsity Gymnastics finished with a 6-1 record in League Three. Despite losing Senior All-Leaguers, Diana Silvio, Tracy Harrington, and Kristin Finnigan next year, there will be a strong nucleus of All-Arounds and underclasswomen to carry on. Other outstanding gymnasts include Erika Kalt, Meghan DeMayo, and Gillian Thomas. Coaches Marissa Wharry and Amanda Balz were pleased with the team and personal best scores, excellent sportsmanship, and dedication to the sport demonstrated by all.

GOLF

Charles Valentine debuted as the Varsity Golf Coach, starting up the team after a one year hiatus. Though limited in experienced golfers, many boys came out for the squad and worked to improve individual scores. This growing interest in Golf will pay off in the next few years, as golfers Chris Feizinger and Billy Scotti follow the leadership of Seniors Charles Farenkopf and Frank Donato.

BOYS VOLLEYBALL

Boys Varsity Volleyball was the most successful in Lindy's history, earning a spot in the Suffolk County Playoffs. Coach Ken Schnatz called on senior co-captains Derek Springer, Mike Jordan and Danny Cuozzo to lead the squad. Thanks to the setting of Anthony Kline, the hustling defense of Ryan Brenna and Chris Turtell, and the consistent play of Sean Milito, Kevin Kozub, Kevin Leary and Seanglenn Kearney, the DAWCS played tough ball all season. In the Playoffs, the boys defeated East Hampton in the first round, before losing to eventual County Champion Half Hollow Hills in the quarter-finals.

JV Boys Volleyball finished the season with an overall record of 7-8. Coach Doug Read viewed the season as an overall success, due to the increased skill level of individual players against some of the most competitive teams in the league. Highlights included victories over perennial powerhouses Half Hollow Hills, Shoreham Wading-River, and Commack. Led by co-captains Adam Gwaltney and Eric Johnston, the team closed out the season with a 4 game winning streak.

CROSS COUNTRY

Varsity Cross Country, under Coach Mark Stott, was the only Coed Fall Team, although boys compete against boys and girls vs girls in league play. Dan Hosey led the squad, winning medals at each Invitational and being named to the 3rd All-County Team. Sophomore Phil Huffken garnered All-League honors for this young squad.

CHEERLEADING

The Cheerleading Squads worked hard to promote cheer spirit and support all the Football Teams. Varsity, led by Coach Michelle Corcoran and Captains Daneille Parmentier, Danielle Pauciuolo, and Andrea Vardaro, consisted of 15 dedicated and enthusiastic girls. They created and executed extremely difficult Pep Rally cheers, dances and stunts.

The team has worked together since July, reflecting synchronized performances at games and student activities. The squad will continue practicing during the upcoming months, learning new routines and competing in Island-wide competitions.

JV Cheerleading under Coach Angela DeStefano, rose to a mid-season challenge of choreographing routines with a reduced squad. This enthusiastic group developed routines and cheers that were appreciated by all.

TENNIS

This year's Girls' Varsity Tennis Team displayed outstanding skill. Three year veterans Barbara Slovak, Kristen Bucaria, and Kerri Kleiner improved several levels from past play, and 9th graders Emily Mangano and Kristin Drummond added youthful desire and enthusiasm. Coach Debi Bonanduci challenged the girls to work hard to improve individual and team performances, and to continue this effort in the off-season.

Coach Peter Costa's JV Girls Tennis Team enjoyed participation, self-improvement, and personal growth as the true rewards of this season. Each player worked daily to improve their groundstrokes, and dedicated themselves to commitment, teamwork, and enjoyment of the game.

SWIMMING AND DIVING

The Girls Swimming and Diving Team, led by Coaches Diane Grice and Tom Cornelia, produced outstanding performances by every team member. Almost half the squad was comprised of 9th graders, who put in as much effort as their older teammates. Ending with a 10-2 record, this team was led by All-Leaguers Denise Pagliarulo, Danielle Hearn, Lisa Bender, Michelle Kamme, Alexis Gibbons, Crystal Cody, and Alaina Tutrone. Denise Pagliarulo also won the "Lester Schloen, Jr. Memorial Award", given by the Suffolk County Officials for the best performance in the county by a first year diver.

GIRLS SOCCER

Girls Varsity Soccer again made playoffs, the sixth straight year this has occurred. Coaches Tony Byrne and Pete Guglieri led the team to a 7-6-1 record. The team made it to the Quarterfinals before losing to perennial powerhouse Sachem.

The highlight of the season was the game against Northport, which up to the game against Lindenhurst, had not been beaten or scored upon. Lindy held the eventual State A Champion to a scoreless tie, a definite moral victory. Outstanding players included All-County selections Vicky Bergs and Lisa Baldwin, and All-Leaguers Renee Eger, Allison Santino, and Eleni Theodorou.

JV Girls Soccer, directed by Kelly Magliaro, showed remarkable grit, determination and team play, despite not having enough girls to field the squad last year. The girls learned to adapt quickly to competitive situations, and worked hard to improve personal skills.

FOOTBALL

For the 1996 season, Coach Richard Biancaniello scrambled his coaching staff, bringing three new faces to Varsity Football: John Rossillo, Nick Lombardo, and Richard Rogers. They led the team to 3-5 record in Division I, Suffolk County's toughest football division.

Highlights of the season included a last-play, last-second 21-20 victory over Central Islip, a 27-14 victory over Centereach, and a 14-6 Homecoming win over Commack. Two players, Kevin Abbamonte and Brett Rainer, received All-County Honors, while Thomas Matheos and Michael Tamburino were designated All-Division players.

JV Football, led by new coaches Ralph Ruggiero and Ron Frole, was delighted with the numbers of boys that came out this year. Although Varsity advanced a few boys, the JV squad played tough, gritty football all season. Outstanding players included Vic Kelly, Chris Miller, Marty DeLorenzo, Jimmy Lee, Chris Burdick, and James Ciero.

Directed by Mike Canobbio and Ed Hayes, Freshman Football was an exciting team on offense, scoring 28 points in each of its first 5 games, and a stingy defense, allowing only 4 TD's all season. The team outscored its opponents, 168-60, in its first season competing as a Freshman team. Outstanding players included Rusher Michael Ortega, Blockers Ed Raiford and Joe Fischer, End Brad Kallman, and Mr. Versatility, George LaFlare.

BOYS SOCCER

Boys Varsity Soccer started off the season with a 4-0 record in non-league play. Coaches Richard Kuplen and Rick Lullo led this under-rated team to the Suffolk County Playoffs, finishing with an 11-5 record. Led by tri-captains Martin Balicki, Brian Harding, and Steve McAllister, this team put Lindy back on the soccer map and became the "talk of the county". Other outstanding players included Ricky Campana, Osin Whelan, Brian Belpanno and James Scanlan.

Tom Carro became the coach for the Boys JV Soccer Team in its return to action this year. 20 dedicated athletes came to the field each day with the desire to improve performance through pride, hard work, determination, and a total commitment to themselves and their teammates. The Bulldogs were repetitively recognized by coaches, officials, and opposing teams for their display of outstanding sportsmanship. The future looks

We're winning!

Don has a 210 average with a 279 sanctioned game. He is All-League and All-County.

BOYS SWIMMING AND DIVING

Coach Rich Ryan and Coach Tom Connelley were proud of the accomplishments of the 1996-1997 squad which captured the second undevoted League Championship in the team's history. Led by Captains Chris Walker, Philip Hoffken, and Michael Kamme, all undevoted, the team dominated their opponents and created a wave of given power for the future.

Brian Bivona, who was League Champion in the 100 freestyle, with a time of 51 seconds. Endurance freestyle, Philip Hoffken was League Champion in the 200 freestyle, and All League in the 500 freestyle, with an incredible time of 5:06.

Michael Kamme was League Champion in the 100 backstroke, breaking the minute mark at 59 seconds. "Ironman" Chris Walter made All League in the 100 breaststroke, and Chris Ratuszky joined Hoffken, Kamme and Bivona in the 4X100 freestyle relay.

COED BOWLING

After graduating 8 seniors last year, with only one starter returning, this was to be a rebuilding year for Varsity Bowling. All-County Don Perillo was to anchor the team as the only experienced bowler. However, Ed Splaine, Dave Talar, Mike Avanzato, Chris Ligon, All-League James DiMeglio, and eighth grader Jeremy Schaffer took to their roles with a great deal of heart, and proceeded to win the League I Championship.

Don Perillo received All-League, and All-County Honors, and represented Section XI at the State Finals in Rochester for the second straight year. During his four year career, Don broke all school records, including high average, high series, high game, and match points.

Coach Bob Slowey guided this superb team into the Conference I Tournament, and came away with a 2nd Place finish. In the Bulldogs first appearance in the County Tournament in 5 years, the team placed second among all teams. Congratulations to the Varsity Bowling team for a tremendous year.

WRESTLING

The Varsity and JV Wrestling teams, under the direction of Joe Russo, Tony Melosi and Ron Frolo, was young and inexperienced with only two seniors in the Varsity line-up. There was a good nucleus of Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors to develop and build.

MVP James Scanlan topped off a great season by earning both All-League and All-County honors, placing 4th in the County Tournament. Freshman sensation, Steve Scibistoff won his 1st League Championship, earning him All-League honors. Other All-League members included Senior Tri-Captains Joe Nguyen and Sav-erio Ciancotta, along with Freshman Carl Ficalora.

The team competed in 5 Tournaments throughout the year, and produced numerous tournament place winners. A productive season for gaining experience and learning new strategies, means the future is bright for Lindy Wrestlers.

CHEERLEADING

Varsity Cheerleaders, under the direction of Coach Michele Corcoran, began with something very new and exciting: five males on the team, making it the first Coed Cheerleading Squad in Lindenhurst's history. This resulted in a spirited attitude on the part of the female cheerleaders, who requested extra practices so they could learn new stunts with the boys.

WINTER SPORTS CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

Receiving valuable stunting tips from Patchoque (which qualified for the Nationals), motivated the Lindy squad to a sensational season. Cheering and performing at all Varsity Basketball games, the group wowed the audience with their skill, technique, and variety of cheers and stunts.

They also entered and placed 5th at the Long Island Cheerleading Association competition in February. Andrea Vardaro was selected a Long Island Cheerleading Association All-Star at the competition.

Coach Angela Deslano's JV Cheerleading Squad saw some new faces for the basketball season. The squad performed many intricate cheers and routines, captivating the crowd with their performance. Marissa Hillibrand and Kim Laterza were captains, providing positive and spirited leadership throughout the season.

Freshmen cheerleaders, comprised of 8th and 9th graders, cheer for both Middle School and High School Basketball Teams, in 2 seasons. Coach Anne Wishniak's girls showed confidence, enthusiasm, teamwork, and spirit in all performances, exulting the crowd to cheer for "their" team.

BOYS WINTER TRACK

Boys Winter Track, under the direction of Coach James Westphal and Coach George Smawley, demonstrated its growth from just two years ago, when Tamburino and Dan Hosoy led the squad by example, tenacity, and grit. Two athletes earned All-League Recognition, and the team took 5th place in a field of 9 teams at the County Championships.

Dan Hosoy, the team's MVP, has proved to be the foundation upon which the squad reestablished itself as a competitive team. He is among the fastest distance runners throughout Suffolk County. He holds the school record in both the 1600 Meter Run and 1000 Meter Run, and was selected All-League for the second consecutive year.

Mike Piro, also named an All-League, has mastered the art of winning the 55 Meter High Hurdles in two short seasons, establishing a new school record with a time of 8.2 seconds. Other outstanding runners included Stefan Hespeler, Mike Tamburino, and Nick Pietris.

GIRLS WINTER TRACK

Girls Winter Track, lead by Coaches Diane Grice and Carla Hammer, saw an increase in numbers from previous Austerity years. This led to an increase in spirit and camaraderie, and boosted morale of the participants.

Denise Lomonte dominated opponents in the 1500 Meter Racewalk, earning her All-League Honors. She finished 3rd in the League and was seeded 8th in the County. MVP Kristen Finazzo was an outstanding team leader and motivator, and participated in sprints, hurdles, and shot put.

Strong relays and individual performances in League competition led to many place winnings and medals. 11 of the athletes will return to form a strong nucleus for the future.

BOYS BASKETBALL

The Lindenhurst Boys Varsity Basketball proved why the effort and time put in during the off-season is so important, and has a direct impact on the type of team they become.

Coach John Albano and Coach Dan Atkinson saw the team get off to a 4-0 start, only to falter after a tough double overtime loss to equal its record at 4-4. This led

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Girls Varsity Basketball, under Coaches Ellen O'Donnell and Pat Peppard, showed marked improvement in a new Power-ranked League. It enabled the young players to gain confidence and work together for a common goal.

With all underclasswomen, this team played to a 9-9 season, often showing signs of brilliance, and at others, being inconsistent, but determined to succeed. Every girl contributed to the team, often providing the spark to turn a game around.

Outstanding players include MVP Vicky Berge, Guard Colleen Atkinson, and Most Improved Player, Allison Santino. Both Coaches and Players are excited about continuing the upward spiral of success in years to come.

The 1997 Girls JV Basketball team saw a new Coach, David Carlson, this year. The team's accomplishments can be best measured by its pursuit of both individual and team goals.

After each game, the girls would cite positive aspects and areas that needed improvement, then would set new goals for upcoming practices and games. This self-assessment enabled every girl to understand where and how she could develop into a capable and skilled player, and what was needed to move on in the program. Keep an eye on Allison LaMarca, Heather Stoll, Sara Gorman, and Marie Romeo in the future.

Lindenhurst High School is also proud to announce that 112 Winter Sport Athletes were named Scholar Athletes. This distinction is achieved by averaging 92 or over (Principal's List), 85 or over (Honor Roll), or 80 or over (Merit Roll). In addition, 13 All-League, 1 All-Division, 1 All-County, 1 All-State and State Team Champion, 2 NBA Sportsmanship Winners, and 1 LL

Cheerleading All-Star. Congratulations to all athletes, coaches and teams for this fine representation of Lindenhurst Athletics.

SOUL

Soul Quest is an enlightening experience in which you have the opportunity to change your mind, body, and soul for the better. It is the chance to understand and bond with your peers. You learn about and talk to people you ordinarily might not associate with. On Soul Quest you are encouraged to challenge yourself to reach for your full potential and to believe in something greater. Through Soul Quest, people learn to set goals and achieve them. You are inspired to reach for the light inside yourself and to keep it lit. On Soul Quest it is realized that everything in life, good or bad, has a purpose. You also know that it's not what happens . . . it's what you do that makes a difference. By the end of Soul Quest it is learned that trust and communication are the key to success.

We are the peerleaders of 1996-97. We are the owner of today's future. We hold the fate and ability to make or break this world in our hands.

As peerleaders we learned how each one of us are unique but also that we connect in one way or another, without effort. We learned all it takes is to be ourselves. We've seen for our own eyes none of us are better than another. We've seen how competition can hurt a person, and how communication will make one. A piece of angelic beauty was taken from each one of us, to combine as one, and we realize we are the angels sent from above. Sent to help guide one another by unconditional love, not to judge simply listen. We listen to one another. We hear our call. WE ARE THE PEERLEADERS OF 1996-97.

PEER LEADERSHIP

For the first time this year there were enough interested students that there are two classes instead of just one. Peer Leadership is a health class where you learn how to help yourself and to help each other. This is accomplished through discussion and problem solving. Each class attended many workshops to give them the necessary skills for working with their peers. The peer leaders and mentors assist other students in working out their problems in a non-violent manner. They also teach elementary students about self-esteem.

Peer Leaders: Kim Stephan, Jessica Craine, Amy Zanicrowsky, Jaunice Iglesias, Stephanie Gerbino, Teresa DeFalco, Nick Pancamo, Celeste Woods, Jackie Malone, Krysta Larocca, Jennifer Barr, Carin Pugh, Suzanne Burke, Corissa Aliani, Kristi Ruppert, Heather Nevins, Lisa Prete, Shannon Trude, Donna Vigilante, Brian Jablow, Eric Smyth, Donnie McNeilly, Merry Oislander through those "Peanut Butter & Jelly" times. (That's one time I'd like to forget.) I'll always remember the 1st day we became friends, the fun we had in Bio, the Legion parties, the walks to the park, Sister Christine & Sister Janine, and the soccer games. Thanks for all the great memories!!!! Jen, I'm so glad we became friends. Remember the b-ball games, the long talks on the phone, building the float, 30 pairs of shoes, prom worries, and all guys are losers. Just think, now we can look forward to better things. See you at Sacred Heart!!!! Keri, My Dowling buddy & field hockey captain. Thanks so much for being a great friend this year and listening to all my problems. I'm gonna miss you and I promise, I'll try not to worry too much. Have a blast in college!

The Senior Class Will of Richard Garwood

I, Richard Garwood, being of sound mind and really low on cash do hereby leave the following possessions in as little amount of words as possible. Katarzyna—2 yrs. Homeroom, and a few words: "czest" and "do'vidsenia" (I still don't know how to spell either of them right). Ana—Computer Science, y Buena Suerte en Espana. Sean—2 yrs. worth of lunch (or in your case chocolate milk and cookies). It was fun! Danny—political theory committee #2 for the #2 man at Lindy, and a copy of "Forest Gump". Christine—Costa's class and the trial there, and Cathy comics because you remind me so much of her (except for the red hair).

Jen—Study Hall (where I was able to do everything but study) and a big, big pie. Lynette—a "purple" heart (with black ribbon), this yearbook which despite popular belief was not created overnight by elves, and Driver's Ed car #1. (hopefully we'll have licenses soon) Adam—my six inch (lit) Christmas tree, Christmas caroling, the tobogganing adventure that never was, and Bio labs especially the Victory at Stony Brook!! (even though we messed almost every one of the others up somehow). Joy—(a.k.a. "Alegria") A 3 Musketeers bar (the SKET part), punch buggy GOLD x 2, the Mad Scientist's lab, movies, barbecues, parties, horseshoes, SPOONS, and "Bright and Early" car rides to school. Susan—A 3 Musketeers bar (the 3MU part), movies, bowling, Everlasting Confetti!!, Parent-Teacher Conference 9/95 (where we first met), a day at the beach, and a friendship unconquered by and invincible to all problems and conflicts that have come our way, an openness and trust that has made you my best friend in Lindy High . . . Class of '97 For all those who I have roamed the halls with, but never quite known as well "GOOD LUCK!!!!!!"

The Senior Class Will of Lynette Shaw

From Lynette Shaw: To Joy—a Christmas Carol song book, "see you at All-County", "Thanks for the car rides," To Rich—study hall, carpool, walking home, AP Bio test grades, "don't forget your mug" To Sue—I'm glad we became friends, thanks for all your support through the years. To Jen—my whistle, my clarinet, the CPR speech we've heard for the millionth time To Adam—"Don't worry, I know all the information about the play", "don't forget your mug", I'll remember dising band together To Kevin—a smile, my (paper) heart To Scanglen—hugs and kisses and good luck swimming next year To Brandon—Fellowship Club, pool class, swimming lessons To Dana—LifeSavers, the Ski Biscuit, a lifetime of memories and love To Danny—Pocahontas book, my printer, memories of Nightwatch, Lock-Ins, Canada, roller skating, and two great years together. Hugs and kisses and good luck in all you do. To Joe—after 11 conversations, green M&M's and red chair, many wonderful memories

The Senior Class Will of Celeste Woods

To my parents—Thanks for all the lovely support. I love you both very much and I'll always be your Cessy-Poo!! To my sister—You're the greatest, but use some common sense. Remember I'm coming back! To my papa—Since the first day you held me in your arms, I knew that we'd be close forever. You're the greatest and I love you with all my heart. To the Peerleaders of 1996-'97—Peace, Love, and Happiness. Thanks for the support and great friendships. To my Sweetheart—Thanks for the love & happiness that filled my empty heart. Keep up the positive attitude, but don't ever change. You're perfect just the way you are. Not birds, pigeons! Karen—You are a very special person. 11th grade wouldn't have been the same without you. Thanks for the advice and the laughs. Don't forget the Peanarites Posse. Christine—I'm glad we are good friends. Keep laughing and smiling. Remember to call me up to go shopping. Watch those curbs! John—Thanks for being a good friend. Hope you become a successful doctor. Don't use tape! To my best friend—You're like a sister to me not just a friend. I miss you very much, but you will always be close to my heart. Don't take life at "mock speed." To Roberta, Jen D., Amanda, Heather, Diane, Maria, Christina M., Itrat, and all my other friends, Thanks! I love you guys!

The Senior Class Will of Anthony Kline

I dread the days when we have to part, I think of you when you are not around, I dream of you, I miss you all the time, we have been through so much together and there is no one else I would rather be with. I love you so much, how much? So much. Amy: You are one of the most important people in my life, you are like the sister I never had. We have had so much fun together. Sorry for being stupid in tenth grade. Always remember: My bunny, leaving me in the car for an hour, azafata, promises, helping you with Mike problems, going to your recitals, stealing you things from motels, beating up your brother, playing jokes on Mike, helping with stupid girl problems, sleeping over, coffee cookies and cream, dragging you down the hall way, I hate you! Good luck next year at Marist, and make sure we always stay close or else I won't have someone to make fun of. Kamme: You are one of the most thoughtful, caring, but crazy people I have ever met. No one is better to talk to or listen to on the phone. Remember: Aids March, peer loser drop out, what a hottie!, Donny problems, making fun of my psycho girl friends, going to all of my basketball games, weird kids from Connetquot, crazy tips to Gread Adventure, staff parties, beating you up, LEFT adventures, Brian Regan, weird guys at the pool. No matter what you do you will always be successful, you are the only person I know that can do a thousand things at once, have fun at college and remember I get to live with Katie. Mom and Dad Despite all the trouble I give you guys, how many fights we get into, or how big a brat I am, love you guys so much and I appreciate all the things you have done for me. I know that every time you yell at me about getting off the phone or doing my work you only care. Thanks for your all support with basketball and school and helping me get through all the rough times. I love you guys so much and no one has better parents than you two.

The Senior Class Will of Jennifer Triolo

Heather: I leave you jungle fever, adventureland, JR and Caron, Spring trip '96 "Definitely" senior silk, Elmo my dog, Curly Sue, every Friday night in 5th grade, step sisters, french fries and chocolate shakes, broken disc (5th grade), colorguard, Toy Story Parade, Hoopnanny, left turns, fire, cookie dough, good girls, shared guys Kelly: I leave you crayons, Kevin, key club convention, Upstate, candy bags, big guys, my phone number, a better friendship, Olive Garden (loud mouths and Kristen's birthday) Katie Daly's, Pool hall, plaid shorts and white hats, Shannon falling off the risers Katrina I leave you Red Camaro's little brother, teal eyes, a drawer underneath my t.v., a toothbrush, 9 weeks at my house, a big phone bill, Caroline (Joe) John Katrina I leave you on the water Dea: I leave you spring trip, airbrushed T-shirts, "definitely" 3 lanes go, go, go, EXIT Bear, Le Mis. The Senior Class Will of Melissa Goodenough

To Jessica, I leave you Excuse me are you looking for a dog? Baabot! I'm light on my feet. New Years Eve '96 Woolworths, rock sisters, Whats wrong with you? I don't know. My legs are on fire. To Nikole, I leave you, you better not be smoking down there. To Taryn, I leave you three years in social studies and one year in math. To Jen, I leave you my oreco cookies and the days sleeping on the bus. To Chris, I leave you the honor of being your sister. To Jenny, I leave you mouse food and three years in high school together. Spoiled Brat sweatshirt. To Maria, I leave you Jimmy (ha! ha!) To Angelo, I leave you my silliness my love my life. To Mom, I leave you your victorian sinkroom. (the one you don't have) To Christine, I leave you the movies (the bottles are rolling down the parking lot) Sunday shopping.

The Senior Class Will of Heather Maher

Andrew Kremer—You were my "First True Love," and I LOVE YOU. You'll always be in my heart! Thanks for the memories that we've shared together. I MISS YOU SO MUCH (10-27-95) Love Heather To my #1 BEST FRIEND (my mom)—I love you so much. I want to thank you for "EVERYTHING" that you have done for me. What would I do without you! Love Heather To my Wild & Crazy Friends—We made it I can't believe it's over! Thanks for making my high school years the best ever. I LUF YOU ALL! Love Barbie (Heather)

The Senior Class Will of Victor Brown

1. Suzanne Steinis, Can you please come back here so I can talk to you—DING!! love always Vic Brown 2. Nick Pancamo, I'm glad your over that "Reggin" thing, good luck in college, V.B. 3. Stephanie Quarto, Hail! King Arthur long live the king, Cha-cha-cha-cha! never change doll love Vic Brown 4. Missy B—, Never forget, midnight "donkey rides & White-girl" and KINDERCARTEN FOREVER, Always remember me, love always and forever Victor A. Brown 5. Missy Lai, Can you do that girly stance please? Oh! And I want my English notes and my "Thundercats" movie back NOW!!! Love Vic B. 6. Lindy Drumline, thanks guys for 5 years of mental and physical abuse, thanks for the memories. V.B. 7. Katerina Kormas, can we still do things after school ro do I have to wait for the next play to start. Vic Brown 8. Christine Marzovilla, don't think you'll pass any tests w/out me being around. love Vic B. 9. Jenn Murphy—thanks for all the rides to school and for being a really good friend. love Vic B. 10. Heather Nevins, show me how that dance step goes? College girls have better buns, go get 'um. Vic B. 11. Jen Danylchuk, RING!! Jen are you in the shower? Steamy, hot phone calls in the shower A.A.F.—Vic B. 12. Kevin Abbamonte—I'm glad we became friends . . . but your still just a dumb jock, just kidding—Vic B. 13. Corissa Aliani—I'm not really grumpy, you're just way too happy. Good luck—Vic B. 14. Mike Tamburino—your short so I'd watch my step, you could get tripped in a hallway, jock strap. Vic B. 15. Brian Long—don't you want any coffee before you leave? Oh! And I really am the nicest senior. good luck Vic Brown 16. To my homeroom—The word of the day is . . . "GRADUATION" good luck in the future guys and gals. Victor Brown

The Senior Class Will of Melissa Scott

Missy Lai—To my favorite next door neighbor, I leave you my brown striped tank top and my pink striped t-shirt. I forgot, you already have them. Jennie Barr—the worst sleepover, the trampoline, a funnel, a secret trip to the city, the jr. prom, planning it, freestyle, JINGLE BALL, old friends, the Babysitters Club, new friends, friends that came between us, fights, unfortunately too many fights, and a butterfly—a purple one—that's what I leave you Michelle—What do you mean???? Debralee—I leave you our handshake, big hair, the nerd herd. "On My Own", the bogus talent show, the train tracks, the town pools, how many times did we save little Nicole from being stuck in the trunk of someone's car? when you crashed the car "I know how to drive", my butt hurts, summer school, I could go on forever (with the exception of one bad memory between you and me—the jr. prom, I'm sorry) Mackie—Old loud cars, Ace Ventura, Clueless, broken bottles, girls who don't understand what it means when a guy says "no, I already have a girlfriend". I still wonder if they actually say that at all, going out to dinner, our boyfriends, following our boyfriends, Blockbuster, the jr. prom, a lie, my white shirt, football games, and glitter. These things make me think of you and when you're a famous model, I can say I knew you when. Little Nicole—Though there are so many things I could leave for you, these four sum up your life as I've known it—a pop-tart, sneakers you can walk in, a pack of butts, and the perfect guy.

For the Record

Diana Banana—I remember your mom waiting for us outside Little Venice, our first trip to the Limelight, the cleaners, taking out our vans when we weren't supposed to, our parents were the only ones to trust their kids alone while they were away! Parties at my house, co-ed sleepovers, when I almost walked home from the club in the Hamptons, I would be so poor if I wrote all the things we've done. You know you're one of my best friends and I love you. Tina—I guess I could like the things that we've done and leave them for you to remember, but there are just two things that I think you need to remember as you graduate life 1) there are people that are always there for you, like your family. Jay, and your true friends—I leave you my friendship, 2) no more tears (like the shampoo)—I leave you a smile. Love You Tiner Maureen—There's so much! Cheerleading, co-ed sleepovers, "party at Missy's", stolen cars, stolen boyfriends, toilet papering, sneaking out, getting caught, we broke the window, climbing down the roof, the Lion King, they wouldn't let us see each other, freestyle "Baby, I love you so", your dad's house, we were so sneaky, roller blades, taco smell, Pennsylvania, I can't even name half the things we've done. I know I made you calm, you made me strong. DANIEL, I'll never forget how you felt, or how it broke my heart. My bestest friend, we smush well, like PB & J. Lee—the first time I met you at my house, summer nights, we walked everywhere, the town pool, the train tracks, the pull out couch, the dining room floor, Scamus, Mortal Kombat, handball, the Hospital, you waited at the corner for me to come home, I waited forever for you to stop fooling around no one knew the truth, so much talk, Ricki's house, so many girls that got in my way (no names), by the fire house 10-18-95, parties, jealousy, the Limelight, the city, the back yard, freestyle, block parties, how many different cars we've driven, the year-round sleepover, Great Adventure, Florida, Disney World, your face on the plane, your face all the time—I love it. We've come so far. There's no way I can write all my feelings and memories of you. MY FRIEND! I love you and there's only one thing I can leave you—my heart.

The Senior Class Will of Denise Novosad

Teresa Roley DeFalco, Tide, cow poopies upstate, SILENT BUT DEADLY, Talent Shows, Road Beef, Mr. Goodie Bars, Bucky Beavers Teen Mag, Chase for Mr. Softee, YO BABY POP!, NKOTB Z-100, Jordan and Donnie, 7-11 slurpies and 10¢ candy Corissa Rissa Aliani, 7-11 night walks, Paradise by the dash board light, Chicken man, Sweet Hollow accident, Salt-n-Peppa SHOOPI!, wanna be rappers Shannon Smannon Smith, BUSHWICK! T-s car, we went to Malibu, parties at your house, my trunk, "It's all coming back to me now", 7-11 dude, Will my car go over 15 mph?, SKY, CLOUDS THE BLUE MONSTA LIVES ON!! PAUCIULLO, Corissa's sleepovers, stripping, New Years, Prom HELL-BUS, Erika-FULU Kalt, WYNEHAMMA!, shopping in your closet, BUSHWICK, T's car, where's P,—he flew out the window!, "What is love?" PARMENTIER, sorry about the stitches, French class, Apples and Juice, Birthday countdowns Maria, Sorry for running over Gino's place of death, 6th grade dedications Patrick Inzina, all the love in the world You have been the best teacher yet MoM, All of the knowledge and strength you gave me 1 million times its power YOUR BABY'S ALL GROWN UP!!!!

The Senior Class Will of Susan A. Miller

This is Susan A. Miller, speaking from beyond the walls of Lindy Senior High. This is the end, beautiful friend. No safety or surprise, the end. To Joy remember the beach, countless Chaminade dances, Friday nights playing Spoons, Darth Vapor, and the mighty Blue Wonder. Keep your eyes on the road, your hands upon the wheel. We're going to the roadhouse, we're gonna have a real good time. Let it roll baby roll. My darling Ricky I am going to keep by heart the memory of pool games, "mental" club, our chairs in NHS, halloween and our pudding mustaches, particle man with Lynette, never ever getting any phone calls, and please burn that Nike sweatshirt! Nothing to lose and nothing to prove. I will remember numerous hours slaving over the yearbook with Lynette. How's Jo? Can you picture what will be? So limitless and free. Dan! Fourth period Junior year, the endless plate of pasta, and looseleaf. Lots and lots of looseleaf! Steph, my media buddy, remember all those Doors edits, Flora, tormenting Deluca. I think you're the same as me, we'll see things they'll never see. You and I are gonna live forever! To Deluca, my therapist and mentor, I leave all my video equipment and all my unfilmed storyboards. I leave the Video Club in your hands too. Vini Vidi Video! Did you have a good world when you died? Enough to base a movie on? To Roberts, Kelly & Heather, the Breakfast Club, I'll miss our lunches and Deluca screaming at us to work. To my coworker and fellow slave Erica (and former slave Melanie) take the library... please! I leave you guys all my shelf-reading, Beeper #2, the toys, and all those SCREAMING kids. Finally, NO ONE gets my leather jacket. I'll be wearing it when they stick me in the ground and I'll be wearing it when I come back. C-ya.

The Senior Class Will of Shannon Trude

FELICIA—cow lollipops, rides to the beach, Friendly's bathroom, dipping, town, J&D, sneaking out, being lazy, "Felicia go down the hole" JOANNE—play people, Wizard of Oz, Spag's class, Mr. Henderson, valium, AP Chem, "Jo-ane" TROCCHIO—many lacrosse days, Moses, failing math, homeroom, "BAR-BE-CUE" MICHELLE—German, Brady Bunch, Jo-han, Smashing Pumpkins, St. Patrick's Day, Taco Bell, some Lacrosse, our first big fight and last JESSICA—short shorts, Penny's couches, Sterns, toilet papering, nude beach, hide and seek, puddle swimming, Lindy taxicabs, skiing, town—We'll always be best friends. Thanks for everything! PAUL—computer class, World Cafe, Chris's house, your clean closet, our secret spot, the Docks, BUSH, 4-wheeling, camping, Tanya, Nintendo, Katie Dalys, Romeo & Juliet, prom, Uncle Ed's, "Boo"—You'll always be in my heart. I love you. MARISSA—pig latin, time capsules, candy store, big water balloons, Gossip Girls, fighting at the rink, bed wetting, Aunt Ruthies basement, your first rollercoaster ride SHAWN—lacrosse, Saints, weirdo-Chris, soaping my hair, camping, visiting Kristy, 4-wheeling, wedgies KRISTY—Through all the fights and fun, I'm glad you're my sister. Thanks for being there and for all the memories. GRANDMA—Burger King, 7-eleven, sick days, Bingo, rip-offs, report cards, bowling, funnel cakes, signing permission slips—I appreciate all you've done. MOM—Since my first day you've been the biggest part of my life. Listing all our memories would be impossible. Thanks for being the best mother & I'll love you always.

The Senior Class Will of Monica Rengifo

Jason Cleland: Remember at Justivigs' and Smittys', fruitpunch, forties, spades, Smitty's toilet and his black bed, our favorite ninth grade girls, the best caravan with a killasystem, the S.S boots, my favorite songs "Its Party Time" and "I Need Love", our love Bitsy, fifth period, thanks alot for keeping all my secrets and for giving me the best advice ever always remember that I LOVE YOU!!!! (and your the best guy friend I ever had) Dannyboy, Remember I'll always beat you in spades, The knicks (Starks) is the best, oops the clutch dropped, remember that? LOVE YA!! M. Justivig: Hey baby, remember the parties at your house, in your room, the 2 phat posters that I bought you, remember that your house is my house and your mom is my mom. I loved having breakfast, lunch, and dinner at your house. Love you and mom always! Vicky: Remember the times we hung out together, at Fun Zone, oops can't remember anymore. Twentybird, the LexusLimo, the dinosaur Licalotapus, Kenny your babe, and my lovestories. Thanks for everything you have done for me and my family. LOVE YOU ALWAYS!!! Liam: You stole my heart!! Love ya! Micah: HOLY S—!! Cheryl: Remember CheryI DON'T LEAVE ME GIRL! Let's go "it's party time" at Smitty's. All of the times riding around in my Porsche. Wait, who pays this time? Me or You? Hey wanna go smoke a but? All of our crazy, but sad love encounters. Bally's, Babish, Eric, Chris, I feel like taking a walk around the track and then being totally embarrassed. OH MY GOD THERE'S MIKE, Playing handball and making all the old people wait! Matt wanna PLAY with us? O.k. now rotate. Let's have a beer, oh and I'll take the toilet with me just in case! Take a penny, leave a penny. Those great freshman girls. LOVE YOU ALWAYS! Bitsy: Remember Santa's boot, oh and don't forget nugget! LOVA YA! Miky Schauer: How's your nose? I love you anyway!

To the Class of 1997

Well you did it! It has been a long four years but you are now ready to move on to bigger and better things. We have seen you all grow from awkward little kids to strong young adults and we must say the transformation was amazing. Please know that you all have a special place in our hearts forever and you will all be missed.

Thank you for allowing us to be a part of your High School lives and rest assured that you will always be a part of Lindy.

Love Always,
Ms. Wolter and Mr. V
