Another turning point, a fork stuck in the road
Time grabs you by the wrist, directs you where to go
So make the best of this test, and don't ask why
It's not a question, you've learned in time
It's something you can't see, but in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life
So take the pictures, frames in your mind
Hang it on a string, and good time
Tattoos of memories, on trial
For what it's worth, the while
It's something you can't see, but in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life
It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life.

It's not a question, but a lesson learned in time
It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life
So take the photographs, and stillframes in your mind
Hang it on a shelf of good health and good time
Tattoos of memories and dead skin on trial

Larger than Life

Every time we're down
You can make it right
And that makes you larger than life

All of your time spent keeps us alive

All you people can't you see, can't you see
How your love's affecting our reality
Every time we're down
You can make it right
And that makes you larger than life

Happy Days

"Shiny Happy People"

LEFT 99

What was thought to be a simple trip to eastern Long Island, in reality became a journey of new friendships and eternal memories. We stepped on the bus as thirty-five individuals and came home as one family. Waking up to Mr. Paseltiner making "the sun rise early," spending nights under the stars, playing "Directional Death Game" (orienteering) and learning about the history of Long Island were all a part of our days at Peconic Dunes. Explaining the environment, as well as ourselves we pushed and challenged each other. Some conquered the fear of kayaking while others conquered the fear of opening up.

Although we "LEFT" early this experience is something everyone who attended can never forget. I hear and I forget, I see and I remember, I do and I understand.

Fun Facts Learned on LEFT

- 1 — Lefties always go left.
- 2 — Watch out for alligators.
- 3 — Boxers are meant for flag poles and speedos are awesome in red.
- 4 — Wet toilet paper and water balloons can cause rumbles.
- 5 — Ms. Stevenson can't control herself at night.
- 6 — Teresa, Stephanie, Frank and Jordan LOVE marshmallows!

● RED MEAT!!!

—Jeannette Huber—

"Even though our trip was cut short we still had enough time to become one big "LEFTIE" family."
—Alaina Tutrone

And who said they didn't feed us at LEFT. It sure wasn't Allison LaMarca. I guess the health food wasn't so bad. —
Ryan Lynch

Mike Sofolarides keeps digging for water. Mr. P. didn't bring enough.

"Smile"
Alright ...
Alright ...

When you wake up in the evening and the day is shot
Find yourself complaining 'bout the things yo ain't got Never crossed just the way that you wanted it to

Clichè of the day, cest la vie that's just life
It ain't easy, It's so tough, It ain't easy

Put a smile on your face
Make the world a better place
Put a smile on your face
(Whatcha wanna do, say whatcha gonna do)

And another thing
You can say that I'm a dreamer and you think it's uncool
Preaching 'bout the better life I learned in school

But you get what you give in this life that we live
And all that you do come back to you

Yo,
When things isn't right there's no need to fight
Come on be nice

No need to fight
Stay polite even when you're hurting don't forget to smile
Give love to (?)

When you do good you'll get your reward
United with undivided we fall
Put a smile on your face and greet one and all

Put a smile on your face
Make the world a better place
Put a smile on your face
(Whatcha wanna do, say whatcha gonna do)

People love you when you smile
And hate you when it's through
Lots of happiness

We are wishing you
If you come from Jamaica or Honolulu, yeah

Keep a smile on your face
I'll see the good that you do

Put a smile on your face
Make the world a better place
Put a smile on your face
(Whatcha wanna do, say whatcha gonna do)

Smile (smile)
And everything will be fine ...

Mike Worgul and Katie Dorr —
Have you seen them move?
When it comes to dancing,
These two are pretty smooth.

Lisa Arpino & and Jared Dowd
These two smile a lot
but with a picture perfect smile,
There is nothing wrong with that.

There's something about Mary,
And Carl and Chris,
Their simply irresistible eyes
Are very hard to miss.

Who can play that funky music
Let me take a guess
How about John Cutolo and that girl Rogers,
Who's first name is Bess.

Justin and Burger
always cause a riot
because they just simply can never be quiet.

Together they are King and Queen
Of the track, field, and scoreboard.

I have an intelligent question,
However, the answer may not be smart
But what is art, are we art?
Or is Joey Sullivan and Jen Vitale art?

In our school
In the rotunda you can find
Class Clowns: George and Beth,
If you can't find them, you must be blind.

High School Administrators

Mr. Frank Smith
Principal

To The Class of 2000:

Your graduation from Lindenhurst Senior High School represents a "passing through." Your four years of high school were years of structure and direction. As you leave us you enter an unstructured world and you now must find your own direction. You are moving from a period of security to a period of confusion. However, I am greatly impressed with your academic accomplishments, the level of your involvement in the school community, and the sophistication by which you address the world.

The education that we have provided you here has been sound if we have taught you how to learn. Through learning you become a better person; a person who understands that part of being brave is to fear. Learning shows us that the purpose of life is to do something that makes a difference. You are excellent models of the product that develops as a result of good families, a community supportive of education, dedicated teachers, and a truly outstanding school that will continue to meet the needs of all students.

As you move on, we, of course, wish you the best that life has to offer. From our association, I have learned many things from you and consider myself fortunate to have known each of you. Thank you for all you have contributed to Lindenhurst High School. Go out into the world and continue to give to yourself so that you can give to others. God bless each of you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Frank M. Smith". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.

Dear Class of 2000:

What a joy to have the class of 2000 as my first graduating class as an Assistant Principal. I have loved every minute spent with each of you these past three years. Together, we have shared moments of joy, laughter and at times tears. I'm sure you know just how much I will miss all of you. You have made my life richer from being a part of your high school career. You are destined for success. You have my love and support as you make your mark in our society.

Good Luck

"MAY ALL YOUR DREAMS BECOME A REALITY"

It is time to empty out our lockers and say goodbye to the walls of Lindenhurst High School. It's time to say goodbye to our teachers and our friends. It's time to say goodbye to all the times spent together, all the jokes, all the laughs, and all the tears. It's time to say goodbye to the old, and welcome the future.

*Dear Class of 2000,
Treasure all the memories, and "cherish your visions and your dreams, as they are the children of your soul and the blueprints of your ultimate achievements."*

“Onward and Upward”

By: Jamie Lynn Ryan

*As our high school days draw to a close,
We reflect upon the past four years.
Did we accomplish all of our dreams and goals?
Are we now prepared to face our fears?*

*Our futures lay down the road ahead
With twists and turns along the way.
Who knows where we may come to tread
As life presents us with each new day.*

*“Ever onward and upward”, someone once said,
“But what’s the hurry?” I’ve often asked.
“Let us seize the day and the moment instead
As, before we know it, the time will pass.”*

*So, as graduation beckons our way,
Let us savor the time which remains.
We may all reunite again one day
Though, of course, some things will have changed.*

*Who knows what tomorrow holds in store ...
Who knows what troubles we may hit ...
The only thing which we know for sure
Is that life is what you make of it.*

*Our futures lay down the road ahead
With twists and turns along the way.
Who knows where we may come to tread
As life presents us with each new day.*

world events

▲ Russian President Boris Yeltsin shocked the world by resigning on New Year's Eve. He handed the reigns of power to Prime Minister Vladimir Putin. In one of his first acts as President, Putin gave Yeltsin bodyguards, a pension, and immunity from prosecution.

▲ Alaska Airline Flight 261 crashed 11 miles off Point Mugu, California on January 31. All 88 people on board were killed.

▲ School violence continued to be a major concern. Since February of 1997, school shooting sprees left 36 dead and 77 wounded.

▲ Elian Gonzalez, a six-year-old refugee from Cuba was rescued after the boat carrying him and his mother went down in the Atlantic Ocean. Elian's mother drowned on their journey and a huge controversy erupted over whether the boy should be allowed to stay in the United States with relatives, or returned to his father in Cuba.

▲ Six firefighters were killed in a December 3, Worcester, Massachusetts blaze started by squatters in a warehouse. More than 15,000 firefighters from all over the world gathered for a memorial service.

▲ Russia came under international scrutiny for waging a civil war to try to hold on to the break-away republic of Chechnya. After months of fierce fighting neither side gained much ground, and a settlement seemed nowhere in sight.

▲ Raisa Gorbachev, former first lady of the Soviet Union, died after a battle with leukemia.

▲ Ninety-year old Doris Haddock, also known as "Granny D," walked 3,000 miles across the U.S. to draw attention to campaign finance reform.

▲ Greek deputy foreign minister Yiannos Kranidiotis was killed after the plane he was traveling in suddenly lost altitude on its way to Romania. Kranidiotis and his son were both reported dead.

▲ Switzerland's Bertrand Piccard and Britain's Brian Jones travelled around the world in a balloon on a 20-day, 29,000 mile voyage. This was the first voyage of its kind to make it all the way around the world.

▲ "America's son" John F. Kennedy Jr., his wife Carolyn Bessette and her sister Lauren Bessette were killed when the plane John was piloting crashed into the ocean off the coast of Massachusetts.

▲ The San Diego Zoo was home to Hua Mei, the first surviving giant panda to be born in a North American zoo.

▲ Over 17,000 people were killed and thousands more injured when a magnitude 7.4 earthquake hit Izmit, Turkey on August 17.

▲ Suspected serial killer Rafael Resendez-Ramirez surrendered to authorities after more than three weeks on the FBI's Ten Most Wanted list. He was wanted in connection with eight murders along railroad tracks in Illinois, Kentucky, and Texas.

▲ The last solar eclipse of the century drew thousands of spectators around the world on August 11. A shadow cast by the moon turned day to night for those in a seventy mile wide path from England to India.

▲ The rain from Hurricane Floyd caused the worst flooding in North Carolina in recent memory. Water from the Tar and Neuse rivers covered 66 counties, destroying over 4,000 homes and killing 51 people.

▲ George W. Bush took the essential states he needed on "Super Tuesday" to win the Republican nomination for president, beating out John McCain. ▼
