I still can recall

I've loved them all*

NEIL LEDERER

LINDA FLANNELLY
DANIEL GIORDANO

Assistant Principals

Dear Students:

It has been a great pleasure for me to return to Lindenhurst High School after eight years and to have a senior class as responsible and mature as you have been. I have asked much of you to serve as role models and leaders for our underclassmen. You have responded in a manner that makes me proud to be your Principal.

I have greatly admired your maturity, integrity, and the manner in which you have met your responsibilities. As role models for our underclassmen, you have set examples and standards for others to meet that will only enhance our school. I have thoroughly enjoyed your presence in our school and have benefited from our interaction.

The challenging and demanding academic course of study you have taken has prepared you well for your future studies. The lessons learned here will be applied as you continue your education and pursue career opportunities. As you depart our classrooms, always remember the effort you made to succeed and continue to strive for excellence.

You have achieved much and I am quite confident you will be most successful in your future endeavors. Never lose your ambition and spirit, as it has left an indelible mark on our school.

As a class and individually, you will be missed. You brought life and stability to our great school and for that I am most grateful. I wish you much success and good fortune in the future. Enjoy your achievement.

Sincerely,

Neil Lederer
Principal

12th Grade Assistant Principal Mr. Dan Giordano

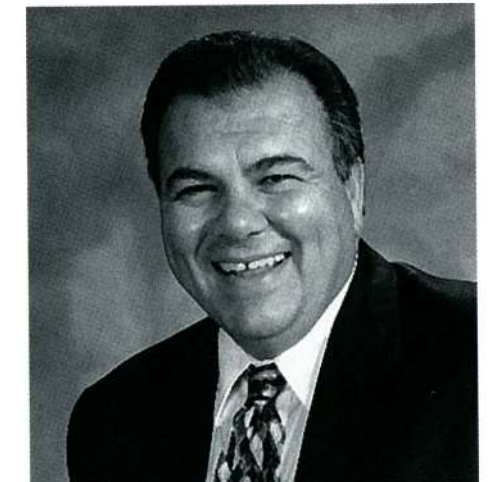

Dear Class of 2001:

Even though I have been your grade principal for such a short time, I feel that I have had an opportunity to be involved with many of my senior students through Honor Society, Student Council, and Peer Leadership as well as many other clubs and activities. As we end this school year and I reflect on all of this, I realize what a wonderful group of young men and women I have had the privilege to work with. I truly wish each and every one of you happiness and success in all of your future endeavors.

In the springtime of our lives we saw each

Season as an eternity, every experience filled us with wonder.

Our life was an endless summer where we looked forward to each Birthday and couldn't wait til the first day of school.

We'll never forget the places we went nor the people we met. Every fall brought a new year, new teachers, and new friends.

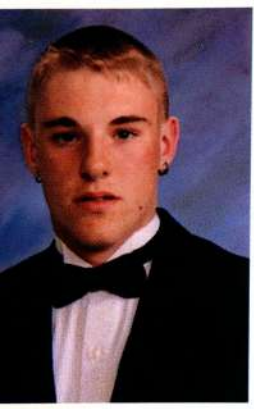

Together we worked and played to make each year the best

And now as our year comes to a close we are heading out to start a new season but we'll never forget our past

Throughout our four years at Lindenhurst, Mr. Gosline has become more than just a teacher to many Seniors, he has become a friend and a role model. A Lindenhurst graduate himself, Mr. Gosline truly knows what it means to be part of Lindenhurst High School and to personify the true spirit of being a "Lindy Bulldog". Thanks Mr. Gosline for all that you have done for us. You will always be part of our memories of Lindenhurst High School.

The past four years have been amazing. I will never forget all of the pep rallies, homecomings (especially all those floats!!), class wars, proms, and so much more. What made the time even better was that I was able to spend it with all of you. I wish you the best of luck in the future and know that your talents and abilities will take you to your dreams and beyond.

DARKNESS MASKS THE SCARS OF MY BROKEN, LONELY HEART.
THE PAIN CONTINUOUSLY RUNS THROUGH
MY MIND AS I PICK UP THE KNIFE
THE BLOOD SO WARM THAT RUNS THROUGH MY VEINS,
STARTS TO GUSH AND SQUIRT
ALL OVER MY SHIVERING HANDS
MY LIFE FLASHES BEFORE MY STONE COLD
EYES
A SINGLE TEAR DROPS FROM MY PALE
WHITE FACE.
I SMILE, STARING AT THE BLOOD ALL OVER
THE PLACE AND THEN LAUGH TO MYSELF
AS MY LUNGS COLLAPSE.
FOR WHAT A STUPID GIRL I WAS.
I COULD'VE GIVEN MYSELF ANOTHER CHANCE.
BUT NOW I MUST DIE IN MY OWN GUILT AND ACCEPT THE DEVIL'S DANCE.

10/6/00
KERA N STELLATO

Everything seemed perfect when we first met . It was hard to believe that it was even true . Every moment every second I thought of you . Before I knew it I loved you .

We were both filled with an unexplainable happiness that made us glow . Everything seemed to be going fine . Love became a power that only we knew of .

Two people with plans for life to people living for each other thats the only thing that we knew of . I was scared to think what could end our love . We ourselves so young and vulnerable .

I don't believe in falling out of love . I believe then it never really was love . Love means forever and for all eternity to bad for him he choose not to see .

Not knowing what lies ahead in our future not knowing which path to take until one day everything seemed empty and my heart slowly began to break and everything in my body seemed to ache .

The love that was there started to fade and my visions of us slowly wept away . There was nothing left for me to say .

I just knew I could not stay . I never thought the strength of our love could fall apart . But before I knew it you broke my heart

I guess it wasn't really love at all . a lesson learned a new day goes by . I guess all we were living is a lie .

I thought our love meant forever I thought that we were true
But before I knew it . There was no more of me loving you .

A Message from the Coach

To the nineteen graduating Seniors, thank you for the legacy you have left behind—winning 15 out of your last 20 games, two Big Four Championships, a Suffolk County Championship game, and many more memories to last a lifetime. You gave our community so much on and off the field, and we are proud. Most Especially, you carried yourselves with class and served as positive role models for all of our young student-athletes. Lastly, I give you the ultimate compliment... when things were toughest, YOU WERE ALWAYS BULLDOGS!

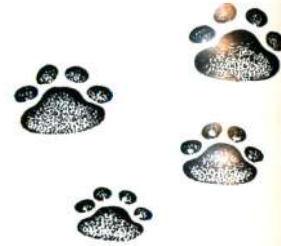

My Best Always,
Coach Biancaniello

To the Class of 2001-

You've finally reached the day that you have all been waiting for, Graduation. It is time now for you to leave the safe-haven of high school and head out on the new adventures that are awaiting you. Your destiny is what you make it and we have the utmost confidence in each of you that you will succeed.

As your advisors, we have been able to share with you some of your life's journey and for this we are honored. We hope you look back fondly at your time spent at Lindenhurst for all of you will always be remembered in our hearts.

Good Luck Class of 2001. Go out and fulfill your destinies whatever they may be and know you will always have a place at Lindenhurst.

"Once a Bulldog, always a Bulldog!"

Love,
Ms. Wolters
Mr. Gosline

Dear Class of 2001,

As I write this letter I am in the closet I call my office on the computer we were given by the yearbook company. My mind drifts back to Middle School and those of you I knew back then. Some from study hall or between classes, a few were stationed outside my classroom during open school night, some of you loved my riddles and puzzles that made you "Dazed and Confused". I had no way of knowing then that those were not the only years I would get to spend with you. Last year I came up to the high school in what could only be called unusual circumstances. I was warned that I might have difficulties being accepted coming in half way through the year, and knowing why my predecessor had left was, to say the least, foreboding. Yet when I arrived I found wonderful students in my classes and in the halls. Some of you had remembered me, and those who didn't were ready to accept me as if I was always there. You are very special and wonderful people, your love and caring is unending, your support of each other is undying, and your creativity knows no bounds. From the homecoming float to bands playing in someone's basement, from studying physics to playing Apples to Apples, from the first day we met till graduation where we will be saying good-bye, you have all been very special to me. As you move your journey from the halls of Lindenhurst to college, careers, and parenthood remember to bring these qualities to all that you do, remember those who helped you shape your life, and remember that Lindenhurst will always be home, and my door will always be open.

May Peace and Love Fill your Heart and Lives,

Mr. Michael C. Smith
Yearbook Advisor

P.S. Ms Wolters says good luck too! (The other Yearbook Advisor)

~*My Forever Friend*~

I remember how we used to talk all night
For hours and hours on end
We would laugh about our silly lives
And say, "Forever you're my friend"
That was our pact
We promised through and through
I hope you meant what you said
Because I cannot lose you

We would discuss the simple things in life
That seemed to mean so much
Like how he smiled from across the room
Or how you still could feel his touch

You are like my sister
In you I can confide
And I hope that ten years from now
You will still be by my side
You are my forever friend
From now until I die
And even then I'll love you
I cannot say goodbye

I am so afraid of losing you
That you may go away
That when I'm faced with saying goodbye
I don't know what to say
The words just don't come out right
They get mixed up in my head
And I walk away not knowing
What it was that I just said

I know this is a time for fun
Time to smile, laugh, and have fun
But I just cannot believe
That our childhood is done
We are starting a new journey
But this time it's alone
It's just not the same
Only talking to you on the phone
Our journeys have led to separate paths
Our lives are not the same
I sit and look sadly
At the faded picture in the frame

Tell me please what will change?
Will you still be my forever friend?
Or does going away to college
Mean it must all come to an end?
I don't know what to do now
My eyes are red with pain
I can't stop the tears from falling
Down like puddles of salty rain

My heart just keeps on aching
I am just so scared
You are the first person I found
That showed you really cared
You and I are like sisters
You are my forever friend
And I promise no matter where I go
Our forever friendship will never end

All Fatts' friends

And the class of 2001!!!

If we shadows have offended, Think but this,-- and all is mended,-- That you have but slumber'd here
While
these visions did appear. And this weak and idle theme,
No more yielding but a dream, Gentles, do not reprehend; If you pardon, we will mend. And, as I am an honest Puck, If we have unearned luck Now to scape
the serpent's tongue, We will make amens ere long;
Else the Puck a liar call; So, good night unto you all. Give me your hands, if we be friends And Robin shall restore amends.
