

Lindenhurst Bulldog 2002

Once upon a time...

To be happy, and forever,
You must see your wish come true.
Don't be careful, don't be clever.
When you see your wish, persue
It's a dangerous endeavor,
But the only thing to do--
Though it's fearful,
Though it's deep,
Though it's dark,
And though you may loose the path,
You mustn't stop,
You mustn't swerve,
You mustn't ponder,
You have to act!
When you know your wish,
If you want your wish,
You can have your wish,
But you can't just wish--
No, to get your wish
You go into the woods
Where nothing's clear,
Where witches, ghosts
and wolves appear

Into the woods
And through the fear
You have to take the journey.
Into the woods
And down the dell
In vain, perhaps
But who can tell?
Into the woods to lift the spell,
Into the woods to lose the longing.
Into the woods to have the child,
To wed the Prince,
To get the money,
To save the house,
To kill the wolf,
To find the father,
To conquer the kingdom,
To have, to wed,
To get, to save,
To kill, to keep,
To go to the Festival!
Into the woods,
Into the woods,
Into the woods,
Then OUT of the woods--

And happily ever after!!

Dear Seniors:

I want to congratulate all of you for reaching this milestone in your life. You have been a wonderful Senior Class, one I am proud represents our high school.

As you enter this new phase of your life, always remember the effort it took to reach the success you are now realizing. The responsibilities you accepted, the conscientiousness you demonstrated, and your dedication to learning are all characteristics that should be continued in your future endeavors.

Never stop striving for excellence and set goals for yourself that challenge your intellect and abilities. Have a vision for your future and dedicate yourself as you did at LindenHurst High School, to make your dreams become a reality.

We the faculty and staff, applaud your achievement and want you to know we are here to support your future efforts. As Alumni of our fine school, remember it with pride and continue to support it.

I wish you well in the years ahead and thank you for enriching my career by being a very positive presence in my life.

Congratulations and good fortune in the years ahead.

Sincerely yours,

Neil Lederer
Principal

GOOD SCHOOLS MAKE GOOD COMMUNITIES

In compliance with the provisions of Title IX, Educational Amendments of 1972, this District does not discriminate on the basis of sex in admission to or employment for educational programs or activities which it operates.

12th Grade Assistant Principal Mrs. Linda Flannely

It is hard to believe that it was four years ago that I stood before you and, meeting you for the first time, I announced that the next four years would fly. Little did I know, how quickly. As a class, you always made me proud. You stood out from the rest because of your character and courteousness. Individually, we had great laughs, shed a few tears, and leveled in your triumphs.

I am going to miss every single one of you, and wish you success in whichever path you choose in life. Recognize and remember- whatever you want to do or be in life, requires 1) that you envision actually doing that thing, and 2) identifying and eliminating those obstacles that come in the way of achieving that goal.

Cherish every day, carry with you the wonderful memories you have created for our school, and finally, know how extremely special and capable you are. Again, I am going to miss you so much!

11th Grade Assistant Principal Mrs. Regina Broten

To the class of 2002:

As you look to the future-go to school...
to read great literature,
to learn from history,
to appreciate the arts,
to plot the slope of a curve...
in short, to become well-rounded individuals.

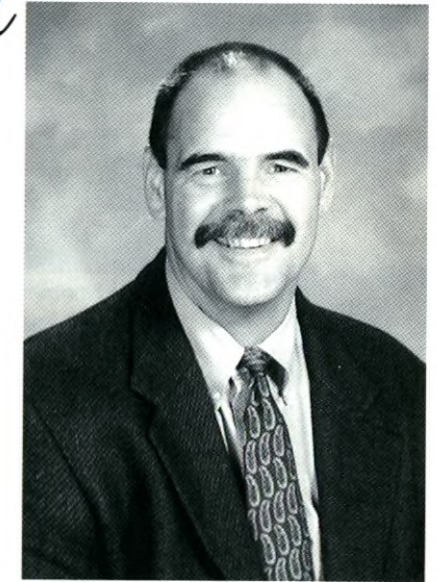

Congratulations and Best of Luck!

10th Grade Assistant Principal Mr. James Campbell

I have had the privilege of observing the Class of 2002 in a variety of situations: Sporting Events, Drama Productions, Musical Performances, Principal Breakfasts, Field Trips, Dances, and all types of Fundraising Activities.

I trust that you will all build upon the educational and social experiences that you have had at LindenHurst High School and create new dreams and goals for your future.

All the best to the Class of 2002.

9th Grade Assistant Principal Mr. Dan Giordano

To The Graduating Class of 2002:

As you are about to embark on the next phase of your life, I would like to take this opportunity to extend congratulations and best wishes to each and every one of you. Your contributions to our school have been many, and we appreciate all your efforts.

It is my sincere hope that you all will achieve success and happiness in your future. Good Luck!

2002 Class History

The year was 1984—for most of us, the beginning of our lives. Ghostbusters and Beverly Hills Cop came out that year, and “Round and Round” and “We’re Not Gonna Take It” were the number one songs.

On Wednesday, September 6, 1989, we came together as a class as we walked through the big doors of Albany, Alleghany, Daniel, E.W. Bower, Harding, William Rall and West Gates. We’d heard about this place called the kindergarten, but we now have backpacks, lunch boxes, cubby holes—and we had to go the whole day without seeing our parents. Luckily, we had gym, snack time, and recess to help us get through the day.

Our years in elementary school flew by. As we look back, those years are just a blur of dodge ball, the girls chasing the boys, “cooties”, and brunch for lunch. We participated in field day June of 1995, followed by our farewell dance. That summer went by quickly with much talk of our anticipated entrance into the Junior High. This was it...we reached the “big time”...or so we thought!

As we entered sixth grade in the fall of '95, for the first time the Class of 2002 was together. We realized we were...well nobodies in the Junior High. We had huge backpacks and were always running between periods. We looked up to the eighth graders with awe and imagined what it would be like when we were in eighth grade, and to be able to sit on the “block.”

Ninth grade soon approached. We finally had a title...“the freshmen” The morning of our first day of high school was a scary one. Wondering if there really was a pool on the third floor. We elected our 4-year consecutive president, Mandi Loiacono and decided to build our first float, being “Wheaties Breakfast of Champions.” Showing our effort in the float, we took third place.

Tenth grade was a different year...we had not title. We were no longer the little freshmen. Building our “San Francisco” float we once again received third place.

Junior year arrived with much excitement of building another float, ordering our rings, taking our senior pictures and the Prom filled everyone’s thoughts. Taking first place, beating the seniors, with our “Sea World” float, we were sure to thank Mr. Pramataris, Mr. Viggiano, Mr. Schroeder, and Ms. Scharf for their help. We then decided on our junior prom theme, being “These Are The Times” by Christina Aguilera. Walking away with the title of Prince and Princess were John Gorman and Nancy Schnatz. As the '00-'01 school year ended, we could see our highly anticipated senior year ahead.

As we entered this fall, many of us couldn’t believe we were already seniors. We had finally made it! We were the oldest and coolest kids in school. The yearbook was started. We built our final float, “Class of 2002 back to the 60’s.” We stayed out late the night before putting finishing touches on our float. Brittany McDonald and Steve Jilling were named King and Queen. To top off homecoming the Dawgs beat Newfield! College applications loomed over our heads and the realization that we were really seniors started to sink in.

On Saturday, June 22, the class of 2002 will join together for the last time. As you gaze around the football field you will see the familiar faces you have known. For the last thirteen years. A flood of memories suddenly will come back to you—of floats, Pep Rallies, Safe Halloween, Class Wars, hanging out in the bleachers, watching the Dawgs play, senior choice awards and our proms. As Mr. Lederer wishes us good luck, you realize that we are now ready for whatever lies ahead.

Congratulations Class of 2002

Kelly McNulty

What I Am

In wake of the September 11th tragedy, the student body of Lindenhurst showed their support for all of those that lost their lives and their loved ones and men and women who are our modern day heroes by dedicating their Pep Rally to them. As a school we came together for a sense of school spirit, as a nation we came together as Americans.

The Homecoming Parade 2001

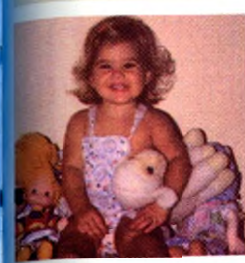

It was a beautiful day for a parade. All of the floats were lined up and the band was all warmed up, however, there was one small problem ... a bank robbery! News spread quickly through Fireman's Park and all we could do was sit and wait, and wait, and wait and wait. But finally after an hour delay and the okay from the Suffolk County Police Department we stepped off and had our parade. It was a little off course but it didn't dampen our spirits. Nothing stops a true Bulldog.

The Game

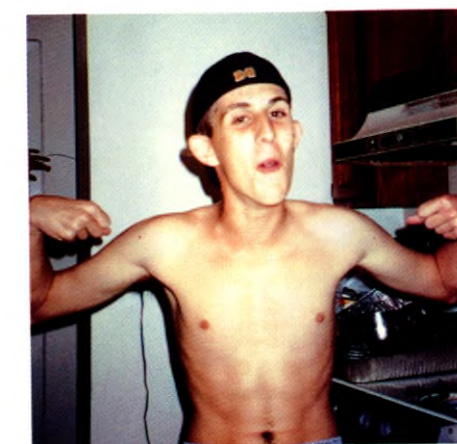

Lindy Beats Newfield

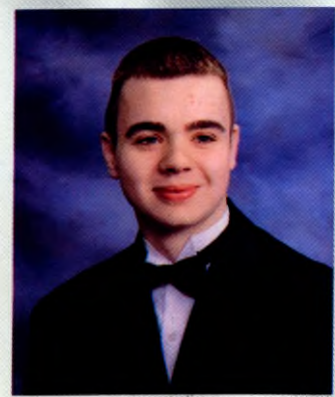

Once upon a time in the mystical Kingdom of Lindenhurst, there were heroes and heroines born. Prophecy foretold that these children would one day become great leaders and companions in the years to come.

As the years passed, these children grew into young men and women facing the world together. Through the dangers of the wilderness, and the terrors of the classroom, the brave adventurers held fast their fellowship. Even the horrors of a rampaging Mitch Barnett did not strike fear into the hearts of brave knights, such as Sir Danny of Cornwell (well...maybe a little fear).

"Stand firm for what you believe in until and unless logic and experience prove you wrong. Remember when the emperor looks naked the emperor is naked. The truth and a lie are not sort of the same thing, and there is no aspect, no facet, no moment of life that can't be improved with pizza."

-Daria Morgendorfer

"Somehow I can't believe there are any heights that can't be scaled by a man who knows the secret of making dreams come true. This special secret, it seems to me, can be summarized in four C's. They are Curiosity, Confidence, Courage, and Constancy, and the greatest of these is Confidence. When you believe a thing, believe all the way, implicitly and unquestionably."

Dear Fellow Classmates,

It is almost impossible to sum up in four short lines the joy, the pleasure, and the honor of being your class president for the past five years.

This student body is one of the most well-rounded, academic, and spirited classes to graduate in the past decade.

From floats to proms to graduation, this has all been a memorable experience that will never be forgotten.

Best Wishes,
Mandi Loiacono

VARSITY FOOTBALL

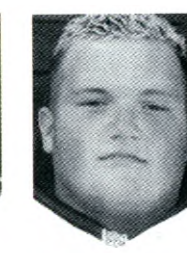

To Our Senior Varsity Football Players,

Congratulations on your outstanding performances on the football field in your high school careers. The coaches and I are extremely proud of your athletic achievements. More importantly, you have also carried yourselves well off the field. We all know that being a champion is a full-time job, and one that you accepted readily. We wish you all the best that life has to offer. Remember - always be a Bulldog!

In the creation of this yearbook we learned many things about life:

Some people will help you along
Some will throw obstacles in your path
Some take deadlines as a vague suggestion
Some will get things done before you ask ...
But most people sit idly by criticizing.

It is these last people you must overcome, not externally, but somewhere inside yourself. If you believe in what you are doing, if you focus on your hopes and dreams then you will soar above their puny world and make a new world of your own.

September 11th, 2001 ...Forever in our hearts

*A day no one wants to remember,
A day no one will ever forget...*

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner! O long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has wiped out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave:
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."
And the star-spangled banner forever shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

To the Class of 2002,

Thank you for making the past four years more than memorable. It has also been a pleasure and honor to watch you evolve from the young freshmen that you were to the fine young adults you are now. We hope you remember the times that you shared with your friends, families, and teachers. We congratulate all of your accomplishments and trust that you will always remember us as your teachers, advisors, and friends.

In closing, next September we will both be proud and saddened that you are not here. We will know that you have moved onto bigger and better aspirations yet we will miss you very much. We hope you remember that life has many ups and downs, but if you work hard you will achieve all your goals.

Best Wishes

Mr. Pramataris "P" Mr. Viggiano "V" & Ms. Scharf

Graduating Class of 2002,

Creating a scrapbook of memories for almost five hundred students is an undertaking we approach with a sense of honor. It allows us to get to know you all through the thousands of photos, not to mention all the people we got to meet as you handed in your money and photos past the deadlines. But all in all it was a great time putting it together. A special thanks has to go out to the yearbook staff and editors who spent many free periods hunting down people, who needed to get everything as perfect as possible despite the endless parade of obstacles without them, this story would have had a very unhappy ending.

Smith: The time has come for you to spread your wings and fly off to destinations still unknown. Your future lies before you like an open road beckoning you to see where it leads. Sometimes there will be traffic, occasionally you might get lost, but in the end it is the journey that mattered. Let this book be a grounding point, to remind you of who you were, and where you came from. Remember as you make your way through the twisting turning roads of adult life that you are always welcome to hand in one more picture to me past the deadline. I can't guarantee that I'll get it in the book, but I'd be more than happy to hear the story behind the picture.

Wolters: It is hard to believe that it was four years ago when many of you walked through the door of my classroom and started your high school years. You have all grown and matured into such wonderful individuals. You have become young men and women that are just beginning a wonderful journey towards a future so full of promise that you have no limits. Remember your time at Lindenhurst fondly and remember that your roots are here. You will always have a home here at Lindy. Once a Bulldog, Always a Bulldog.

*"When you're standing at the crossroads, don't know which path to choose,
let me come along, 'cause even if you're wrong,
I'll stand by you, I'll stand by you Won't let nobody hurt you, I'll stand by you."*

*You've made your whole family proud, LEEANNE!
We'll always support your dreams and ambitions.
Love, Mom and Dad*

Corrar

You have given me a lifetime of proud memories. Graduation is here and your life holds so much promise even more success. You are the future and I am one of your biggest fans. Always remember the magic of music and the songs from Charlotte's Web; words to live and love by. Embrace your dreams and goals and of course, keep drumming Jay. God bless you and the class of 2002.

Love Always, Mom
