A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;

A time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

To the Class of 2003:

My congratulations to you upon your graduation from Lindenhurst High School. As this is my first graduating class as Principal, I feel a special connection to each of you. You have achieved a good deal and have been a tremendous asset to our school. Your enthusiasm, support and leadership are qualities I will always remember.

You are now going out into the world. During the past 4 years, you have developed the skills necessary to learn and to make sound judgments. You will need these qualities to respond to the many problems that exist in this complex era. Never stop striving for excellence. Have a vision for the future and work to make it a reality. Set goals for yourselves that challenge your intellect and abilities.

I thank you for having contributed to our school and for helping a new High School Principal complete a year he will never forget. You have made my life richer from being a part of your high school career. I wish you the best in all your future endeavors. You are destined for success!

Sincerely,

Daniel E. Giordano
Principal

GOOD STUDENTS MAKE GOOD COMMUNITIES

12th Grade Assistant Principal

Mrs. Regina Broten

Dear Senior Class Of 2003,

Four years ago you entered the High School with a sense of wonder, excitement, trepidation and maybe a little fear. What will it be like? Will I get lost in the halls? Will my classes be difficult? Are the teachers hard? Will I be successful? Will I make new friends? Now, four years later each of you can sit back and say, "Yes, I have left a mark and an impression on the High School."

Each of you has grown, questioned, explored and achieved. I am proud of your accomplishments, appreciative of your talents and confident in your future. Your passion for life shows in everything you do. Follow your dreams and your heart. I am positive that each one of you can reach your goal along life's path as long as you give it your best shot.

I wish you the very best life has to offer. With your focus and intensity anything is within arm's reach. I will miss each of you. Watch out world, here comes the Class of 2003!

Our Younger Years

Time rushes by us so quickly. It seems as if it were yesterday that our lives were so carefree. Now, as we look back and appreciate just how much we miss those years we realize that we cannot return to those carefree days and truly appreciate just how wonderful they were.

"This is the time to Remember cause it will not last forever"

"I will remember you"

Our Early Teen Years.

And so we talked all night about the rest of our lives
 Where we're gonna be when we turn 25
 I keep thinking times will never change
 Keep on thinking things will always be the same
 And if you leave this year we won't be coming back
 No more hanging out cause we're on a different track
 And if you got something that you need to say
 You better say it right now cause you don't have another day
 Cause we're moving on and we can't slow down
 These memories are playing like a film without sound
 And I keep thinking of that night in June
 I didn't know much of love
 But it came too soon and there was me and you
 And then we got real blue
 Stay at home talking on the telephone
 We'd get so excited, we'd get so scared
 Laughing at our selves thinking life's not fair
 And this is how it feels ...
 As we go on, we remember
 All the times we had together
 And as our lives change, come whatever
 We will still be, friends forever

HOMECOMING 2002

In true Lindy style homecoming was a truly spirited event. The evening was hosted by an array of different people. Open remarks by our Principal, Mr. Giordano, set the tone for the entire night. He reminded us all of just how special it was to be part of Lindy and just how unique and spirited we all are as community. He then turned the microphone over to our announcer for the evening, the one, the only, and the voice of Kienley Field ... Ralph Wilkinson.

Hey Smith, I heard the bulldog last year got a kiss AND a song.

I NEED a KISS

Pucker up Ms Z.

This is my night — a bulldog kiss and 200 bucks!

A year after the events of 9-11, our sports teams, Student Council, the JROTC, Peer Leadership, faculty, staff, friends and family, took time out to reflect on those that were lost. We recognized those brave men and women that, without hesitation made the ultimate sacrifice to save the lives of so many others. Along with those heroes, we remembered those that were the truly innocent victims of those horrific events. As a community, we mourned the loss of our fallen and now, a year later, we as a community begin to heal the deep wounds we suffered. One day changed our lives forever and each day that we go on being proud to be an American is a tribute to the world that WE WILL NEVER FORGET.

I'm not sure how it happened, my memories begin with the eyes of the audience locked on me, and the sight of the curtain rising. Maybe that's not exactly what happened. But that's the way it should have happened, and that's the way I like to remember. And if dreams and memories sometimes get confused oh well ... That is as it should be, because every girl deserves to be a star ... Every girl already is ... —Katelyn Nicole Gleason

If you imagine it, you can achieve it. If you dream it, you can become it. It's all about your passion. Set yourself for success and anything is possible! Dance for yourself and no other. If they understand then great! If not, it's their loss just keep on doing what you love. Thank god that you are able to dance ... Remember there are those who cannot even walk. You have the power to create your own life and then go out and live it ... I danced from the moment I could stand. Did you? —Nicole Justine Karagrozis

Some people like to do shows and performances for attention and to show off But I do it because I love it, its my one chance to get away, to stop being me and become somebody else when I'm on that stage, and I don't know how my life would be if I didn't do what I do right now ... so my advice to you is to do what your heart body and soul tells you to do and don't ever let anybody stand in your way of your dreams, and in the end you will succeed. —Ralph Salvatore Coppola

Which two powers, love or music, can elevate man to the sublimest heights? Why separate them? They are the two wings of the soul. It's the Dreams that drive you to a place where the microphone sings the only song that makes sense, the song that sings ... Never give up on your dreams You can find me there! —Jamie Lee Royce

Somebody once said to me, Wow, you dance on Broadway! How fabulous! You got somewhere. You're something. And Christ, I get this feeling inside because I remember when I used to stand outside of that stage door and watch all these girls come out of there, with their eyelashes and their make-up and I'd think, God I'll never be that old. I'll never be old enough to come out of that stage door. But deep down inside I knew I would, I've come this far and I'm not giving up now. Throw me a rope to grab on to Help me to prove that I'm strong Give me the chance to look forward to saying Hey listen they're playing my song! Play me the music, give me the chance to come through all I ever needed was the music, and the mirror and the chance to dance for you. Won't forget, can't regret, what I did for love. —Tina Yvonne Himaya

Charles Street Times

Senior Editor wins Newsday Award

"I always wanted to try writing for the newspaper," senior Liz DiRico confided to her English teacher Mrs. Montefusco, who is also the adviser for The Charles Street Times.

That was in September, 2002. By October, Liz was named Sports Editor, and by March, she had a number of excellent articles published including an award winner. Newsday announced that Liz's article about Coach Biancaniello's 100th win from the November 2002 issue won a plaque for First Place in Sports Writing in their prestigious Scholastic Journalism Awards Competition. "After reading her first submission, I told her that she was a natural," said Mrs. Montefusco.

Other seniors on staff have also distinguished themselves. Michelle McQueen, a four year veteran of the Journalism class, has published numerous articles and displayed fine leadership abilities as Sports Editor ('01-'02) and as this year's Feature Editor. Not only does Michelle have a talent for researching, interviewing and writing her own pieces, she has proven invaluable in editing the work of others. Her dynamic personality served as a catalyst for the entire staff.

Ryan Curry, an assistant editor and a two year veteran, has made important contributions with his book and music reviews. His Op-Eds including, "Airport Security: Too Intrusive?" and the con position concerning the legalization of marijuana have been thought provoking. Derek LaBua first took Journalism two years ago and returned a year later. His contributions include articles on the new security guards, and chewing tobacco. Danielle Buccino ('03), wrote about recycling, and parent/teen relationships.

Scott Kearney is a freelance artist for the paper. His editorial cartoons, whether they poke fun at reality TV, or Saddam Hussein, are right on target. His talent and quick wit insure a bright future.

What the rest of the editorial board lack in years, they make up for in talent and experience. Editor-in-chief Jonathan Desimini is a born leader using his deceptively laid back manner to get the story, and the job, done.

Assistant editor Stephen Randazzo and News Editor Amanda Pearsall, also juniors and two year veterans of the class, form a powerhouse team combining computer expertise and writing prowess respectively.

Jonathan, Steve, and Amanda will be heading next year's Editorial Board to produce more award winning issues.

Award winning articles, a superior editorial board, and an enthusiastic staff have made this year's journalism students, "a pleasure to work with," said co-advisers Mr. Tracey and Mrs. Montefusco.

BYE BYE BIRDIE

To My Seniors,

Speaking for myself, and on behalf of all the Directors who've worked with you during your high school years, I'd like to thank the class of 2003 for four wonderful years and eight great shows. All of you will always be very special to me. This was a group with an incredible amount of talent and immense heart. Faced with adversity, you didn't whine or make excuses -- you dug in, worked even harder, persevered, overcame, and proved to everyone just how unique and talented you are. Words cannot express how proud I am of all of you and of what you've accomplished. The class of 2003 has demonstrated grace under pressure and true character. You will go on from here to do great things, to touch tomorrow in ways you can't yet know or dream of. Always remember our time together--the laughter, the tears, the hard work, and the applause -- and know that I will forever hold you in my heart, miss you, and love you.

THE COACHES

To Our Senior Football Players:

I welcome this opportunity to once more tell you how proud I am of you and what a joy it was to be your coach. It was no accident that we were Division I Champions and played in the Semi-finals of the Suffolk County Playoffs. YOU ARE THE REASON! Your character, work ethic, toughness, and unselfishness are models for our entire school community. You were champions on and off the field. You overcame every obstacle thrown your way. Most of all, you always did it with class!

It is also a bittersweet experience as I write this because I know I will never get to coach you again. However, I've been blessed in my role as your coach and I know it will be even better as we embark upon a lifetime of friendship. Remember:

- 1] I have your back.
- 2] Call collect.
- 3] Always be a Bulldog!

Love,

THE SEASON OF THE 100TH WIN

COACH BIANCANIELLO

THE ULTIMATE BULLDOG

BIANC—

Well what can I say; you are one of the most influential people ever to enter into my life. Since the day I met you, you have taught me to be more than just a football player, but also a man. I respect your integrity and most of all your honesty with the team and fellow coaches. I am glad that I got to hold onto the jersey for this season, and quarterback the dawgs' for 2 years. I will never forget playing at Kienle Field in front of the bulldog faithful, and just having a great time. Thank you for everything, and good luck next year in 2003.

#4 "Q"

Matthew Quigley

Dear Coach B,

Looking back, I know that these past two years will always be the most amazing years in my life. Even though mother nature ended our season early, you have given me absolutely everything I could have imagined from a high school football career. You have taught me so much about football, school, family, but most importantly life. You are one of the fiercest competitors I know but at the same time you are genuinely kind and have a "heart of gold". The one thing that I admire most about you is how you live your life according to a moral standards that is very hard to find these days. I not only look up to you for the way you coach and the way you teach, but the way you live your life as a whole. You have been my number one fan since the day I stepped on the field I have tried to make you proud. I am going to miss you immensely next year but I know I will take what you have given to me onto college and beyond. The most memorable moment in my career was not when I was given the Zellner Award or when I had the game winning sack last year, but when you gave me that hug as time expired in your milestone win against Floyd, 35-6. You were so modest about your accomplishments and tried to focus the attention on your players but you deserved all of it. Though our dream has been to make it to Hofstra, and we did not accomplish that this year, I truly feel like I went out on top. What you have given to me over these last two years is priceless and I love you for that. In my life, I hope to become half the man you are. You are a true role model and a true bulldog.

Love always,

Love always,

Mike Gervasio #65

Coach Biancaniello,

Throughout my 4 years in High School I have always looked up to you, and your teachings. You have been like a Second father to me showing me and teaching me the fundamentals of being an offensive lineman. Words will not express how much I admire you and respect you after all the years of hard work and sacrifice you put into Lindenhurst Football. I have played football all of my life, Bleed the Green of the Bulldog and I feel like you were not just my coach for 2 years, but rather for the entire 4 years of High School. Many, many memories have come out of practices and games, and I will never forget the times we have shared together. Without you I would not have "Believed" in the program, and would not have become the athlete I am today. I appreciate everything you have done for me. You are the definition of a True Bulldog.

Always A Bulldog,

To the Class of 2003,

As the year comes to a close, I realize how lucky I have been to have you as my first graduating class as an Advisor. I have loved every minute spent as your Advisor, from our freshman "Hollywood" Homecoming float, Ring Night, Junior Prom, to this exciting Senior Year! The past four years have been unforgettable, and the experience is one that has made my professional life richer in many ways. Just as we have tried to teach you responsibility, maturity and accountability, we have also learned something valuable from you; to enjoy ourselves in everything we do as long as the job gets done. I know you are all destined for success in different areas of life, whether in your future careers or your personal lives. You have my full support as you exit LHS and enter the real world to make your mark on society.

Sincerely,
"Z"
M. Zalewska

To The Class Of 2003,

It is hard to believe that your senior year, the year we wanted to last forever, has gone by so quickly. I can remember many of you as freshmen ready to take over the world and now as seniors, I see you as young men and women ready to face the challenges of the future. It has been wonderful being your advisor the past two years especially since you are my final class. My journey as advisor has come full circle and I cannot imagine a better way to end. I have enjoyed all of the time that we have spent together and that certainly has been a lot of time. We have laughed, we have cried, we have danced, we have talked and when you are gone, I will truly treasure these memories. You have all made an impact on my life and for this I am very grateful. My advice to you as you leave Lindenhurst is very simple ...

1. Laugh — a good laugh can make any day better.
2. Love — open your heart to those around you and let them know how you feel about them.
3. Learn — I just don't mean in school. Open yourself to the world around you every person you meet has something to offer you. Learn from them.
4. Legacy — all of you leave behind the impressions you have left on others. This is your legacy, you will be remembered as the remarkable people you are.

Good luck in all that you do. You all will be missed, and always remember ...

*"Welcome to the real world"
she said to me condescendingly
"take a seat, take your life plot it out in black and white"*

*well I never lived the dreams of the prom kings and the drama queens
I'd like to think the best of me is still hiding up my sleeve*

*they love to tell you "stay inside the lines"
but something's better on the other side*

*I want to run through the halls of my high school
I want to scream at the top of my lungs
I just found out there's no such thing as the real world just a lie you've got to rise above*

*so the good boys and girls take the so-called right track faded white hats grabbing credits, maybe transfers
they read all the books but they can't find the answers
all of our parents, they're getting older
I wonder if they've wished for anything better while in their memories, tiny tragedies*

*they love to tell you "stay inside the lines"
but something's better on the other side*

*I am invincible
I am invincible
I am invincible
as long as I'm alive*

*I just can't wait for my ten year reunion
I'm gonna bust down the double doors and when I stand on these tables before you you will know what all this time was for* “Draw a crazy picture,

Write a nutty poem,
Sing a mumble-gumble song,
Whistle through your comb.
Do a loony-goony dance
'Cross the kitchen floor,
Put something silly in the world
That ain't been there before.”
