

LET'S REMEMBER

All the times we spent together ...

As We Go On...

2005

Lindenhurst High School

300 Charles Street
Lindenhurst, New York

"Once a Bulldog, Always a Bulldog... Lindy Pride"

Will we think about tomorrow like we think about now?

Can we survive it out there? Can we make it somehow?

I guess I thought that this would never end.

And suddenly it's like we're women and men.

Will the past be a shadow that will follow us round?

Will these memories fade when I leave this town?

I keep thinking that it's not goodbye ...

Keep on thinking it's a time to fly

Charles Street Times

2004-2005 is a year of change for The Charles Street Times

If change is a good thing, the CST certainly has many good things to celebrate. Four seniors; two editors and two staff members are graduating and leaving behind a legacy of excellence. The paper lost one adviser to retirement, but gained a vibrant veteran from the English Department as a new adviser.

Bryan Burtner will be leaving behind Kristen Piering, his co-editor-in-chief when he heads off to his freshman year of college. Bryan joined the staff in 2003, and his superior writing ability and intelligence catapulted him to the editor-in-chief position very quickly. His thought provoking editorials and his news articles like the Dowling English student plagiarism scandal, have won him awards from brilliant and wonderful potential.

News Editor Brittany Evans has a bubbly personality, but watch out if you are a subject of one of her interviews. A three-year veteran of Journalism, Brittany knows how to ask the tough questions. Just read her article on the mold situation in the high school to get a taste of her style. But soft news is also a favorite for Brittany, especially when she's writing reviews about her favorite namesake, Britney Spears. Oops- Brittany (ours) will be missed...again, and again!

Andrew Conti joined the CST in his senior year, and the paper has benefited from his mature perspective. Andrew contributes great ideas to our class "brain storming" sessions. Andrew will be attending the University Mount St. Mary's in the fall, and we know that he will be an asset to that school.

Vitale Burov entered LHS and the Journalism class in December, 2004. A truly gifted artist, Vitale has drawn fabulous illustrations and intricate designs for every issue since his arrival. In the fall he plans to attend Nassau Community College, before transferring to School of Visual Arts. His drive and talent will probably make him famous some day, and his Journalism colleagues will be able to say, "We knew you when..."

After 33 years of teaching, and fourteen years as co-adviser of The Charles Street Times, Mrs. Yolanda Montefusco retired from Lindenhurst High School on December 1, 2004. During her tenure as adviser, the paper went from a cut and paste operation (literally typing articles on a typewriter, cutting them with scissors, and pasting them on graph paper) to the award winning, sophisticated, computer finished product it is today.

"While I enjoyed teaching all the students in my English and Creative Writing classes," said Mrs. Montefusco, "the Journalism class was always close to my heart. It is what teaching should be - learning while creating. I have great memories of all the staff members, and the editors-in-chief, especially those who went into careers involving journalism or writing. I'll always remember the Columbia trips, the awards ceremonies (loved those brownies at Newsday!), the controversies and, of course, the end of the year dinners."

Mrs. Montefusco credits the success of her experience, the Journalism program, and the paper to Mr. Mike Tracey, her team teacher and co-adviser. "His amazing energy and talent inspires the students to want to do their best. Our personalities meshed to form a truly unique teaching team. And we certainly had fun!"

Stepping into the vacated adviser and Journalism position is English teacher Mrs. Michelle Kannavos, a five-year veteran at LHS. "I am so pleased," said Mrs. Montefusco, "that the Journalism students will have Mrs. Kannavos's expertise, organization, and vivacity. I know I've left the journalists in good hands."

The Charles Street Times staff and advisers wish its graduates (including Mrs. M) an exciting future free of typos, misprints, and deadlines. May all your issues be happy ones.

Newsday, Columbia University, and the admiration of his readers. A National Merit Commended Scholarship Student, Bryan's self-deprecating smile belies his

Life is Bitter Sweet

In every dark tunnel there's a beam of white light
In every assurance there's a bit of doubt
In every attempt there's a risk or two
In every perfect possession there's a little imperfection
Sometimes those imperfections are what make things beautiful
Without any risk, your achievement doesn't make you feel as triumphant
Life is bitter sweet

In every courageous person there's a little fear
Inside every frozen heart there's a little bit of warmth
In every lost person there's a little bit of direction
In every impossible situation there's a little bit of possibility
Inside every villain there's a bit of hero
Life is bitter sweet

A crisis could be a blessing in disguise
When all is lost, have hope and patience
Good things will come in good time
Whether you cherish life or despise it
Remember this.....
Life is bitter sweet

Our proud accomplishments throughout this year..

The Tsunami Relief Fund provided the following organizations with $2,000 ea.

- Doctors without borders
- SurfAid International

Did you happen to see the pop-up teachers we made for the holidays?

Yeah, that was us!

Did you ever wonder about how information and events get promoted around our school? Most of the posters that you have seen around the school were made by us.

RISING STARS

Jeffery Taveras has participated in many musicals, including Fiddler on the Roof, Bye Bye Birdie, and Guys and Dolls as Nicely Nicely Johnson. He also attends the BOCES Cultural Arts Center for Voice. This year he was the Drum Major of the LHS MArching Band, leading them to the New York State Champs forr 2004. He was also slected to sing in the All-Eastern Choir, 2005.

Elizabeth Milana is an aspiring singer/actress who sings soprano. Since the age of twelve, she has performed in musicals such as Guys and Dolls, Peter Pan, Fiddler on the Roof, Bye Bye Birdie, starred as Rizzo in Grease, and recently, starred as Mrs. Evangeline Harcourt in Anything Goes. For the past four years, Elizabeth has participated in the select Concert Choir and also in the vocal jazz group, Odyssey. Elizabeth is the president of the Lindenhurst Thespian Club and is an active member of the Tri-M Music Honor Society. She has been taking private vocal lessons for the last five years and comes from a long line of performers.

Dear Seniors:

I want to congratulate all of you for reaching this milestone in your life. You have been a wonderful Senior Class, one I am proud represents our high school.

As you enter this new phase of your life, always remember the effort it took to reach the success you are now realizing. The responsibilities you accepted, the conscientiousness you demonstrated, and your dedication to learning are all characteristics that should be continued in your future endeavors.

Never stop striving for excellence and set goals for yourselves that challenge your intellect and abilities. Have a vision for your future and dedicate yourself as you did at Lindenhurst High School, to make your dreams become a reality.

We the faculty and staff, applaud your achievement and want you to know we are here to support your future efforts. As Alumni of our fine school, remember it with pride and continue to support it.

I wish you well in the years ahead and thank you for enriching my career by being a very positive presence in my life.

Congratulations and good fortune in the years ahead.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel Giordano
Principal

To The Class of 2005,

Congratulations on all of your accomplishments! It has been a pleasure and an honor to work with you during the past two years. You have made our first advisory experiences memorable ones.

Your futures all hold many adventures and endeavors. As you work to achieve your goals, we feel certain that each of you are ready to face these challenges.

Remember, you are each destined for your own successes and happiness. Reach for the stars Class of 2005- they belong to you!

Good Luck & Best Wishes,

To The Class of 2005:

I am so thankful that I have had the opportunity to know so many of you over the years. It was my pleasure to be your advisor your freshman and sophomore years. You have touched my life and have made my career so meaningful. I miss you all so much since I have been away, but I am so proud to hear of all of your accomplishments.

I wish you all the luck as you take the next steps in your life. Always believe in yourself and know that whatever your goals are can be reached. You all have the potential for success, just always believe in yourself. I will think of you often and always remember "my kids" fondly. I wish you happiness always!

Best of Luck,

Dear Graduates:

It is my pleasure to congratulate all of you on your graduation. You should be very proud of your accomplishment. For me, it has been a wonderful experience watching each of you grow into the fine young men and women you have become since our first meeting at the Middle School.

As you embark on this new phase of your life, always remember the importance of setting goals and working hard to achieve them. By striving to do the best job possible, you will be rewarded throughout life.

I extend my best wishes to each of you for success in all of your future endeavors, and I hope the years ahead will be happy and fulfilling ones!

Sincerely,

A decorative border surrounds the text. At the top center, there are three stars of varying sizes, with the largest one in the middle. The stars are surrounded by stylized, flowing ribbons that form a frame around the central text area. The ribbons have a wavy, ribbon-like appearance with some shading to give them a three-dimensional look.
