Class of 2012 ★

"If the World is ending, we're throwing the Party"
 - Sophomore Class Wars T-shirt Inspired by Cobra Starship

To the Class of 2012,

It is hard to flip through the channels without seeing some special on how the Mayans predicted that 2012 was going to be an important year, the end of their calendar, the completion of a major cycle. Whether you think it will be the end of the world, or a great celebration, or totally inconsequential, nonetheless a major change is happening. You are graduating, your high school world is coming to an end, it is the time of a great celebration, but much like the Mayans believed, this is not the last cycle, you have your whole life ahead of you... your new world starts today.

Looking back it seems like just yesterday you were freshmen, working on the Batman float, cheering at the Powder Puff games, and working on the hallways. Who can forget dancing on the sophomore float to "Dancing in the U.S.A." or the creepiest Halloween hallway to ever grace the halls of Lindenhurst Schools? Or as Juniors, meeting at Kubra's house over the summer to get a jumpstart on float? We may not have won the float, but come Halloween and the Holidays we came back and took first place from the till then dominant class of 2011!!! Who's in whose shadow now?!? This year, our senior year, we came together working the concession stand while working on float, and had a million laughs doing it! As we write this, we look forward to prom and seeing all of you there in your finest for the last official celebration of your High School career.

In the years to come, we wish you great success, love and happiness. We hope that you always do your best in everything you do, and continue to be a creator and a learner throughout your life. While we do not want you to dwell on your high school memories, we do hope you look back and fondly remember the time you spent with us, and the lessons we taught you. Know that wherever you go you bring our love and pride with you. So it is time, get the yearbook signed by all of your friends, classmates and teachers. Take as many pictures as you can, and Facebook friend all your classmates, and appreciate each other and the time you shared. No matter if you stay in Lindenhurst, or travel the world, you all share the same heritage, the same Lindy experience... and you will always be welcome home.

With great affection,

June, 2011

Dear Seniors:

As you reach this milestone in your lives I share with each one of you the feeling of pride in your accomplishments. You have been an enthusiastic, motivated, and academically oriented Senior Class, one I am proud represents our high school.

Upon your graduation you will enter a new phase of your life. I hope that you will have fond memories of the last four years. These were the years that you've cultivated friendships, had experiences and learned the things that have shaped the person you have become. The responsibilities you accepted, the conscientiousness you have shown, and your dedication to learning are all characteristics that should be continued in your future endeavors.

I am confident that you will go on into the future with the confidence to meet all the challenges that await you, that you will make decisions with the same intelligence compassion and integrity that you have demonstrated during your years at the High School, and that the vision and dreams you have for your future will become a reality.

On behalf of the faculty and staff I applaud your achievements and wish you success in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel E. Giordano
Principal

"GOOD SCHOOLS MAKE GOOD COMMUNITIES"

In compliance with the provisions of Title IX, Educational Amendments of 1972, this District does not discriminate on the basis of sex in admissions to or employment for educational programs or activities which it operates.

Mr. Frank Picozzi
Associate Principal

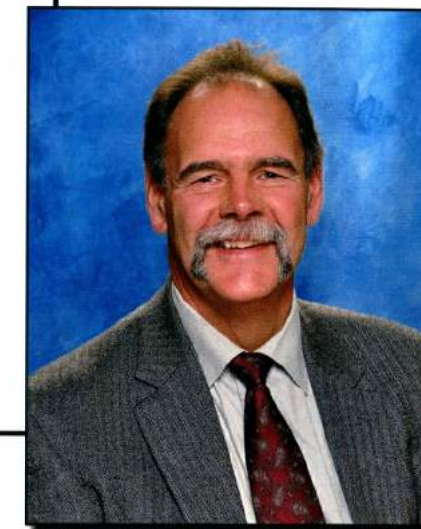

To the Class of 2012!

I have had the distinct pleasure of observing you grow academically, athletically, and socially since your entry into high school. I will cherish the time we have shared at athletic events, drama productions, musical performances, fundraising activities, Principal's breakfasts, and, of course, at all of the mediations conducted in my office. I trust that you will build upon the educational and social experiences that you have had here at LindenHurst high school. The instant you leave high school, you will have the opportunity to forge new friendships, create new goals, and visualize any and all of your dreams.

Your future is now. Whatever you choose to become, whichever road you decide to travel, whomever you choose to be with, are all questions that you will answer as your challenges are met and overcome.

I wish you only good fortune and success presently, and in your future.

Dear Class of 2012,

Along with the knowledge and memories that you have collected over these past four years, we hope that you carry with you the following two pieces of wisdom:

-Think about how a kind gesture or comment made you feel. Move it forward and you will make a tremendous difference in the world.

- Obstacles are the only things standing in the way of getting what you want in life. Identify what they are, and then move past them.

Lastly, go out and celebrate all that you have accomplished, and take on all of the excitement that life has to offer!

Congratulations and good luck!

Must we always teach our children with books?

Let them look at the mountains
and the stars above.

Let them look at the beauty of the waters

They will begin to think

Congratulations and all the best to the class of 2012!

On December 17, 1993, a cold sunny Friday morn,
 Our beautiful daughter, Briana Rose, was born.
 We fell in love right from the start,
 You certainly would make your mark.
 A big beautiful smile and quite the personality too,
 Animated, full of life, and a chatter box too.
 We watched in amazement as you grew.
 A lovely young lady you have become,
 Full of grace and poise, you've only just begun.
 College bound you are,
 You have come so far.
 At Graduation you'll see,
 How proud your family will be.
 We wish you love, health, and happiness,
 And only life's best.
 We know that you will be a success!
 XO Love, Mom, Dad, Matthew, Jenna XO
