HIGH SCHOOL
LINDENHURST,
LONG ISLAND
NEW YORK
1988 BULLDOG
VOLUME

Bull Dog '88
presents the
Face of Lindenhurst

What is the face of Lindenhurst?

It is students, their faces, ideas and individual personalities, bringing to the school promise, wonder, interest and the desire to learn.

What is the face of Lindenhurst?

It is administrators, teachers and aids, who devote their lives to enlightening the youth of our academic community.

What is the face of Lindenhurst?

It is a school continually growing and changing. It is a school always building to re-create itself in youth and awareness.

Lindenhurst, then, is composed of a myriad of faces . . . a physical aspect ever changing but a spiritual face which is ever the same. The union of all the individual faces creates a single spirit which is also a true face of the school. Teachers and administrators reflect the principles and traditions of this spirit and from this Lindenhurst emerges . . . the eternal juxtaposition of old and new.

This is the face of Lindenhurst as we see it in 1988.

In organizing half a thousand seniors . . .

Necessity demands a central leader

Directing youthful energies. Now, having
Enlisted such a counselor for our class, we
Discover that ungrudgingly he helps us
In school without a thought of recognition.
Concurrently the voice of Lindy on Saturdays
A math teacher and prom arranger,
This active man tacitly places his faith
In our ability to build together.
Only in part can we repay his efforts.
No verse inscription possibly can hope to

Thank someone who has earned such admiration.
Our class acknowledges the tireless work of

Mr. Ralph Wilkinson a FACE of Lindy, our class advisor.

Reducing the year to the size of an annual . . .

Packaging twelve months of living into one neat volume
Is a near herculean task

It requires separation of the trivial from the paramount

Demands definition of the essence of Lindenhurst

School is reading 'riting and 'rithmetic,

But is formalized education the entire experience?

To completely encompass the FACE of a year

A book must reach beyond the three R's

Must relate what we saw, what we felt,

It must represent our rebelliousness.

our recklessness

our regrets

our responsibilities

Our reactions to the era's environment

No yearbook can expect to recapture

Every person's every moment of any significance,

To reenact each of the 365 days in poetry and pictures.

But it attempts to reopen the thoughts of what is past

The road to remembrance.

It can remind you of the events

And pair the vaguely recalled facts with forgotten names

And perhaps, momentarily, it can transport you back to your youth.

With the inestimable aid of your teachers, your administrators,

Your parents, your activities, your accomplishments,

Bulldog has endeavored to recreate your outlook

As an adolescent in this year 1988.

So that it will ultimately be preserved as a reality.

Today, you receive a new edition of the yearbook.

And it seems to be little more than

An illustrated resume of events.

But when the photographs of friends become unfamiliar,

And "today" is no longer only yesterday,

Bulldog will be the spirit of the Year

And you will reminisce.

Frank M. Smith
Principal

To The Class of 1988:

Your graduation from Lindenhurst Senior High School represents a "passing through." Your four years of high school were years of structure and direction. As you leave us you enter an unstructured world and you now must find your own direction. You are moving from a period of security to a period of confusion. However, I am greatly impressed with your academic accomplishments, the level of your involvement in the school community, and the sophistication by which you address the world. The education that we have provided you here has been sound if we have taught you how to learn. Through learning you become a better person; a person who understands that part of being brave is to fear. Learning shows us that the purpose of life is to do something that makes a difference. You are excellent models of the product that develops as a result of good families, a community supportive of education, dedicated teachers, and a truly outstanding school that will continue to meet the needs of all students.

As you move on, we, of course, wish you the best that life has to offer. From our association, I have learned many things from you and consider myself fortunate to have known each of you. Thank you for all you have contributed to Lindenhurst High School. Go out into the world and continue to give to yourself so that you can give to others. God bless each of you.

Mr. Smith and Secretary Jean Fisher

To those who taught us we are grateful,
 For teaching can be a dry thing,
 sterile;
 Yet these men and women
 revealed to us
 The world of Knowledge — Logical, colorful, ordered in every respect —
 Made high school something other than repetitious,
 And left room for originality.

ART

Start with a blank sheet of paper.
A brush in a hand and colors to be mixed.

Training —
And there will be a new creation,
There will be new movement,
New light and shadow,
New expression.

ENGLISH

You are asked to ponder upon
the meaning of a work,
To pass judgment or provoke an argument
For the sake of discussion,
Conversation, involvement, or dialogue.
The subject for today is man in society.

Arthur Merrow
Chairperson

You are called upon to relate
your experience;
And actually, to judge your value.
A word — you are acutely,
blendingly aware of a purpose.
Then, your breath will again fan
softly.

Yet more effort.
 You are required to respond by means of the written word. Your letters, your dots, your dashes.
 You think you are learning to express your thoughts,
 But not really —
 With merely a fine point, you are struggling to create a stage for chaos,
 A final molding of undisciplined thoughts.

Down by two touchdowns before the end of the 1st half, the DAWGS pulled through with a touchdown and a 2 point conversion. But this was only the beginning. Before this thrilling game was over, the DAWGS overtook the LIONS by scoring 5 touchdowns in the 2nd half. Ronnie Frole and Chris Gordon each scored two TD's, while Phil Getfield and Steve Kienzle also scored to lead the DAWG'S to victory.

The newspaper is of necessity something of a monopoly, and its first duty is to shun the temptations of monopoly. Its primary office is the gathering of news. At the peril of its soul it must see that the supply is not tainted. Neither in what it gives, nor in what it does not give, nor in the mode of presentation, must the unclouded face of truth suffer wrong. Comment is free but facts are sacred.

WHEN GOD CREATED THE HANDICAPPED

*When God created the handicapped:
 He wasn't punishing the world for its flaws.
 He was giving us a Special gift of love and sensitivity.*

*When God created the handicapped:
 His purpose wasn't to slow down people's lives with a burden.
 But to help our hearts grow with patience and understanding.*

*When God created the handicapped:
 He didn't want people to abuse and shun them.
 He wanted us to accept them into our lives to teach us the meaning of sincerity and friendship.*

*When God created the handicapped:
 His intentions were all positive.
 It's our society that twisted and distorted
 His idea of compassion into Hatred and disgust.*

*When God created the handicapped:
 He realized the kind of cruelty our society might express.
 So very carefully, he selected several pieces from his body of Love and gave them to these special children.*

*They now possessed Love of God
 Which strengthened their hearts even more to teach us the true meaning of Life.*

LOVE!!!

What is L'Atelier?

L'Atelier is French for "the studio." It is the title of Lindenhurst High School's art and poetry magazine. Each student who contributes to the publication is proud of his or her accomplishment.

Although Mr. Pino prints the book, Lindenhurst High School students produce it. Anyone may submit his or her original poetry or art work for publication in L'Atelier. The staff carefully reviews each poem submitted.. Then, the staff considers what will be printed in the current year's edition.

Mr. Baldo is the advisor and Kristyn Laskowski is the editor-in-chief.

BULLDOG STAFF '88

A yearbook is born of a moment's inspiration by a half year of thought, crises, alterations and hard work. It can never be executed by one person, or even a small group of people, and when it has finally absorbed the ideas and efforts of a variety of contributors, the original inspiration is often greatly changed. Just this process has happened in the case of Bulldog '88. The inspiration has grown from the personalities of those working on it, through the need we feel it meets for Lindenhurst, into the final product we offer here as an attempt to reflect the FACE of Lindenhurst High School.

Rolling out
Taking its own time
Setting its own pace
The ocean is its own

The moon comes up
The midnight chill sets in
But no one is cold

Performing arts

Behind the stage, while audience awaits outside,
 The final moment
 Before the product of many months' practice is created.
 The months of every-day rehearsal,
 Of endless repetition,
 Of scales and memorizing lines.
 Do-re-mi and "To be or not to be."
 Remember those rehearsals.
 Performing to the sightless rows of empty seats,
 And all the work seemed silly at the time.
 But it's different now.
 The boisterousness that marked rehearsals.
 Is gone, and in its place
 The performers not sit
 Quite sobered, and more than a little nervous.
 And outside is the audience,
 Just beyond that thin curtain barrier.
 On stage, we sit in lavender dimness.
 The tuning up over,
 The last minute make-up on. All is set.

"MEMBRANOUS GROUP" — PLAY NUMBER ONE —

The first Thespian production of the 1987-1988 school year, "Triple Play," took place on Friday, November 6th at 8:00 pm in the senior high school auditorium.

"Triple Play" consisted of three one-act plays written by Mark Twain, the first of which was "Membranous Group," followed by "The Diary of Adam and Eve" and concluding with "Support Your Local Police." Each of these plays was very well done by our fellow students who were under the guidance of Thespian director Mr. Monsell.

play number one

"Membranous Group"

Caroline	Jeanne Delahunty
Mortimer	Anthony Russo
Penelope	Mary Gallo
Ethel Mae	Mary Hasson
Doctor	Al Pisani

setting: 2 bedrooms in a Missouri home, mid-19th century

10 minute intermission

play number two

"The Diary of Adam and Eve"

Adam	Vincent Sparagano
Eve	Sue Schroeder
Snake	Tracy Peppone

(Do we really have to tell you where this is supposed to take place?)

10 minute intermission

play number three

"Support Your Local Police"

Mrs. Simmons	Claudine Varriale
Inspector Blunt	James VanValen
Miss Alarac	Laurie Trezza

setting: A police station in New York City, mid-19th century

DIARY OF ADAM AND EVE"

PLAY NUMBER TWO

Although the audience wasn't very large, it was encouraging since the audience found the plays to be quite amusing and the laughter and applause showed the actors what a superb job they did. Among the audience were a few members from our own teacher faculty and administration.

The next Thespian production, "Voices From the High School," is already underway. Performance will be Friday, December 11th and Saturday, December 12th. We hope to see you all there!

SPORTS

Roaring thunderously for the heedless players . . .

Hundreds of loyal spectators packed
 On the bleachers of a hot, sweaty gym.
 Ever-changing numbers flashing on a wall.
 I am aware of its presence,
 A blur in a remote corner of my mind.
 My attention riveted on a ball
 Now flying into enemy hands,
 Now safe at our line.
 I clear their basket and
 Sink a long shot.
 To the sharp finality of a buzz,
 The scoreboard and the screams
 Reaffirm my faith in the team.

REGENTS SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Alexander
Betti

This year Mr. Smith was most happy and proud to announce that 36 Seniors of the Class of 1988 are Regents Scholarship winners. The winners of these scholarships were awarded them based on their grade point average and their score on either the A.C.T. or the S.A.T.

In addition, Tracey Gibbons was awarded a Regents Professional Education Nursing Scholarship. In addition to his Regents Scholarship, Brian Priest was awarded an Empire State Scholarship of Excellence. This scholarship is awarded to only 1,000 students in New York State.

Our entire faculty, staff, students and our entire school community congratulates and salutes these outstanding Seniors in their accomplishment.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
