Daniel E. Giordano
Superintendent of Schools

To the class of 2018,

It was only a few short years ago that you walked through the doors of Lindenhurst High School as freshmen, eager to begin a new phase of your life. Here you are standing on the precipice of another new beginning and I'm sure you have similar feelings of excitement as you face this next chapter.

Throughout your schooling you have been urged to try your best, get involved, and stay true to yourself. We hope that you continue to heed that advice as you prepare to leave the Lindenhurst school community; however, I will add another suggestion to that list. I am going to ask that you also remember your roots. Never forgot the bonds formed among classmates as you supported and encouraged each other to go further. Remember the values and morals you gained as you blossomed in this community and the lessons in compassion and tolerance you learned as you shared your time to help others in need. Remember the pride you felt as your teams went on to become champions.

Go beyond here and do great things but always remember your roots. The Lindenhurst Community will always be a home to you and our doors will always be open.

Sincerely

Daniel E. Giordano

Dear Class of 2018,

Change is constant and sometimes never easy. Coming to Lindenhurst High School was one such change that was made easier by the warm welcome I received from all. I was particularly impressed by the eagerness with which the senior class embraced their status as seniors and plan for their departure from the walls of Lindenhurst High School.

As seniors, your departure from Lindenhurst High School should be welcomed as the opportunity to chart your course and define yourself as a determined and focused graduate who will achieve your best and leave your mark, no matter how small or large, on today's society.

We are all proud of you. We hope that you will embrace the change from students to graduates, with the confidence that you have worked hard, completed this important milestone and are fully prepared for whatever challenges life will throw at you. You have our fullest support and best wishes.

On behalf of the administration, staff and students of the Lindenhurst Union Free School District. We wish you the very best and every success. "Walk Good!"

*Sincerely,
Dr. Clinton Grant
Principal*

Dr. Clinton Grant
Principal

To the graduating class of 2018

Although I have only been your assistant principal for two years, it has been a pleasure to supervise, monitor, discipline, counsel, advise, and more importantly, applaud. I have watched you grow academically, athletically, and socially. I will not soon forget the athletic events, drama productions, musical performances, fund raising activities, and principal's breakfasts and of course, all the mediations conducted in my office.

I trust that you will build upon the educational and social experiences that you have had here at Lindenhurst High School. The instant you leave high school, you will have the opportunity to forge new friendships, create new goals, and visualize any and all of your dreams. Whatever you choose to become, whichever road you decide to travel, whomever you choose to be with, are all questions that you will answer as your challenges are met and overcome. I wish you all good fortune and success presently, and in your future.

Dear Members of the Class of 2018:

As you prepare yourself for the next stage of life, whether it be college, military, or workforce, I hope you look back at your last four years here at Lindenhurst High School and remember all the lessons you learned. We aren't just talking about the academic lessons, but the life lessons we all learned along the way.

Perseverance. Life is a struggle at times, and occasionally we all feel the world is against us. Those are the times that test the strength of our souls. We hope you learned to turn to your support network for encouragement and help. We hope you learned that in time you will overcome any problem you are dedicated to overcome. Finally, we hope you learned that failure is an essential step towards eventual success.

Appreciation and Understanding. So often it is easy to get caught up in the negativity of life, in looking at the down side of people and situations; however, if you shift your view and see things through the lens of appreciation, or when that is not possible, with understanding, you will find yourself happier and less stressed. There are things in your life you can change for the better, and those you cannot. Appreciate any opportunity to make the world a better place, and understand that when things are out of your hands, that sometimes what is, simply is what is.

Right now is important. Sometimes you need to plan ahead, for college, to buy a house, plan for retirement. However, right now, what is happening in front of you is important. The people you are with are important. Enjoying the moment is important. I hope you made the most of your high school years, and made a lot of great memories, but don't dwell just in those memories, for the rest of your life is going to be made of moments, enjoy each one.

Time Management. As important as living in the moment is, you also need to make sure you don't wear yourself out. Don't over commit, don't double book yourself, do save some time to do nothing every day. Get a headstart on your projects so that you can relax later on.

Do something new. Adventure is a key to growing. Don't be afraid to go forth and do something you have never done before. It doesn't have to be skydiving (though it could be), it can be something as simple as going to a new restaurant, trying a new food, traveling to a new country, talking to a person you just met on the bus. The point is, never stop growing as a person, never stop learning.

Love and Compassion. We hope you learned that you are loved. Each and every one of you. Lindenhurst is your family, and you can always come home if you need us. We will be rooting you on and happy to hear about all of your great adventures and great tribulations in life.

It was an honor advising you,
Alyssa Kamalic
John Halloran
Michael C. Smith

The image features a vibrant sunset sky with streaks of orange and red clouds against a deep blue background. A thin white contrail is visible in the upper right. Below the horizon, a highway is shown at night, with the headlights and taillights of cars creating a long, glowing line of light that recedes into the distance. The overall mood is serene and dynamic.

You have quietly achieved so much. Enjoy all the accolades and know that there are many more to come. Most of all enjoy all the wonderful friendships you've made in Lindenhurst – they are a reflection of all your kindness, good humor, and adventurous-side. We are so proud of who you are and are excited to see you heading off to your next adventure.
